My dear brother:-

We are hoping to see you and Chas. also, on Sat. The house is large enough and we can make you comfortable, I think. Take the house street directly in front of the station and we are in the second house on it, at Mrs.
Dr. Winnie - Mr. Bushnell
will go with us, also Mr.
Talbot and his wife. We shall be obliged to start

Monday morn, and not in the evening as I at first thought.

I think every thing will be in readiness in Leeds -

Affly yours -

How Horse Flesh Tastes.

[From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

"You never ate horse flesh, I suppose," said Lieut. Russell, of the Seventh United States Cavalry, at the Southern. "I have seen the time when I ate it with a genuine relish, and that, too, without any salt. It was in 1877, during Gen. Miles's Nez Percés campaign. We had followed the renegades up the Missouri to its confluence with the Yellowstone, and the chase was so fast and exciting that we didn't realize how low our larder was getting until it was drained, and we were getting too far away from the base of supplies to replenish it. The game had all been driven out of the country ahead of us by the fleeing Indians, and when we finally caught up with the red-kins and forced them to fight we had almost nothing to eat for several days. We captured about seven hundred ponies from the Indians, some of them so round and sleek and fat as to appear to us the finest meat in the world. Our butchers killed the youngest and fattest of the ponies that night after the battle, and as soon as they were skinned and dressed we had a feast that would have made Lucullus turn green with envy. We lived on this pony meat several days. It was cooked without salt and roasted over a spit, like a barbecued beef. The meat had a peculiar, sweet taste, not at all palatable when I think of it now, and it was so fibrous that we could pull it apart in great strings. But it kept us from starving, and I, therefore, can heartily recommend pony meat to people in dire straits."

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard.
New York City.
Dear Sir:-

Received a letter recently from my Father, Frank J. Webb Sr., Prin. Pub. Schs. of Galveston Texas, requesting me to call on you. He was one of your clerks in the Freedmen's Bureau & a student of the Law Dept. in 1869 & '70. He said probably you might remember him; & possibly put his "son" in the road to obtaining employment. Called on you when last you were here, but unfortunately was unable to meet you.

Kindly pardon a word or so regarding my personal history. At fourteen I became impatient of parental control, & ran away from home. After drifting around Texas as a common street bootblack I went to Mexico on the first passenger train entering Monterey. Some American residents became interested in me & obtained for me a monopoly of the trade in that city.

Saved something over ($300.00) Three Hundred Dollars in a little more than a year, besides purchasing a couple of lots from J. O.
Nicholson in the city of Laredo Texas. Mr. N. still resides there ^{and} will vouch for my statements. I was nearly seventeen years old then ^{and} could neither read or write intelligibly.
At the advice of friends, I determined to become a teacher, as in that profession I could be of some benefit to my race.

Entered the State Normal Sch. of Texas, completed the assigned (4) year course in ^{and} received my Diploma ^{at 21.} Secured the position of Prin. of a coloured school in Austin Texas - a city in which I once blackballed ^{and} nearly starved. The inclosed letter will inform you I acquitted myself creditably to the day of my resignation to accept employment elsewhere of a more lucrative character. Taught (3) two sessions in Red River Co.
^{and} the letter of recommendation, signed by the county officials should be sufficient testimony as to my conduct while there.

Resigned my position ^{and}
^{and} came to Howard, my Father's Alma Mater, to study medicine. Found the class too advanced for my entrance.

Have decided to enter next Sept.
Have been reading medicine, ^{and} studying in the college dept. as
as a special student, ^{and} thereby earnestly endeavouring to better prepare myself for my chosen profession.

Never having been ($5.00) five dollars expense to my parents, for what little education
I possess, would greatly prefer continuing my independence.
At the Prairie View State Normal work was furnished capable ^{and} worthy students; here nothing of the kind is done.
I write to beg that if you know of any employment - no matter of what character just as I can save a few dollars - would you not kindly aid me in securing it. I must do something, ^{and} if you know of any thing I could do, it would almost be a blessing to me if I could get it.
Sincerely trust, Gen. Howard, you will pardon the liberty
I take with your valuable time, but as I wished you to understand the circumstances, I could scarcely have done otherwise - or made it more brief. With greatest respect,
I have the honour to be ^{and} with the hope of your aid.

Your Most Obedient Servant,
Frank J. Gilchrist, Jr.

P.S. Prof. Kelly Miller, one of the teachers in the college dept.,
will doubtless take pleasure in recommending me.
