Major Genl. O.O. Howard,
Dear Sir:

I have to thank you for your favor this date with inclosed bill and also in receipt of letter from your Department Headquarters giving the information needed.

Yours very truly,

R. W. Powell
Dear Sue

I am delighted to have you come almost to my home from your mission. Sunday P.M.
the 10th. We have Fin at 5:30 to leave. The evening prayer meeting at our home of Industry.

5:30 to 9:00 and at the mighty mission 9:30 to 10:00 (and by) the first morning meeting.

This is a home for girls and the mighty mission is a home for boys. Part from the country and homeless men.

Both of these, one new branches of our city mission.
Mr. Friend has promised in your Mission serial times I think. I don't mean anything for you. It comes to us with kindness in the necessary note. The other have a much period for you and the Tower. Dear Mrs. Southworth

Dear Friend:
I can hardly express our disappointment at the cancellation of your engagement for the fourth and ensuing week.
We rely upon your being with us and believe a delightful addition to our household and spending the week promised for rest and fishing here and in your Hampshire.
We trust that you have adjusted official business... and can make haste faster by rest as suggested by you good Dr. Bell.
Your visits are a pleasure and a blessing to our entire household and we will give you as little public attention as you desire.
Please write us when you and Capt. Gray can come so that we may meet you at railway post on the arrival of your train.
What is what-time you can come. Every

Dear General Howard,

I have told Emil Beck that I think the thing for him to do is to strike out for new occupation and associations in the country; if possible in some Western State. It also seemed to me most likely that you would approve of the idea and perhaps promote it in some way. He has promised to speak with you about the matter and I greatly hope it will result in good.

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir,

From various quarters come requests that you be urged to address one of the National Services sometime this summer. Service is held at 4 P.M. each Sabbath afternoon. Those who have spoken at all so far are: Roswell G. House, Dr. McCleary, Gov. McKinley, Lucy Stone, Gov. Garfield, Rev. Mr. Parker, of the Senate, many others.

The collection, after expenses are deducted, is devoted to taking crippled children from New York Institutions trained for a two weeks outing. The audiences at the Auditorium National Services are usually from every section of the country.

Can you address the service of July 22? Please telegraph with respect.

To General O. C. Howard, S. Edward Young.

P.S. Of course we will be very glad to have you.
Kindly remember me to Captain Gray, and believe me,coy.

Your grateful cousin,

Mary L. Wilson

I had no questions asked about the post.

I must pardon my delay in returning the plate, but I was quite ill yesterday and unable to write.

Please accept my due mother's thanks combined with mine for all your kindness to me.

My dear General—It gave me great pleasure to unite with others in voting for you for President of the Home Missions Society. I was delighted also with your candidness. May God bless you in this work.

We are to observe the 76th anniversary of the organization of the Church here July 20th. This people came from the West and the work of the Church is Christianity.

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am writing to express my deep concern regarding the current state of our project. As you may recall, we had discussed the importance of adhering to our timeline and ensuring that all parties are on the same page. I have noticed that we are falling significantly behind schedule.

Despite our efforts, the team seems to be struggling with the current pace. It appears that there are some challenges that we need to address immediately. I believe that it would be wise to conduct a thorough review of our current progress and identify areas where adjustments can be made.

I am confident that we can correct these issues and get back on track. However, it is crucial that we act quickly to prevent further delays. I would like to schedule a meeting with the team to discuss this matter further.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Gen. Howard,

I received your letter Saturday morning. My friends are coming down to see me at present before leaving home. I have to provide for our Bill. Reader for the summer and to assist in keeping the marinette at $60 per month to visit the standing at Red Hooke while the female makes her way away, also to earn money for the outing of the girls club at the Chapel, down on the Island also fresh air fund, and some for the family who need aid during the summer while people are out of town, and I am sure to say or few people think of the wants of the
From closing the summer which I think is more needed then in winter. When I reached home found a poor unfortunate news of Mr. Buck for which he has always provided for since the death of his brother very sick and was not lost last a few days. So you see I have so many calls just at this time. I must make my donation to your mother than I should. We arrive all safe for ten days it rained constantly so I could not step from the ocean but now the weather is fine and farmers are beginning to hay so.

I rejoice with you when you get your family home safe and sound.

My dear General:

Accept my thanks for the timely interest shown in your note of the 9th inst. Permit me to say that, while I had not opportunity for verifying the story told by Mr. Powell, it commenced itself as perfectly straightforward. Mr. Powell is not a member of our delegation, but came on to attend convention and registered at Iowa Headquarters as a member of the M.E. Church at Indianaola, Ia. He attended the Union Square over night, meeting, was unable to find accommodation at the boarding house to which he was sent, and while on the way to another was attacked and robbed. Though urged by the women to waive prosecution, he declined to do so, and, having no acquaintance in the city, was detained as witness in $500 bond. I believe the 'Gazette' clipping which you sent me, to be thoroughly sensational and libellous, and hope Mr. Powell will make the paper pay for its measures. The case probably comes to examination today, but I am too thoroughly worn out to attend it.
There was doubtless some measure of badgering during conversations, and some of the delegates were cautious, especially those from a distance. One delegation had its badges stolen. But these things, much as we regret them and unfortunate as they now seem, will not, I believe, dim the true luster of our work for Christ. Papers like the "Iowa and Herald" are always ready for a fling at religion. I rejoice that the faithful work and testimony of Christ's followers, blessed by His Spirit, cannot fail to bring to outweigh the foolishness of evil men.

With much appreciation of your interest, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Sir:

I have the honour to convey the invitation of the President and Council for you to join this Institute as an associate, or if you should prefer, as a member.

I beg to enclose a statement of its objects. Its ranks include men of Science, ministers of Religion, and laymen, some actively aiding in its work, others desiring to support a Society having such objects, or to enjoy the advantages of such apprenticeship.

Awaiting your reply.
