My dear friend;

I expect to attend a district Conference meeting which convenes at Jersey City N. J. from March 1- to 12.

My address will be care of E. E. Frank (Frank) 25 Oak St. Jersey City N. J.

It would give me very great pleasure to meet you. I shall never forget your earnest whole hearted devotion to the cause of Christ. when you were my Sunday School teacher in Washington.

You promised you would read anything I would send you.

I therefore send you by mail two tracts entitled "Rome's Challenge" & "Our Answer" begging that you will carefully and prayerfully peruse them and let me know what you think of them. You may be startled at the first tract, but it is nevertheless true

In view of the fact, should not God's children seek to know and do the will of God?

Mr. Moody is about closing a series of meetings held in Convention hall over E. St. Marsat. Crowds are turned away every day. I sing alto in his choir.

My Worthy is in her last year at college. She is a fine scholar and an earnest Christian. My son Thoro, has just returned from a trip to Va. where he has been engaged in missionary work. My own heart is blessed more than I can express, as I study the precious word of God which alone is our lamp & our light Ps 119:105.

I will be so glad to hear from you.

Dear Sir

The first time I ever heard of you was when I went to Hospital 19, Nashville, Tenn. in Jan'y 1864. I am very glad indeed, that you are Pres. of the National Temperance Society, and that you are also interested in all lines of charitable and religious work.

I am specially anxious to direct your attention to the enclosed Report: The Keely treatment, is now given in seven National Military Homes.

I hope I will meet you, at the National Encampment of the G. F. R. in Pittsburgh next Sept. We

My Dear Sir:-

I have delayed replying to yours of Feb-8" that I might get a statement of Mrs. Daniels' Army service from Miss Harriet Dame, whom I supposed knew her - I do not know the Robinson's with whom Mrs. Daniels "tent" during the Encampment - but I remember Miss Mary Glines very well - she did have "curly hair" but was a large, rather awkward woman talked as though her mouth was full of food & talked a good deal I do not think the woman you have in mind was she - But she, Miss Glind, often came to Dr. Donaldson's where I had my 2d - 3d - during the war, and we all felt that she was full of interest in her patients in the hospitals at Alexandria & Annapolis - I think you can safely say that you know her to have been a faithful & devoted nurse to the soldiers during the war and you are glad that her State will recognize & reward her services - I do not think from the items she sends you, that more testimony of her services is required,

But rather of her necessities - It is a shame to have those ~~the~~ Army Nurses, begging for help in their ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> - I am saying to help me in the City to get into a Home - and if I can not obtain to be in office myself, I would make an effort to establish an Army Nurses Home, here in Washington - in time I would do it - Forgive me for not replying sooner to you - Adieu - I will do better next time - Faithfully yours

All Souls Church of Brooklyn have for the Past two years been giving a course of free lectures to the Public school children of this city. The first course of lectures were on the history of Brooklyn. The course last year was on the city of New York. Some of the most Prominent gentlemen in the city delivered these lectures. At the conclusion of each course Prizes were awarded to the scholars writing the best essays. The mayor of the city Presided and awarded the Prizes. The Public schools officials are thoroughly in sympathy with this movement. The idea has been carried out very successfully for several years in Boston at the Old South Church. We Propose this year to take up the civil war and the subjects thus far outlined are:- "Sumpter", "Peninsular and Antietam", "Donaldson, Vicksburg and the March to the Sea", "Gettysburg", "Appomattox", and one lecture on the Naval battles.
