Dear Brother:
It looks like a beautiful day for you to visit - We are very restfully & comfortably fixed here at Cousin Mary's with delightful recollections of our pleasant visits with you both at St. Augustine & at Ormond - We were glad, too, to see so much of Harry.
I found DeLhurst's letter

Who is as noble a Christian man as I have known.
He spoke to me of you with great respect and interest & Mr. McLeish, my neighbor, & most talented friend in Gloucester is one of the Trustees. Donly question, in my own mind, exactly what would work with you - Moral Philosophy & Political Economy?
History? Please think what you would like best & our feet fitted for. If we decided you could study other letters & authors - modern & recent - & of foreign countries. If James & Henry are with Henry (as he tells me) prefers the West, it may be you & I might yet be located near one another in the later years of our lives - with love to Lizzie & all of our affectionate friends
C. J. H. Howard

2
and have written him I would forward it - I should think it better that the project should have started with you.
But you will write directly I suppose & without reference to him.

I shall look out for something for you to do in Chicago, as well as for James & Henry & Harry. The letter comes here an excellent place, <sup>at any time</sup> with Mr. Dewar & other strong notional books, which would be a stopping stone - I think if Armour offers James a place that too would grow into something important. There may be something in the Chicago University just suited to you, but it will come through the President Dr. Harper

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard;

My own kind friend;

My school closes in a few days which will leave me without any thing to do in this section this summer owing to the past severities of the winter, and I have been contemplating of coming out in your parts seeking a light job for the summer and fall or until I can resume my usual work as teacher in these parts &c. Is there any chance for me where you are? I can do most any kind of indoor's work. I have worked some in plain painting as kalsmining &c, I can work in dining room or <sup>at</sup> wash in any occupation of that kind. I have several friends who can do the same, providing any thing can be turned up for them this Sum-

My dear General,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your esteemed favour written from Oakside, Fla., inviting me to join you in a trip to Gettysburg, after the Grant dinner at Philadelphia on 27th inst. I thank you sincerely for the invitation, and would be delighted to make the trip with you, if circumstances would warrant. It is next thing to impossible for me to make any engagements for any length of time ahead and, besides, I am somewhat peculiarly situated in a family way just at this time. There is to be a wedding in the family of my brother-in-law, in Cincinnati on 25th instant, which Mrs Smith feels especially desirous to attend. I might, however, in that event get back from Cincinnati in time to join you, if Gettysburg should be no earlier than 28th, but with the wedding event, there is also another and a sadder event before us. Dear General.

I have waited until I had an answer to one or two despatches before writing you further. - Rickles suggests on account of the oration series, that we postpone the Baltimore trip. - But as any postponement would mean perhaps Sunday travel. - I have written Rickles that we had better hold to the day. - Gen. Lusk accepts. General Lusk and his friends whom he names have also accepted. - and I am now sending Lusk some complimentary letters from the Pullman people to help his journey. - He has staff officers for name sake of course, & with us, not only at the front cannot let on the feet - I learn that you letter is in the post, and as I sent him the most cordial invitation, trust he will be with us - I do hope to complete my party this week, and will send you my list. - The Mayor will join us, - I believe, if over the post, - and I will ask Gordon of Jersey, Secum, and one or two others.

As I felt sure that only the President movement would succeed.

I will send you all the details in a few days, and ask my Kentuck ~~representative~~ representative to call on you. - There we may have a memorable and pleasant trip.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Jersey City, April 15th 1893.

Major General O. O. Howard,

Coast Guard Island,

My dear sir :- I have under my pastoral care a religio-military Company of boys and young men, organized under the constitution of the Boy Brigade, and numbering now 72 men. They drill on one evening of the week, and hold a religious meeting on another. They are pledged by their membership not to use tobacco nor intoxicating liquors nor profane and vulgar language. They are enthusiastic in their work, have improved greatly in it in every way, and are sufficiently uniformed to present a fine appearance.

It is my habit to have them attend a Sabbath evening service from time to time in a body, when I make an address especially for them. My object in writing this note is to ask if you will not honor and delight both our Company and our Church by consenting to make this address before them some time this Spring. It is not necessary to say how great a privilege the boys will esteem it, how great a benefit it will be to them and how much they will prize the remembrance of it. I trust that you will feel the occasion to be an attractive opportunity of doing good. And, unless your convenience would require a different date, might I suggest the evening of the last Sabbath in May or the first in June.

Trusting earnestly that your reply may be favorable, I remain Very respectfully yours,

General:-

Learning that you are preparing a life of Queen Isabella of Spain, and are probably the best informed person in regard to her history, and that you have in your possession a number of portraits of the Queen, I respectfully ask that you will permit the Engraver of this Mint to examine the same, with a view of obtaining a correct likeness to be placed upon the Souvenir Quarter Dollar, authorized by Congress for the lady managers of the World's Columbian Exposition. It is very essential that we should obtain the best information on the subject that we can. If not trespassing upon your generosity too much, the object to be obtained would be very much better secured if you could send these portraits to the Mint by express, at our cost, for examination. We would be very careful of them and return same at an early day. The Director of the Mint writes that he will be here on Tuesday next for the purpose of examining any portraits or likenesses that we may have at that time. It would be a very great accommodation to have what you could send by that time.

Dear Sir:

We are doing all in our power just now to quicken the interest in our general association work but especially the religious work, and we are persuaded that your presence here for a single Sunday could be used by the Master in doing a mighty work; and I have been asked by our religious work committee to write to you and ask you if you could set a date, some Sunday during April or May, when you could come to Binghamton and address our Men's Gospel meeting, coming in time on Saturday, if possible, for us to have a Reception for you on Saturday evening.

I trust you will deeply consider this matter and come to our city if you possibly can.

We shall, of course, be very glad to do anything in our power to remunerate you for your effort.
