My dear General:
~~By return~~ Your kind letter of 22nd. ^{the} was received by welcome hands yesterday morning - I can only write a few lines - but want to say I am better and am a little encouraged - My joints and muscles are fearfully sore and aching and my heart and breathing apparatus seem determined Wm to my misery I have had work to breathe but find that symptom - even improving - I do not know how long I may have to be here - have prayed earnestly for speedy recovery - or delivery from all the suffering -

I am so glad to know I have your prayers to - father dear - and hope they may avail much for me.

Tom is staying in the city waiting the outcome of this new misfortune.

I do hope I may hear from you again!

With much love to all -

Your loving daughter

The Ladies Association which is interested in the preparation and publication of this volume, is the same which has founded the fund for the annual presentation of gift-books to the Graduates of the Naval and Military Academies at Annapolis and West Point. In this presentation I think Gen. Howard took a kindly interest when superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. The fund was founded in memory of my daughter Emily, the wife of Gen. Upton - and since the lamented death of Gen. Upton. The name has been associated with the fund which has been increased to five thousand dollars.

My son-in-law Gen. Alexander is alluded to in the introduction herewith sent. He died in 1887 - six years after the death of Gen. Upton. Gen. Alexander has left an excellent record of his military career in which I regard I myself - from Major-Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir.

I have taken the liberty to insert your letter addressed to Rev. Isaac T. Mittern of Hopewell Arizona (Aug 5th 1893) in a volume which I have undertaken to prepare for the Pres.
I send you the first thirty-six pages of the book - the object of which is, - (as you will see in the introduction) - to show the influence which the officers of our Army, may exert in civilizing and Christianizing the Indians - and thus preventing outbreaks and Indian Wars.
The book will include illustrations - I send.

which represents the Chief of the Pimas, Antonio Azul - with his son and Grandsons - both of whom I think have been educated at Hampton:- of this, I am not sure, - and I have written to Mr Cook at Tacaton, for more certain information regarding the transfer of his Pupils to the Indian schools at Tucson - Albuquerga, Carlisle and to the school at Hampton.
The volume, of which I sent you the advanced sheets, will probably include one hundred and twenty pages - divided into six Chapters.

These will contain

- 1 Chapter - Mr Cook's account etc vide page 18
- 2nd " Mrs Cook's Missionary life -
- 3rd " Visit of Dr Sheldon Jackson. etc
- 4th " The Pima Indians - their manners and customs by - Rev. J. J. Wettemon 5th Chapter - Some account of the first organization of the Ladies Pima Mission - school Association and its connection with the Pima Mission. -

Chapter 6th - The Indian schools on the Gila river reservation. How they were commenced - The characters on the Reservation - How they were built - abundance of the Indians; their interest in divine service; - appeal for Missionary Teachers for other Tribes

After deprecating all pecuniary efforts in printing - binding and transportation - the proceeds of the sale of this book are to be appropriated to Mr Cook's private use, to enable him to provide a home for his Motherless Children in Lorra, near their mother's relatives.

The book will be offered for sale at fifty cents a copy - and will be ready by August 1st.

It will give me much pleasure to offer a copy to you.

My dear Genl. Howard,

I am writing on behalf of Thomas Spurgeon who is on his way from New Zealand to occupy his fathers pulpit in London to say ~~he~~ is to be in New York where he expects to arrive on Saturday next, to preach there in the morning ^{of Sunday} and in Brooklyn in the eve.

In the morning for Dr McArthur in the evening for Rev. A. C. D. in the Harrison Baptist Church.

Mr Sprague has been here helping Mr Moody in his Campaign for a week. and yesterday left for the east.

I'm trying to suggest some places for him to visit while in New York. I ventured to say you would be very pleased to receive a call from him provided you were at home then. and that I would ask you to drop him a line to let him know what time you would be at liberty.

I also suggested his taking the Albany Day boat up as far as West Point, and paying a visit to that historical place. and that if you felt at liberty to do so. you would give him a line to the Commander asking him to give him a little attention while there.

I trust you will pardon me for ~~thus~~ passing on your time. I have ventured to do it however. knowing your "unfeigned love for the brethren" and that the cause for which this dear Brother stands is dear to your heart.

The work is going on very well here. I wish you could look in upon us ~~some~~ ^{some time}. Mr Moody would be delighted to see you. The Campaign lasts till the Fair closes Nov. 1st

Dear Sir:

The writer regrets exceedingly that he was not in the office when your Aid de Camp Lt. Irish called and can only report what was said in the letter of the 24th inst. saying that we had committed a blunder in regard to the matter, that this was so true with regard to that we did not understand just why he at this late day, wanted to abandon the business. We however stated that if you would appoint an agent 780 writer would call on you & ask the matter over. We have no desire to treat Dr. May in any but just & will do all that we agreed to do more. But we feel that the length of time he has kept the territory tied up if leave the matter in a different light than it would otherwise stand.

As before stated we are willing to call on you at any home you may name.

Very truly,

Dear Father;

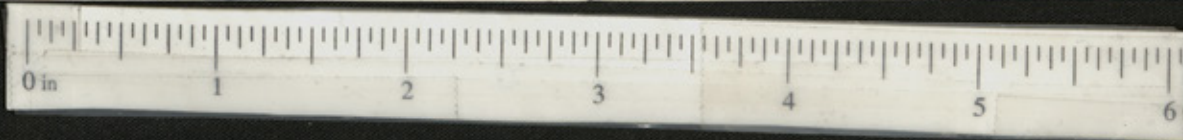

I will not be able to get away tomorrow evening in time to come to the Island to dinner, bringing Mr. Canfield, as I wrote Mother this morning. So please tell Mother not to expect me. Tonight I go to Montclair where Alice is spending the day and bring her home after dining with Mr.ington's family with boat,

Thayer, been returned to you? Can Alice come to the Island on Sat. AM. with the children with the expectation of going home on the boat. Tell Mother I would rather not stop to lunch but start with Alice & the children as soon as I arrive, have a little lunch on the boat to help pass away the time and then get home sooner. Sat. afternoon I have considerable work to do in connection with Paddock & Co. at factory.

If you can possibly arrange it so we can have this little outing either this or some other Saturday I should like to bring a friend along with me whom I want to meet Alice.
