My dear friend

I wrote you a letter
over a month ago, but have never heard a word from you. we had a new carriage and I do not know whether it ever left Charlotte; I want to know whether Mr Howard ever got back from Europe safely; and what I could get out of the Gettysburg & pieces written by Roulard. Please let me know as I would like

them.

We are all well at present, but pretty well scared up about the Cholera. but I suppose it is not so bad as we imagine.

If you could possibly help me to a few dollars to buy some wood for the winter I will be very grateful. my husband is now out of work and we are used in clothing and other things. Times are very hard with us, and work scarce. I suppose the coming election has something to do with it. Give my love to Mrs Anna except a great deal for myself from one who will always remember you as a fine German girl but Annie P. Hogle 815 North 5 Street Charlotte N.C.

FORT MONROE, VIRGINIA,

September 23rd, 1892.

Dear General:-

There appears to be some error here with reference to the sewerage for the hotels and residents outside of the Fort. As is reported to me the people concerned have submitted their plan and within the time allowed them; that is, the original time extended to September 15. Now nobody at Washington has accepted or ordered the execution of that plan of sewerage, yet an order is published in the papers directing that on and after a certain day those concerned shall commence the taking down of their buildings.

This though is an order for execution neither Colonel Frank nor myself has received even a copy of it. The people are ready and willing to go on and perform what is required of them and need not be treated with any further severity. In the interest of good government I know that you will look into the subject and see the matter righted.

such courtesies as may render

My Dear General:

Ever since receiving your last letter I have been suffering with Sciatic rheumatism in my left hip & leg. I have suffered enough pain in that while to lift my soul clear of Purgatory anyhow, if there is any justice hereafter.
I am so I can hobble around ^{and} as soon as I can have time going to Colorado for a change of climate.
Now, if I had been a dissipated reckless youth - I could understand why I should be so punished.
The sin of infraction of Nature's laws must be cumulation like lead poisoning, and the punishment catches us sooner or later. In my case it has been, sooner - that is all -

One of my neighbors - a jovial good-natured old gentleman - the mayor of the city - and one, who, in his youth, I suspect, burnt his candle at both ends - was gazing me for having missed all the "fun". I don't regret it.

Have gotten into a very bad condition again - and I despair of ever being well again. If I can only get back where I was before the rheumatism I shall be satisfied.

I saw an article of yours in the Christian Register (which I take) some time since. I think you are under a misapprehension concerning W^m R. Alger's writings for in his "Doctrine of a Future Life" I have met with the first reasonable effort to prove a future state of existence. In the chapter entitled "A Critical history of Doubt in a Future Life" his arguments are almost unanswerable in favor of it. He does not fall back upon the commonplace cant phrases employed by preachers who derive all their ideas and inspiration from the bible. I have always maintained that if it were impossible to prove the fact (if fact it be) without reliance upon that broken reed, it was a hopeless task, and I am honestly glad to have found a man with brains enough to discard that method & rely wholly upon reason. True, Alger is I think, a Unitarian but may be a Mohammedan. I should consider the correctness of his reasoning just the same. If you have not read it you will be interested. It is published by Roberts Bros. Boston.

I see you have been virtually alone this summer. Should think you roamed west far self anywhere but in N.Y. with its shadow of death hanging over it. May you accept it easier. I of course earnestly hope to see it progresses this year.

Personal

My dear General Howard:

I assume that you intend to be present at the dedicatory exercises in Chicago on October 21, 22 and 23.

The reception and banquet given by the Exposition authorities will not, I understand, include in the list of invited any but the highest officers of the Army, Navy and of the National Guard whose troops will take part in the ceremonies.

Lieutenant-Colonel Henry L. Turner, of the First Regiment of Illinois National Guard, whose command will take part in the exercises, will give a reception to all the visiting officers of the Army and Navy, and the visiting members of the Loyal Legion, and their ladies, at the First Regiment Armory, Chicago, on Thursday evening October 20. At 8/30 o'clock there will be a full dress guard mount of a Guard of Honor picked from the regiment; from 9 to 10/30 will occur the reception; and from 10/30 to 2 o'clock dancing. This will very pleasantly supplement the official reception.

On behalf of Colonel Turner I am very desirous of obtaining your assurance that if in Chicago on that occasion you will be present at least for a time during the receiving hours at the Armory reception. This will not interfere with any feature of the official program, and I know you will find the social event prepared by Col. Turner to be delightful.

Will you kindly send me a telegram on receipt of this embodying your answer.

My Dear Brother:-

I have yet in memory our tramp up and down the streets of New York City to raise funds for the Camp Memorial. When you and I had done what we could you came before our Board and besought them for the very large and very unusual sum of $5000., to put that work on its feet, our Board voted it and paid it. I was not present at the meeting, but the church gave us a trust mortgage, in which they distinctly promised to send us a contribution every year. I have hesitated about pressing the matter upon their attention, because I presume they know little of our ways of working and perhaps have forgotten their pledge, and still more, have most of them very little money. Nevertheless, it is better that a poor church do something to meet its obligations than that it be allowed to go on indefinitely neglecting them. I do not know whether they have a pastor or a clerk or any services. I have no doubt they do have services and will have as long as you are within reach of them. I am going to try to attend one of their services next Sunday, possibly I shall meet you there. I may not and may not find any one with whom to communicate about this matter of the annual offering, but I am sure, as one of our trustees and as a prominent man in getting the money from this Society for them, that you will take great pleasure in laying the matter warmly on their hearts and asking them to make at least one contribution for the large sum we put into their property.

Very sincerely Yours, L.H.COB^B, Secretary

I have been making inquiries & looking around some, in respect to Stone for the Burial lot of R.B. I first went to Swyre But could do nothing there satisfactorily. In regard to laying stone in Cement for a Curb, the objection is after a little the stones will heave Black & Hanbury Saturday I was at Jay Leg & ascertained that I could get Split stone rough hammered 6x10 inches Delivered on Cart for about 20cts running foot Post to match about 80cts each

After seeing stone curbing at Jay, for lots, I find they had finished ready for setting.
I am fearful you & Friends would not be satisfied with 6x8 inch stone rough-to do as you say.

For good nice curbing well finished about 7 1/2 inches at Jay will cost about 45 or 50cts per

With this best curbing I

Dear Gen. Howard:

I hand you herewith a letter which has been received from Campello Mass. which will speak for itself. I think God is preparing Bro. John for greater work than he has yet done, and he is doing a very important work now. I am, however, satisfied that there are hindrances to the advancement of his work in Christie Street. I think the attendance upon conventions of Christian workers has been a great benefit to him, but the time may soon come when he will be confined in New York all the time, therefore it seems to me a good thing to encourage him in attending conventions now, for ticularly when he has such an opportunity as this one in Boston. Farther Prof. Bro. John told this Boston - or Mass. - Bro. that he could not go unless it met with your approval.

Bro. Jaeger has very much at heart a mission in Christie Street, as near the Church as possible. I am not quite clear in the matter. There are some things I desire to discuss with you in connection with the matter, but I have been so confined that I have not found the time to go to Roemer's Island. I will try and be at prayer meeting at Christie St. Thursday night of this week, and would certainly be there if you could be, or I will meet you at some place in New York City almost any day you may find it convenient to meet me.

Bro. Jaeger has found a place on the corner of Delancy and Christie Sts, a factory above the church that he thinks it very important to obtain, I shall try and ascertain tomorrow if the place can be rented, and at what price, and may get an option for a few days. In that event it will be very important for me to see you
