Including Biographies of Washington, Green, Jackson, Taylor, Scott, Sherman, J. E. Johnston, Lee, Thomas, Grant, Hancock, Sheridan, and Admirals Farragut and Porter.

GEN. JAS. GRANT WILSON, Editor.
D. APPLETON & CO., Publishers.

Dear General Howard

When your sketch maps are completed, if you will forward them to me, they will be submitted to our artist with a view to seeing if they can be successfully reduced to a double page of about 6 + 8 inches. Folded maps, as you correctly remark, are almost always torn or otherwise impaired by improper folding, and so the general appearance of the book suffers.

The brief incident connected with General Taylor's house was simply as follows. When I first visited the second story of Wellington at Southfield Say ^{in 1872} observed hanging on the walls of my sleeping-room called the "Coronation Chamber" - from the circumstance of its containing a large picture of the Coronation of Queen Victoria in ^{Westminster Abbey} in which the "Iron Duke" was a prominent personage, a portrait of General Taylor wearing a broad-brimmed straw hat and mounted in "old whiter" with both legs on one side of the saddle. The picture was sent to ^{the} ~~the~~ Sun after the battle of Buena Vista by an anonymous American friend, and he was so much interested in the quaint representation of "Rough and Ready," that it was hung in one of the principal shipping apartments of Strathfield Saye, where it is still to be seen. The second ^{make} ~~make~~ said to me that his father watched the Mexican campaigns with great interest, and entertained a high opinion of the military genius of Generals Taylor and Scott.

If in addition to the above, you could give some account of Taylor's favorite horse, it would make an interesting item. I presume his diary etc. could supply the information, if not found in the diary of Taylor.

Allow me to add a few suggestions. Either use numbers uniformly for regiments, such as 4th or spell out Fourth, which is I think the better form, or not write Robt but Robert in full, never U S but United States, and in place of the 8th of May, May 8th, I would also suggest that you make longer paragraphs. When they are so short, they knell up the page and make it often unattractive. Once at most two in a page of short words are desired sufficient. At the same time they should not be a rule to be a great a part page. Finally, if you will forward your MSS directly to me it will save time as there is little to be done else in the press reaching me from the publishers.

The portrait you supplied of Sir Taylor is undoubtedly a good one and will be greatly loved.

My dear General

I have read with much interest and pleasure the interview with you published in the Mail & Express.

Your position in declining the nomination for President on the Prohibition ticket is in my opinion both consistent and wise. The Republican party seems still the only medium through which to secure in our generation national legislation in the interests of temperance and other moral reform.

I have not yet learned whether you have received Mr. Borden's check for $500., but I presume you have as Mr. Knevals told me that he would send it.

That, I believe, would leave $200. still to come unless you have received from other sources.

Please inform me how it stands as I wish to send my check for the balance.

Very sincerely yours

Major General Howard

Governors Island N.Y.

Dear Sir,

Though despair I take the courage to address this letter to you praying you kindly to help me in my misfortune, any way you may think it advisable. I served 8 years in the U. S. Artillery, 1 year in Fort Barrancas Fla. the remainder in Washington City in Battery "K", 3rd Art'y. Having saved $1000 and thinking that I might be able with this little sum to begin my own little business and settle down in life I took my discharge on the 19 of March C.S. under G. O. #80 of 1890. I was discharged as Sergeant. I went to New York made the acquaintance of a respectable young lady and got married

I did not go into housekeeping at one but lived with an other young man in a furnished room until I had found something. My intention was to start a Restaurant. On the 27 of March I had found a suitable place, of which I was to take charge next day. I came home about 11 P.M. the 27 and the bed of my room mate was still empty so I went to bed, next morning when I arose his bed was still empty, then some thought struck me, I had $760. at the bottom of my trunk this money I had received on my final Statements and as I was to use it at any time I had left it in the trunk securely locked, when I looked at the trunk I discovered that the lock was broken and when I opened it found the money gone. of course I know than who was the thier

I felt for sometime very downhearted and discouraged, that the savings of so many years, my hopes, good prospects and everything was lost and only for my wife would have lost all energy to live, but for ~~her~~

Bessie are at church I will write you.
I am glad to be able to write you that I am about well and can enjoy everything and have not been obliged to give up seeing any thing that I cared to see. I don't try Picture Galleries except to see some special picture as they are tiring.
I must begin back from the time of my last letter so as to bring you up to date. From Monday till Thursday we spent in Florence making our stay there just a week.

I saw the principal churches one museum & the Corsini Gallery as well as the outskirts of many palaces when out walking.

The only drawback to Florence is that the shops are too attractive and we couldn't get out of many without buying.

There is still some disadvantage here in Venice and I am afraid I will have to visit the bankers again before reaching Paris where we hope to be in little over a week.

In Florence we took the beautiful drive up Monte Miniata & got a good view of the city on a fine day.

We left Florence on Thursday 21st inst. and arrived at Bologna at 5.50 P.M. where we spent the night.

Bologna is a clean town for an Italian one.

their silvery prow seems to

We leave here tomorrow at Pisapia and arrive at Mr Dorsey Tuesday about 4 P.M.

There we will stay two days & leave Thursday for Genoa Nice & to Paris. We hope to meet Fannie in Paris.

We rec'd your second letter from home & one from Janie. The story from the world that she sent was amusing. Give much love to them & to Chauncy family.

~~could~~ couldn't get her to like the easy seat and lean back; but yesterday we all took a long gondola ride to Lido Island & Mamma was repaid by picking up shells on the Adriatic shore.

I bought two sea-borders from a man who had been a sailor on a petroleum steamer between America and Italy.

We passed one Italian man-of-war and in route we were much amused at watching a sailor from some man-of-war trying to make a gondola go with the right stroke but everytime he put his oar against the standard the momentum of the boat ahead would carry his oar way astern.

We have visited St Mark's and the Doge's Palace & its dungeons been inside & out of the Bridge of Sighs and taken good looks at the columns & the Lion, the Campanile, & the Ponte Rialto as well as spend much time in flattening our nose against the pretty little shop windows where not inside. In the evenings gondolas full of good singers come in front of the hotels & sing; and then its quite "the thing" to take a gondola & form one of each of boats that surround the singers.

But, we can't get mother to take gondolas well enough to go out at night.

My dear General -

Your kind letter has just come.
I feared you had been in the valley of humiliation. Now my dear Cousin - let it go - and above all do not speak of it or try to right it. I would only bring it up & I have never heard a word - "The least said the soonest mended is a good maxim".
Only remember my dear friend it is not wise to let all you know in the house or even if it is gospel truth.
I have just had a call

I will let you have your share in the feel you have but ever time to read letters. And as you think some and think right a sign with them I must let you share with some and I - I can be sure that some - some inquire and then will read them. And that are not willing to say for me nothing Also your heart if that letter has shown that we may often observe - With love your affectionate Cousin -

My cousins left on Saturday. They enjoyed their visit with you much - and said very nice things of you - I gave as much of your message to Miss Fisk as I thought good for her. The substance perhaps not full strength - And of course she was awfully sorry at the golden opportunity's loss -

Lost things are always most precious - I am so glad to hear the good news from Cousin Lizzie that they are now all well - I am going to write her soon - And tell her all the good things I can. I don't wonder you are getting homesick for them -

I am glad Ed C. appears - He did not seem very enthusiastic I thought when he spoke to me

Maybe he came just to talk. I have heard several ask what did he think - He is not an Episcopalian - but his wife is - So that is half - I have hopes of him -

I am sorry you lost your tooth brush.
I ought to have looked after it - But it is a good sign that you will come again -

Mrs. Dalton & daughter called on me yesterday so sorry to miss them.

Now do try and not work all the time and get some rest and peace in life - You must take that rest - So you see you have a commandment - In trying to write plain I

Dear Brother:--

I have the copy of your letter sent to San Mateo, asking me to call on my way home. You see I am already home. I was called home a month before I intended to come by reason of a law case. We, perhaps, can do all the business you mention by correspondence. I suppose we can set the time of the funeral to suit our own and Helen's convenience. I should like it as late as practicable; say, not till the first of June; but, it is possible that the Superintendent of the Vault at Arlington may have some objection to retaining the body too late. What is your wish as to the date?

As to the Memorial: I will write more fully at another time, but have had some thought that the Memorial in the "Advocate" was so full and good, perhaps, no additional one would be desirable.

As to the debt in Rome: Do you know yet how much the Society will pay? It seems to me they ought to pay whatever extra expense was incurred from the fact of his being sent away from home on duty for the Society; in other words, the difference from what the expense would have been for such a sickness, during the same length of time, in his own home, and as it occurred in Rome. Then, after the Society has paid what they can, it would belong to his Estate to cover the remainder, and it would be taken from the life insurance money, or other assets.

Gen. B. O. Howard,
Governor's Island, N. Y.
Dear Sir:--
I have the copy of your letter sent to Gen.
Hiscox, asking me to call on my name. You see I am already here.
I was called some months before I intended to come by reason of a law case. We, perhaps, can do all the business you mention by correspondence. I suppose we can set the time of the funeral to suit our own and Helen's convenience. I should like it as late as practicable; say, not till the first of June; but, it is possible that the Superintendent of the Vault at Arlington may have some objection to retaining the body too late. What is your wish as to the date?
As to the Memorial: I will write more fully at another time, penses would have been for such a sickness, during the same length of time, in his own home, and as it occurred in Rome. Then, after the Society has paid what they can, it would belong to his Estate to cover the remainder, and it would be taken from the life insurance money, or other assets. The sons have signafied their willingness to help out and, indeed, I think would be compelled by law to deduct these expenses before taking any inheritance. I shall be glad to have any suggestions from you, and am pleased to hear all are well, and to add that we are all well at home.

Affectionately yours,

My Dear Sir:- Our presses have stood ready all this week waiting for the return of proofs, not only an expensive job but a delay in time we can ill afford being now 60 days behind our limit for the issue of the Centennial Volume.

I therefore wish to ask that you instruct me the reading of your proof, as the copy is very carefully prepared. I will read the first and last proof. I am making great efforts to get the work out of press June 1st. At the rate of late delays, it will be autumn, hence this request. What do you say?

Cordially yours
H. L. Stillson

I wish to add, General, that you misunderstood our proposition as to illustrations. It was either to use your half-ton plate, or to procure one for you at the cost to us, the plate to be yours.

months ago I became de-
