Gen. O. O. Howard,

Governor's Island, N. Y.

My dear Gen. Howard:-

Referring to my conversation with you on Sunday let me say that I have a young gentleman friend who is very anxious to enter the United States Army. He is a young man of some fortune and belongs to a good family and is well known in Brooklyn. He is about twenty-two, I should think. He is coming to see me again in a few days and what advice do you think I should give him. If I could read to him a letter from you- which you very kindly told me you would write - I should be exceedingly obliged to you. What would be the first steps for him to take? How many years would he in all probability be a private before he could get a higher appointment?

Very truly yours,

Charles S. Bowen

Dear Sir:

Mr. J. W. Bugbee of Oakland, Cal. and Mr. D. E. Hayes of San Francisco visited this office a few weeks ago with the intention of looking into the Bicycle system and, if satisfactory, to organize a construction company for the Pacific coast for building of cars, motors and railroads. They were very pleased with what they saw and their consulting engineer highly recommended it to them. - Mr. Boynton's Jetty patents were also gone through, and it was decided to push the building of these near San Francisco.

My dear General C. C. Folger,

I have the pleasure to inform you that the bicycle engine and passenger car are now on their way to the Pacific coast for the building of the San Francisco and San Francisco Pacific coast bicycle railway. They were very pleasurably received with great interest by the engineering experts of the coast. They were very pleased with what they saw and their engineering experts highly recommended it to them. - Mr. Folger's letter and the fact that you have thought and it was decided to build the bicycle railway of the coast San Francisco.

As Senator Perkins owns the steamship-line running between San Francisco and Mexico, it was thought best to get him interested in the Bicycle-system, and as he is a personal friend of Mr. Hays, the latter wrote the enclosed letter of introduction for Mr. Boynton, but he has so far been unable to meet Mr. Perkins.

Mr. Boynton to-day sends me a request to write you and send this letter of introduction, thinking that if you would have the kindness of writing Senator Perkins, it would have much more influence. - I have to-day sent him circulars and copy of Jetty patent.

I know this is ^a rather difficult mission for you to act in and hope it will not impose too much on your kindness.

Mr General Howard

It was kind to think of and send me the card. I had a long talk with General Howard this morning, and we faith in his ability is so perfect I trust we shall win. Some influence is obtaining to get him on the Central Railroad of Georgia, but all these Southern roads are uncertain and the abolition of life there I wish him to escape from. He admits that he finds little congenial there. The few men with any degree of education, I won't say culture for the southern people have little of that. It implies thought exercising of the reasoning powers - going around on the other side to see how things look from different points, etc., but there are some very well educated people in the south now and these stride out to govern it power and all that to wish "politics" there is the one "you resume" and he cares little for that

You give me a pen table and a Scarified. Can you do anything in the way of making a record of your personal knowledge of the war - such as one would be so rich in incidents of the war and when we see how many volumes were in our time and now it becomes a duty for those who see the truth to state what they know. It should be done and deposited in some historical society library if too much trouble, state print It strikes me there is very little authentic data of our civil war. If I could or can help you in any way, I will. You know I have much leisure and occupation that I think of value to some one is above kind of Quers and entertaining assemblies of that type, but the habituating life all around interests the community more 189 Perhaps this is because I am deaf. How I feel so sure Genl H would give well say of Gettysburg a plain unvarnished tale that in the hands of another will say he Genl Mc Mahon would be able as times going on experience might dictate. Dear General What does it mean? I see Genl Cwayne endorses the lecturing tour of Genl Pelton that Arch Rebel: He who resounded Mr Davis and bragged him about the South to the time of sixty - A Com-man had stopped to see my place and witnessed the occasion. He was wary that did the youth of this generation as to all purposes of patriotism. Children were literally brought to love the name of his government.

I suppose this is one of God's ways many acts of broad charity but I can't help feeling a little sorely suspecting how - Feb 9 - will color and explain it ^{to} satisfy the Georgians when he goes home -
