To
General Howard,

Dear Sir:

Your bills have been introduced into the Senate and the House by Senator Stanford, and the Hon. W. W. Brown, one to recover $200 unpaid pay. supposed to be due Captain Murdoch, and one to raise my pension to $50. These gentlemen have both expressed themselves kindly and politely, and I believe that they will do what they can to help me. General Mc Cook will not help me. He resents some expressions I have made of feeling in regard to the manner of my husband's death. Now Mc Cook has written to me that Captain Murdoch was asked to go to Fort Leavenworth before he was sent to Southern Utah, and that he refused to go. Every one knows that this is not the truth, but I cannot convince Mr. the Cook of my opinion.

Capt. Thompson of the 6th, who is at Washington, has visited the Capitol, and is working nobly in my behalf.
Mr. Pickler and others are doubtful of success, but notwithstanding this, since so much has been done, I feel that it is my duty to make every effort possible. I thank you humbly for all that you have done, and beg, if I may do so without troubling you too much, that you will still remember the widow of a brave soldier who has not deserved that he should be forgotten and despised by his old Colonel and Commanding Officer.

Very respectfully yours
Emily Murdock

My dear Father;

Here is a letter written by you from Meiv and another one from Gjer. Island, both of which I have not answered yet, although I should have liked to do so, as soon as they came. But the doctor had forbidden me to even write in bed and I was a very obedient patient this time, as I felt it was necessary. I am well now and so happy that I can go out and again.

Jannie has written you that dear Gussmutter had gone Home to rest before we arrived.
She died the 1st of March after a few days sickness. It was a great sorrow to me not to see her again. Her loss has left a great void in our home. We are happy in the thought that she is freed from all her pains which were many in the last 3 years. We found Maria pretty well, but weak from the care of nursing Gussmutter, she is much stronger now and the others are well too.
Hedwig and Alfred were here for Easter so we four children were together once more.

Hildegard enjoys every minute of her stay here. She has so many children to play with and is so well. She speaks no English now, only German. When Jannie came back from his last trip to Berlin he could not understand her, because she talks regular baby German.
We expect Mother Harry and Bessie to-morrow.
I'm glad to be well rested and able to go about with them.
The Doctor has put me to bed again for 2 days and

Dear General Howard:-

I send you a circular which, in condensed form, gives a resume of my work for the past seven years. I think you will be interested in looking it over. I am surprised myself, on bringing together the results, to see how wide the range has been, and how many writers of distinction in various fields have contributed to the newspapers through my programs.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the work is, that it has brought much good literature and sound knowledge within reach of the masses.

At the present time, I am sending to my subscribers from thirty to forty separate articles weekly,--sufficient to make a magazine almost as large as Lippincotts.

Very truly yours,

Dear Major Quinn:

Hon E. M. Boynton
a friend of mine of more than twenty years standing was speaking this morning of having some dealings indirectly with yourself concerning the building of the jetties within your district. His suggestions indicate to me that he has some how very thoroughly canvassed a subject with which he has been long familiar and I think it will be wish you wish to give his plans and methods the fullest con-

Hoping that this

Major Gen. O.O. Howard,

Governor's Island, New York Harbor.

My Dear Gen. Howard:

Some time ago I wrote to ask you whether it would be possible to continue Lieut. Bellinger of the Army in his present position at West Point after the termination of his present detail, which expires August 28th. You wrote me in reply that West Point, although within the geographical limit of your department, was not at all within your jurisdiction. Mr. Coudert, the father-in-law of Lieut. Bellinger, is extremely desirous to keep his daughter near him for the present if he can, and now informs me that there is, or will shortly be, a vacancy at Governor's Island which is entirely within your control.

Of course you understand that neither Mr. Coudert or I would for a moment wish to trench upon your individual plans, much less upon your own ideas of correct administration; nevertheless, we take the liberty of bringing to your attention the fact, entirely without the knowledge of Lieut. Bellinger, that if it would be convenient and agreeable to have Lieut. Bellinger ordered to Governor's Island it would confer great happiness upon some extremely worthy people who deserve well of us all. Please let me have a line from you in reply. Yours very truly,

Dear Gen.

Pardon me for thus trespassing upon your time, but I know of no one just now who would more readily give me the desired information than you.

I enlisted in May 1861 in Co I 3rd Reg M. V. M under Capt. Lakeman. Not discharged I think in Sept 1861 at Flag Hill Va but have long since lost my discharge. If you have the Roster of your old Regiment (which I thought possible) you will name there. Is there any way by which I can obtain a copy of my discharge. I am not seeking for a pension as I am not aware that I am entitled to one. Please tell me what course to pursue and oblige

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard,

Governors Island, N. Y.

Dear General,

The evening I wrote you my last I was taken ill with violent fever, and have been confined to my bed until recently.

Copies of the wills I send with this letter. You will notice in what intricate and involved language they are expressed. In will No. 1 I have supplied in pencil "3d." "4th." and "5th." evidently omitted either by the testator or his copyist Col. Bliss.

In will No. 3 "to make up to her" enclosed in pencil parentheses seems to mean nothing - at least, so far as I can see. Will No. 2 I am unable to obtain.

The tree promised by Mrs. Jones has arrived, but it furnishes merely names. It is a genealogical tree decidedly - trunk, branches, etc., all being there, the names on apples, and the apples differently tinted for each generation.

By the by, I find a mistake in the sketch of the family I sent. Col. Richard Taylor (Zachary's father) married Sarah Strother daughter of Wm. Strother and Widew Pannill - not Margaretta Watts as stated.

With great respect,

New Orleans, June 15th., 1882.

Although Col. Bliss writes a good & pleasing hand, from the fact that he furnished several of his letters alike he is sometimes ambiguous - for instance, as he writes a capital "J" and "J" the same I do not know whether he means Capt. J. S. Allison or Capt. J. S. Allison. I have selected
 "J" as most likely.

I respectfully ask that the inmates of Castle Williams be informed on next meeting night, that I am now an assigned member of the 9th U. S. Cav Band.
