

United States Circuit Court,

District of Oregon.

H. A. Sladen, Clerk,

Portland, Oregon.

April 3, 1894.

Major General Oliver O. Howard,
United States Army.

My dear General:

I have been asked to write you in behalf of a recommendation for Colonel Thomas M. Anderson, of the 14th Infantry, for promotion to a Brigadier-Generalcy. I do not know that he or his friends mean to push it at present, or, indeed, when, but they are anxious to have it, and others, on file at the War Department for reference at the proper time.

Anderson is getting to be one of the ranking Colonels; I think he is within one or two of the top of the Infantry Colonels, though I have not the register by me, so can not be accurate.

You know him pretty well, and his peculiarities, and he has been under your command a great deal, at various times, which gives him, in his opinion, some right to call upon you, in an official sort of a way, if in no other.

I think I can be just to Anderson, and I must say that, in camp, for I have only known him there, he has been, and is a good soldier. He has certainly brought up the 14th to a high state of efficiency, and from being one of the worst and poorest regiments in the service, it is now one of the best. Indeed, though he is a strict disciplinarian, and apt to be a strict constructionist, the young men of his regiment never want to leave it now, and on promotion, they invariably apply to be exchanged back into it. He is a terror to malingerers and shirks, whatever their rank, and such are glad to leave him and his command. If he does clash occasionally with his immediate commanding officer, it is because he does not like the idea of being shorn of his honors and privileges, so that when he strikes a man like Gibbon as his immediate and local commander, there is apt to be some electrical clashing. But this not of a character to prevent his having an excellent state of discipline amongst his immediate inferiors.

Looked at from a strictly military view, I think he deserves well of his superiors. He is proud of his regiment, proud of his profession, and is to be pardoned for his ambition, for he would be a poor inferior if he did not desire to advance.

I think you will do yourself credit by giving him a recommendation, even though you may be committed to the immediate promotion of another. And I think he has a right to look to his superiors for a testimonial as to his conduct while under their command.

The old War commanders are fast giving way, and there are not many left, and you and I will not have to live long to see the general officers of the army selected from those who were not among the soldiers of the Civil war. Anderson's service was excellent during that period, though he did not gain any increased rank, and he has always responded to every call of duty since.

I sincerely hope that you can see your way to giving him a recommendation for the position he aspires to, for he will appreciate such a letter from you very highly. He has always expressed himself as being warmly attached to you, and always takes every opportunity to say kind things of you. Indeed, I think his selection of myself as his regimental quartermaster, was entirely due to the fact that he thought it would be pleasing to you, and not from any regard he had for me or my abilities to fill that place well. I have always fully believed that.

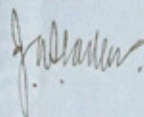

I am looking forward to the possibility of going East in the early Fall, and one of the brightest hopes in that connection, is that I may go to Governor's Island and see you and the dear ones of your family. I wish that we were going to be near together, after your retirement, but I see that you think of going to Burlington Vermont, to seek a home. I can't think why you are going to settle there, except that Guy is temporarily there, but that would not, probably, last long. Are they hiring you to keep out of Maine?

Old friends here often ask about you, and I hope that, before you settle down permanently anywhere, you will renew old friendships out here.

Mrs. Sladen and myself join in sincere love to yourself and Mrs. Howard, and the children who are near you, and I wish you would send love to Mrs. and Teniente Guy when you write them.

Should you conclude to write a letter for Colonel Anderson, I would ask that you let him have a copy, either directly or through me.

Very sincerely yours,

United States Circuit Court,

District of Oregon,

J. A. Sladen, Clerk,

Portland, Oregon.

Sir:

Would you advise
a boy of good family,
limited means, and
who would probably graduate about the

to adopt the army as a profession.

I have always had a strong taste for military and am sure I would

If so would you advise

My brother:-

You have probably stated that every one the ones to apply
are anxious to have me - It is on that principle that I apply to you for information with regard to E. P. Roe.
I have been told he was a neighbor of yours in West Point and a personal acquaintance -

In a club to which I belong,
I have been appointed to tell what I can find out about him and I thought something from one who was personally acquainted with him, would be fresher and more interesting than anything I could find that had been written about him -

If you can help me in this matter
it will be a great favor - My paper must be ready for the last of this month -

If you cannot do it, please let me know as in that case, I must look in some other direction.

We are all in our usual health.
The children are busy in school -

We hear occasionally of you and your family, by way of Frank -

I am glad he is where he can

Dear Sir;-

We take pleasure in sending to your address by to-day's mail a copy of the first number of our new Art magazine entitled "Our Own Country" hoping that it will be some pleasure to you and your family.

It is the purpose of this magazine to treat of various subjects of general interest in consecutive series. The first series relates to the natural scenery and the special characteristics of the people of America; the object being to represent America and Americans so as to give a perfect mirror of every section and part of our country from Alaska to Florida and from Texas to Maine, embracing homes of the people, celebrated localities, our battlefields and their monuments, the Indians and their surroundings, famous mansions and the special features that distinguish and individualize each section.

This series will consist of twenty parts similar to the one we are sending you, and a special or extra number $21 containing an index and eight fine large views in water colors of such celebrated places as the Natural Bridge of Virginia, the Falls of Niagra, Scenery in Colorado, California and the Eastern States and other parts of the country. (The subjects for all of the water colors have not yet been decided upon.) The extra number will be bound in portfolio form so that the plates may be removed and framed or changed to any other portion of this work if so desired.

We shall take much pleasure in sending you the complete series if agreeable to you, from week to week as the successive numbers are issued, and upon the completion of the series we will take additional pleasure in sending to you or any other friend you may designate a complete set handsomely bound in morocco.

Sincerely trusting that what we have done, and what we propose doing will meet with your approval, we are.

Yours truly,

Dear General

I intended to come over to day and see you in relation to Purvis Hampe now confined at Governor's Island on the charge of desertion, but being prevented from doing so by an urgent private affair, I beg leave to address you in his behalf. The reason for doing so is my acquaintance with the leading members of the society to which he belongs and whom I know to be very respectable people. Of course, you know better than I the circumstances in the case and for this reason I would not ask any thing inconsistent with your own judgment; I would only say that from what I learned, the unfortunate man is very repentant and in case of release would have an opportunity to work and become a good citizen, whose experience will probably last him for life. If you exercise your clemency in the case, you would greatly oblige myself and the many friends of the man.

President of the United States for work of this sort, we are willing to compromise by having you at our present meeting.

Do not fail to say "yes", and advise me at what time you will come to our City, so that arrangements can be made for your reception, and transportation sent to you in advance.
I trust you are in good health.

Yours truly,

For:
