

Our little girl Eva in Baltⁿ, Now to go back to myself, my husband was born here, his parents in Germany, his trade is cigar maker, at which he worked when we were married, he had to give it up, inhaling the tobacco was so unhealthy, he tried to get other employment, but could do no better than tending bar, at which he is working now, he was out of work for eight months, we had a little money saved, for which I was so thankfull as it enabled us to keep out of debt for the past four ^{weeks}, he has been working for five dollars a week, the proprietors would not pay any more, as he always employed a boy, and would only pay what he payed a boy but we are thankfull for that he never worked for less than

Dear God Father.

I know you will be surprised when you see who this is from.
I have often thought of writing to you, and thinking you would like to hear how we all are, I have at last made up my mind to write, But it is not to late to wish you, and your family a happy, and prosperous new year.
We are all well, Mama lives on J. St, between 5 and 6, with my youngest brother Howard, who single apt, and still in office on a center furnished rooms and takes in sewing, just enough to keep one girl, work is very dull, but she has some. My other brother is married, he is conductor on the 9th car, but he has put in application for letter carrier he is to be examined on the 6th of Feb^y. I hope he will pass, they have two very interesting children. Edna, four years old, and Harry aged two, My dear sister died on my birthday the 10th of last April they lived in Baltimore they were married twelve years in September 1892. she left one little girl eleven years old, all she ever had, and she was a great help and comfort to her, they lived very happily together and were going to buy a home of their own, and live so nice, when she had to leave us, she had never been very strong since her little girl was born, the doctor performed an operation she was only confined in bed three days, but she is better off, she suffered most all the time, but Oh! I miss her so much, she was the only sister I had.

Now I suppose I must tell you of myself, of course I am married, have been married ten years the 19th of next June, I forgot to tell you my sister's husband is a great business man is in partner with Mr. Reinde-Manufacturer of show cases, and Barroom fixtures, in Bal^y his name is John Salmon, his sister keeps house for him, and ten a week before, but I have no children, I have never had any, so we manage to get along.

I live on N, near G, have three pleasant rooms on third floor, the rent is 12 dollars a month I have one of the best of husbands and he is very proud of his little home,

Now I want to tell you I have the little green sugar bowl, and a little pewter tea pot, you gave me when I was a little girl at West Point, I call it my tea set, I have them on a brackett in my front room, nearly every one wants to know where I got them, they are so odd, I am very proud of them, and would not part with them, I dont suppose you remember them

Well, I must close now my hand is quite tired

Remember me to your wife.

Dear Sir:

I beg you my dear sir, not to read this letter until you have time, as I sincerely hope it will receive a favorable answer if you have time to think the matter over!

I write in the interest of the National Christian League for the Promotion of Social Purity.

I have guaranteed the rent of Concert Hall and Assembly Rooms in Madison Square Garden, for the week in February commencing on the 19th and continuing through the evening of the 24th, in which to hold a Fair. This is only a means to the end to raise money to press forward our general work, and to establish an Industrial Home for girls and women where they can be trained for domestic work, in the trades, and various other business for which they are best fitted to serve.

I should greatly prefer to go with two or three pious women into my own room and ask the Lord for the necessary funds, if I did not feel that we must use the means at our disposal; some of us have that which we can contribute to a Fair, and the demands made upon the Christian League by unfortunate women and girls, and strictly chaste girls who cannot get work this Winter is so great, that we feel the only means to preserve them from perishing morally, is to be furnished with employment.

I have sent many from one Mission to another; from one Home for fallen girls to another, and various Charitable Institutions, but there is no place for chaste young girls who have no money!

The Charity Organization renders good service in investigating cases, but it gives no employment to any one comparatively. I have sent girls and women back and forth to places where they give out some work, and they are sent to the Charity Organization to get tickets, only to be told by the Charity Organization that they have no tickets. Then when I investigate the matter, am told they had a special number of twenty, and these for preferred cases!

What is to become of these poor creatures with no food, no shelter, and no way to get work?

The Delancy Street Office furnishes from forty to sixty women with work at fifty cents per day, but what of the twenty to sixty thousand who can get no work!

John
New York,

Genevieve Stebbins, who is one of the finest exponents of the Ancient Pantomimic Dances of the Jewish or Hebrew Worship, will give three entertainments, and we shall have something on the afternoon of the 22d, on Saturday afternoon, and every evening that will be interesting, instructive and serve as the best sort of entertainment.

There will be no chances at this Fair, and I trust nothing that can offend the most sensitive Christian's good sense.

We shall have some addresses in the evening, although our evening programme is not yet made up.

Mary A. Livermore will give an address on the evening of Wednesday, the 21st.

Will you give us a short talk from the platform, either to the children or grown people on one of these evenings?

I shall be very glad indeed for any donation that you will make in the interest of establishing this Industrial Home, or toward carrying on the general work of the League? Your time, talent, money, personality!

My husband was on your staff twenty-eight years ago, Major W. F. Grannis. He was not strictly a religious man. I feel that I know you quite well through my husband's acquaintance.

I was much interested on the evening of the Installation of Dr. Stimson at the Broadway Tabernacle, in watching your patient forbearance with that remarkably, quaint freak of a shabby old English Presbyterian minister, who manifested such audacious persistence in using your eye-glasses! As I knew him and his wife in their palmiest days, I could not fail to make rapid biographical sketches of certain men and women, although I was truly interested in the services of the evening.

Faithfully yours,

E. B. Grannis

Dear General:

Mr. Frame, of Frame & Stowell, called upon us to-day for the purpose of consulting with us as to what he should do in the matter of the promissory note executed by his firm for $2250, due Feb. 18th prox., and presumably endorsed to you by R. K. Warren. At any rate, Mr. Frame informs us that you are the present owner of the note. He says that they cannot pay this note at its maturity; but he offers, in consideration of an extension, to secure it by a mortgage on about forty lots in McMinnville, Oregon, said to be worth $100.00 per lot, even in these times of shrunken values. We have no knowledge as to whether or not this valuation is correct.

We advised Mr. Frame that three courses were open to him.

1. To pay the note at maturity.
2. To obtain an extension from you, on consideration of security given.
3. To make a general assignment for the benefit of their creditors.

Dear General:

Mr. Frame, of Frame & Stowell, called upon us to-day for the purpose of consulting with us as to what he should do in the matter of the promissory note executed by his firm for $2380, due Feb. 18th prox., and presumably endorsed to you by R. K. Warren. At any rate, Mr. Frame informs us that you are the present owner of the note. He says that they cannot pay this note at its maturity; but he offers, in consideration of an extension, to secure it by a mortgage on about forty lots in McMinnville, Oregon, said to be worth $100.00 per lot, even in these times of shrunken values. He asked us, in this connection, to write you as to the condition of money matters out here, probably believing that you might accept our statements more readily than those of a stranger.

It is a melancholy fact that, in addition to the general prostration and financial stringency, this section is especially afflicted in the loss of crops in Eastern Oregon and Washington. It is hardly an exaggeration - not a great one, at any rate, - to say that nobody is paying his debts here, and that no creditor is expecting payment. Most of the banks which closed their doors last year are still closed. There is no money here; and if you were to send the note to us for collection against Frame & Stowell, we would be at a loss to make it for you in money, - because, under our law, if you were to sue them and attach any property that might be found belonging to them, they could dissolve the attachment by making a general assignment for the benefit of all their creditors; and this they declare they will do, and of course it would be their best policy under the circumstances. The result would be that you would get a pro rata interest with the other creditors in the assets, which in this case consist of unimproved lands, for which there is absolutely no sale whatever.

Our advice to you would be to take the security offered, or such security as you can get, for an extension of time on the note. This is the way we have been settling all claims sent to us from the East for collection here. Very truly yours, Governor's Island N.Y.

Dear Sir:

We have the opinions of two of our confidential Readers. They both think the work timely. There are minor faults in style as they say or rather, one of them points out, that you use the word "yes" or "yea" after when the term "even" would be better, and that the term i.e. = that is, appears too frequently, thus marring the style - making it appear slipshod. This feature you could easily correct or we can have it done for you. As to illustrations no one has undertaken to select; they think the work should be illustrated, but the author should select what he thinks best. In case you decide to have us be the Publishers you can, for mutual convenience, confer with our Mr. Hissel, who engages artists and superintends the manufacture of a book after contract is executed. We will undertake the publication of your work at our expense and pay you a royalty of 10 (ten) per cent on the average wholesale price, accounting to be made semi-annually, + royalty then to be paid in cash. In case you can't accept, we will then draw up a contract, in duplicate, in our regular form and submit the same to you for signature. In meanwhile we will hold the subject to your order. Any inquiries concerning this proposition of course will be cheerfully answered.

Very truly Yours

Dear Sir

The churches of this town are organizing a series of meetings in the interest of public morals at which such themes as Temperance Sabbath Observance Good Literature &c. will be considered.

I write to ask if you will be willing to be one of the speakers at one such meeting. We can assure you a large audience a cordial welcome and a happy time in doing good work for our common Master, and we shall be glad to relieve you of all expense and make

100000

Such other remuneration as you may desire if in our power. We would be very pleased to have you with us on the third Sabbath in Feb. next. If that day be inconvenient for you such time as may be agreeable to you will be accepted like ours.

Looking to have a favorable reply at your earliest convenience I am very sincerely
(Rev) Living C. White
