My dear General Howard:

I am very well here in your climate I think, with more snow around me than I ever saw before in my life. How you have managed to stand and the circumstances, and the surroundings, that you cannot have passed through in your earlier years, is more than I can understand. I don't wonder that you were in good terms for pulling down the rebellion, and would be the shattering of your arm. I want to get hold of the old soldiers up here if I can, and am also planning to get among the students, as far as closed notes from Groatt Whittier. It has occurred to me that if you thought it a proper thing to do, a letter from you to the press printed here, speaking of my army connection with you, and commanding me to the army men, would be a help in getting them out to hear me, and perhaps forward the work. Either this, or a line to Groatt Whittier, or some personal friends you would judge best. This is my first letter to Maine, and I hope therefore taken this liberty. Dear General, with my kind regards to Mrs Howard, Miss Howard and your own, I am dear General yours very truly

My dear Sir,

I will reply to your note of resignation later but write you thus hurriedly in order that it may reach you before you leave, as in your note you intimate that you could be gone before our next meeting. If you do not leave until after next Monday will you not make a special effort to be present with us at that time, your dues are paid to March 1894. Will you kindly let me know when you expect to be stationed? You know that we have a By-Law that Member leaving in and removing over 50 miles may be elected Honorary Member and it will give me great pleasure to offer a Resolution putting you on that list. Great Gatsby I think was the only Member now on it — I have been no Newspaper Notice of your being stationed elsewhere and I trust you will be able to give me the Information I seek.

General Howard, Respected Sir,

Although a stranger to you, I take the liberty of asking a very great favor. My brother, Thomas Connolly, enlisted at Sackett's Harbor over a year ago, and to my great surprise I learned some two weeks ago that he disputed about five weeks after going there. He has been at home, the greater part of the time since, and left my mother under the impression that he had been working there for a farmer. This act was unknown to her until he was arrested and taken back to Sacketts Harbor. Now I write and ask you in all kindness to the and my broken-hearted mother, not to send him to prison but restore him to duty. that is, if it is in your power to do so. If you will grant the above favor for my mother's sake, I will ever feel indebted to you. Hoping to receive a favorable reply.

Dearest,

Most respectfully,

Sister Ann Joseph.

Gentlemen:

My dear Sir,

We have in Brooklyn one of the finest Girls' High Schools in the country—enrolling about 1700 scholars—twenty ladies. Every Monday morning they assemble in the auditorium.

I know just how busy you are and am loth to call on you—but as an Associate member of Grant Post and a member of the Brooklyn Board of Education—and having had the pleasure of a visit from Gen'l Strode—I am requested to ask you as a special favor to these 1700 young ladies if you will not favor them on some Monday morning date to be set by you.

Very respectfully yours,
