Dear General Howard.

At Mr Stone's request I have written a letter to Staff of Military Academy West Point, telling him of our coming with you to-morrow, and that you are to be our guests at lunch at the Hotel, and inviting him to lunch with us. I have also requested him to do us the kindness of ordering lunch for party of ten to thirteen between one and two o'clock. We note that the boat leaves West 22nd Whitney, S.W. Street at 9 a.m. Mr Stone has appointed me as his Quarter Master, and I will attend to all transportation matters for the party. Do not hesitate to bring with you any friends who may turn up, whom you would like to invite. We have taken the liberty of adding two or three to our party since we saw you yesterday.

I cannot tell you, General, how much good you did us all yesterday, and how much I appreciate your kindness in going with us to West Point. As my daughter said in going away "So it splended!" Mr Stone is a very dear Christian friend, and in many respects. Just now, that I may respond to a telegram from Mr Moody to come and help him in Ireland, he is entertaining us, and paying our passage over and back at a cost of some £500. He is a man of large wealth, and uses his money all over the world to help on the winning of souls to Christ. You quite won his heart by the talk of yesterday, and will have a place in his love and prayers as long as he lives. Under these circumstances, your courtesy to him has been a source of gratification to me, and brought me under renewed obligations, my dear General, to you. With the greatest respect and affection, your old staff officer, and present Brother in Christ,

Dear General:

It will give me pleasure to see you on the post to-morrow, and in accordance with your special request, the "pomp and ceremony" of military life will be omitted and the usual salute will not be fired.

It would have gratified me to have been able to tender you both a review and a salute, but I trust that these are only temporarily postponed and that West Point, may at an early

Maj. Gen'l O. O. Howard,

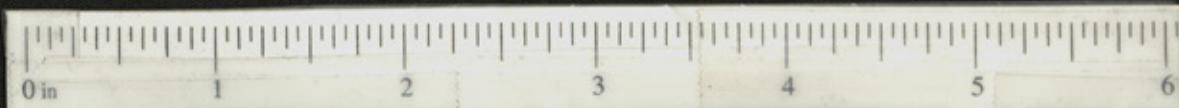

Governor's Island, City.

My Dear General:- We have in mind a conspiracy against the President of the American Home Missionary Society. You will see by referring to the enclosed card the effort we made last year to enroll the boys and girls of the Congregational churches into the Home Missionary Army. Many thousands of these cards were taken and as many thousand dimes came back into the treasury. We propose on the Sabbath before Thanksgiving to repeat the effort but we desire to make a change in the card. Instead of the map we wish to issue in a handsome form the face and bust of our President, who is also the Commander in Chief of the Boys' and Girls' Home Missionary Army. All this we propose to indicate in ornamental form beneath and around the picture.

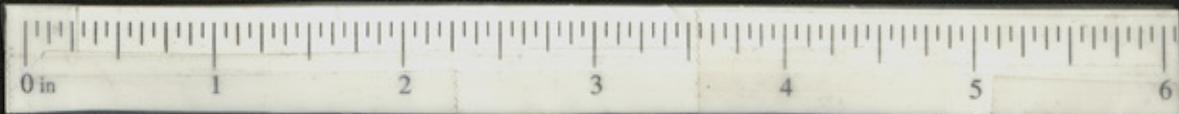

The process proposed is that known as the photo-lithograph process and all that we need for complete success is the photo, which we earnestly ask you to select and forward to us for this purpose. Of course we would like the uniform to appear but above all we want a good handsome picture, taken in your very best mood. We are very much in earnest in this matter and will have to move rapidly to perfect our plan before the 20th of November.

With kindest regards, I am very truly yours,

Now, my wife's parents are constantly writing to us to try and go home to them as they are rapidly losing their health. But our means are so limited that we cannot think of going to Switzerland, unless I get more remunerative employment, and now I have a plan, if only it could be worked out: Rev. J. W. Very Honored Sir and Dear Brother In Christ,

Knowing how precious is your time, how busy you are, and how common place may seem to you many of the things I might relate concerning our work and ourselves, since I last wrote to you, I delayed writing again until now. Several times I have had the pleasure to read your names in connection with some celebration of a religious or secular character, and I concluded that you were still well.

 May the Christian public long enjoy your presence on this side of heaven and your cheering words.
 You have been many times remembered in my home and my wife is very sorry that she was so unwell that we could not go over to Governor's Island. We came here from Minnesota in the last days of November, last for the sake of my wife's health. Siloam Springs would become a pleasant, as well as a thrifty little "city" should the long promised Railroads be built through it. As it is, 30 miles from any railroad point, it is a rather backward part of the country.
 There are many families of Union Soldiers, living here. The G. A. R. Post numbers over 150 members, several of whom once marched under your leadership.

 Better education is much needed in this State and Congregationalism, to succeed here, must educate. There was here an Academy connected with our Church, and it has done good work, but somehow it was not more independent from the A. M. A. the last year it received aid than it was at first.
 There is too much ignorance and sectarian spirit as well as a too great want of appreciation concerning educational advantages.
 The Rev. F. B. Doe, of St. Louis, our ^{Genl} Home Missionary was afraid last fall, that this field might discourage us — and it has well nigh done it. The workers in the Church have all gone away which I enclose. The only way which I could think of as a so-interest some friends and ask them if they would not endeavor sum needed ($500.00) and donate it to the Congregational Academy

Rev. P. Ph. Brial, Siloam Springs,
 My Dear Bro,

We wd like exceedingly to have Mrs Brial teach drawing & painting here. No people need a special culture wch the study of art secures, than those in this region. Nothing wd make so great improvement in the appearances of homes & dress as this kind of culture. I wd have had it long ago if I could have secured a teacher. It seems to g had not to be able to secure Mrs Brial when she is so near.

But of course there is but little appreciation of art here, & the people are not willing to pay much tuition for it. So that I can see no way to secure the salary of a teacher. And I do not know where I wd look for help.

Can you suggest anything?

We are all well,

HEADQUARTERS JOINT RESIDENT REUNION COMMITTEE OF THE ELEVENTH, TWELFTH, AND TWENTIETH ARMY CORPS,

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 1, 1892.

DEAR COMRADE:

Under authority of the General Reunion Committee of this city, a Resident Reunion Committee for each of the old Army Corps has been organized here. The Joint Resident Reunion Committee of the Eleventh, Twelfth, and Twentieth Army Corps is composed of former members of said Corps. This Joint Resident Reunion Committee has made arrangements for reunions of these Corps and of the Brigades thereof at GRAND ARMY PLACE in this city, at the hours and on the days hereinafter stated, during the Twenty-sixth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army.

The Joint Reunion Committee hereby extends you a cordial invitation to be present at and to participate in these reunions. It is scarcely necessary to say that there is a heartfelt desire on the part of those who were in the great struggle for national supremacy to grasp by the hand, to look into the face of, and to exchange greetings with each comrade who took part in that great cause, and especially with those who commanded them. This invitation is given in the fullest sympathy with this sentiment, and in the belief that these reunions may be made most enjoyable and a source of pride and satisfaction, and at the same time occasions for the renewal of old friendships, to all who may participate in them. As this will be the greatest of all encampments, so the opportunities for meeting old comrades will be greatest here.

The Joint Reunion Committee hopes you are still in the full measure of your strength, as well as in the full enjoyment of all the blessings of this life, and also that you will find it convenient and agreeable to accept this invitation, TO WHICH IT REQUESTS A RESPONSE.

For the Joint Reunion Committee:

At present I am attached to a paper comp'y, of the Regt, ("K."), and I am but a short time over two years from retirement by age. I have served 31 years in the First Infantry, nearly 24 years a Captain, and have been very unfortunate from the results of regimental promotion. Of 13 Majors on the active list, 8, (including the Major of my own Regt.), were commissioned second lieutenants after me, and 5 on the same date as myself.
Lineal promotion would have made me nearer to a Lieut. Colonelcy than I am now to a Majority.

From 1878 to 1889 I served continually with my company, (in Dakota, Texas, Arizona & California), barring the incidents of a few detached services on Court Martial duty & in the divisions in which we were serving.
Prior to 1889, in a service of 28 years, ^{total} my leaves of absence did not amount to 90 days.

With these facts, and my good record, I think I am entitled to consideration and I shall be very thankful to you for your kindness in aiding me to secure it.

CINCINNATI, O.

September 9th, 1892.

General.

Permit me to ask the following question, as it is one of some moment to me -

My tour of duty on Recruiting Service expires on the 1st prox; and Captain Wittich succeeds me, which will transfer me to Company "F" at Sidney, Neb. My personal effects are at Niagara.

Can you tell me what the prospects are for the Companies of the 21st coming East?

If they are likely to be moved in the Spring, I would only take out enough to camp in my rooms; to avoid expense and liability of breakage in transporting across the Country twice in a short period of time; and would leave

Mrs Stone East - Kind regards to Mrs Howard -

To Genl O.O. Howard, U.S.A., Governor's Island,

I am very respectfully Your obedient Servant
E. V. Stone,
Capt 21st Infy.

Dear Sir

Yours of the 7th enclosing letter from Surgeon Genl is just received. first let me tender to you my sincere thanks for the interest you, together with some other friends have taken in my Grand Son, Lt Ad. M. Nutt. Some two weeks ago, after receiving your former letter together with others, including one from Albert himself, in which he said "this place (the asylum) is not so bad a place as I supposed, I am situated in the officers quarters (the best) am on parole, have the privilege of all the grounds of the place" &c giving a definite description of the place seemed fairly well contented, and after meditating on the case, and consulting a few confidential friends, I wrote to Albert, and also to Col Dudley (and old and personal acquaintance of his,) who had called to see him and was interesting himself in Albert's behalf. That from the best information I had, and looking at it from this standpoint, I advised that that he cheer up, and content himself to stay where he was, at least until developments would more clearly reveal his true condition. One trouble with him is he does not seem to realize his condition or to know that there is anything the matter with him, but when I saw him ^{two} ^{mo} ^{ago} I could see at times that there was, and he seemed unwilling to have it referred to. From his letters that I have received from him him since, the closest criticisms would not reveal that there was anything wrong in them or with him. If you will, you may inform the surgeon Genl. or the proper authority that I desire ~~him~~ ^{to} remain at the Hospital at least until further results develop.

I am very truly and Sincerely yours

A. J. Scott

General O. O. Howard,

My dear Sir,

Since writing you, I have been quite ill, and shall probably be unable to visit Green's Island for some weeks.

Would you be will ing to have the Superintendent of the Colored Orphan Asylum visit you, ^{to talk} about the flag?

If so, will you please write what days and at what hour he could be likely to see you - Gratefully yours,
Anna M. Jackson -

I enclose Dear ^{Howard St J} ~~Beautiful~~ Land that has been recorded

Please put it in its envelope in the bundle of deeds in the tin box in the safe Mrs ^{of Chesham} ~~Brownson~~ is here visiting her daughter Daisy. Benie & mother took dinner there the other night. We have had fine weather except yesterday today which are rainy We hope that the troops will go into the new post by Oct 1st so that mother can help John get settled. Mother says we won't go to Chicago this time as she must return home after staying here as long as possible. Some one will write again

Dear father:

Mother received your letter about your Trenton trip also the telegram. The carpet hasn't arrived yet but will probably come today.

We are all busy re-arranging John's & Mr Johnson's house so as to bring in a cook on Monday & start a mess in this house before moving to the new post next month

Mother & Bessie say they in a large boat & party never saw such a kept One day we all walked house, nothing has its to the new post and found place and everything covered it on a beautiful sight with dust. Under Mother's on a hill back of and direction things take overlooking the town, canal shape and we have mistaken out over Lake Superior.

a long list of purchases The quarters are fine brick to be made, with which to buildings beautifully furnished start the mess. The post is laid out as We are all well except follow slight colds in head

We had a fine sail on Parade the river the other day

Dear General

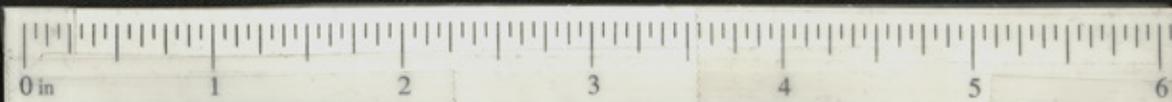

Having noticed in the public papers that you were employed on a Life of President Zachary Taylor, I take the liberty of asking if you are able to trace his ancestors to England or not.

If not perhaps I can help you. I have good information that he descended from Richard (commonly called Rock) Taylor and Beetha Bourges who were married in 1646, and lived at Yarmouth (Cape Cod) Mass.

If you have been able to trace his ancestry to that good Puritan will you please inform me names of the line.

If you have traced Richard (Rock) Taylor across the ocean I shall be very glad & thankful to have the facts. I think he came over in the ship True Love in (1535) 1535.

I am about to publish my Family history and as it originated in the same ancestor with Genl Taylor desire to have the connection.

Respectfully
Henry B. Taylor
