Gen. O. O. Howard

Dear Sir -

We are delighted to hear that it will be possible for you to meet with the Alumni of N. Yarmouth Academy at the coming Anniversary.

In my last letter, I made a slight error in the date of the Pardon Commencement, and consequently of our Reunion, as I was misinformed. The day before Commencement will be the 26th of June, and unless you plan to attend the Class Day Exercises on that day, we would prefer to hold our [Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper] meeting on that day instead of the 25th. When I wrote, I thought the 25th was Tuesday, but find it is Monday, which would not be so good for our purpose. - so if equally convenient for you, we will plan for our meeting on Tuesday June 26th.

There will be an afternoon meeting with literary exercises, supper and social gathering in the evening.

Allow me to express in behalf of our committee our great pleasure in the prospect of your meeting with us, and our appreciation of your kindness in doing so, as well as our desire

My dear General -

Your letter followed me on the road all today and gives me great pain - 1st Because your name has already gone to press in different directions for an address on July 22 - But 2nd because you so entirely misunderstood my position, I will not attempt to answer your position, on paper but would request you to let me know if you will be at your office in the afternoon from 3 to 6, or either Monday or Tuesday or in the City during either of those days when I can have a conference with you -

I am not willing you should get under such a false conception of our work or our aims - Kindly let me hear if you can make an appointment -

Sincerely yours

My dear General Howard:

I enclose herewith the letter of Mr Bell's.

I do not feel, General, that you would be as useful for the cause of Christ in a campaign like that proposed by Mr Bell, as you would in being by yourself, in the delivering of lectures, speaking to S. M. C. A gatherings, and conventions, and visiting colleges &c &c. You will be much sought after, both in this country and England, during the closing years of your life, and will have all the opportunities that you can find time to improve, to speak words that will carry weight with them, for our Lord and Master. And, I am confident, that your words will have greater weight, if you speak them from the independent position of one, not coming before the public, as professing to be a minister or an Evangelist, or, as connected in work with such, but, as retired with honor from your high position, a voluntary testimony to the faith your life has exemplified.

I know Mr Bell quite well, and, while I believe him to be a sincere and good man, I should doubt the wisdom of the plan he proposes.

I had the pleasure of meeting many of your friends in Maine. Prof Sewall at Bangor, I found a most agreeable man, and true Christian. He helped me much in my meetings. Your letter (for which I thank you) gave me the presence of many of the old soldiers, and I had the joy of seeing some of them confess Christ.

I like the people of Maine, and enjoyed my work there. Your Nephews in Bangor, are manly and earnest Christians, and were much at my meetings.

Please present my kind regards to Mrs and Miss Howard, and to your Son.

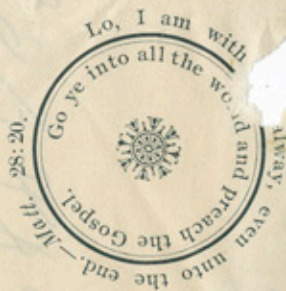

I think of you often dear General, and pray God to bless you and yours.

With affection and respect

Your former Staff Officer D. W. Whittle.

Gen O. O. Howard, I read with deep interest an article giving an account of the life you lead and the Gospel work you do.

Of course you do not know me for I am a Civilian and you a prominent Soldier, and as I have thought for some days of taking the liberty to write you, and I would dismiss it as foolish when lo it would come up unbidden, so I will just open my heart thoughts to you.

I have made six round trips from the Mexican line to Puget sound, holding meetings in all the large cities in some churches several times, raising up over years in the Campaign, and a vast number of conversions, I would love to make one grand Campaign on this Western frontier in company with

P.S. In order that you may be able to form some faint idea of what sort of a working man we venture thus to write I mail you a photo. that is Collected from

Just such a heroic Christian as I know you to be, these western people I am sure would give you a hearty welcome and sustain such a Campaign financially, we could secure a good Consecrated singer and with Gods blessing could do a wonderful work. I know the region well, I have watched events closely.

If you would entertain such a proposition I will give you such assurance as to character, ability and success as will satisfy you I think, if you will agree to spend six months in such a glorious Campaign, to begin at once in Southern California immediately after your 64th birthday, and then move north, closing at Puget Sound, then if we know each other well enough and our work justly will make a Campaign in the South, how I would love to labor with you among the warm generous mistaken people of Virginia the home of my youth and of my ancestors.

At least dear Gen. write me how this idea seems to impress you after making it a subject of prayer.

Yours sincere friend & Bro A. J. Bell

Dear General

Enclosed copies of my orders to report to you and also an order by you to perform the duty of Depot Quartermaster at Baker City Oregon.

I reported to you on June 17th 1878 by telegram and remained as Chief Commissary until September 10th 1878 when I returned to my duties as Purchasing C.S. at San Francisco

On November 1st 1880 I reported to you at Fort Tule as Chief Commissary and was transferred into the staff to General Sherman when you went to Harb. Point. Your movements at both times were hurried and probably nothing occurred to warrant special mention but I have letters from General Miles & Sherman and would like your testimony that my services were properly performed

Dear Gen^l Howard

Your fighting days are not over - after contributing so much to free our Land from that "burden of all villanies" Slavery, you are now called to lead the Jempeance host in its crusade against an evil more formidable & deadly still, inasmuch as it takes hold of the purity & peace of families from Maine to Florida, & from the Atlantic to the Pacific, threatening dire destruction not alone to them but to all the fair heritage entrusted by the God of the whole earth, to our-keeping, as a free people.

I wish the women of our Land realized what power for good or for evil they hold in their hands, if they would rise in their might & give time & strength as they did to the service of the Country during the 4 years war, ^{most of} our persons & hospitals would soon be closed, & family life become more akin to that of Heaven.
They are ^{now} responsible for a large part of the misery & degradation of our Country growing as they do from debasing vices which they foster by manner & example. An incident comes to me often, as I think of the power of narcotics over our people of all ages & conditions. A young lawyer of great promise son of a well known judge & toxicants in daily use in the family fell early into the drink habit from the thrall of whiskey. He made many efforts to escape, soon however to be over-come by the fumes of the fire-water, which a part & parcel of his daily life. Later he became attached to a noble girl who declined his address because of his habits. Love for her helped him to resist the fatal cup for a year. When the young lady consented to marry him, all went well until a year later when her mother sent the tempter in the form of brandy, peaches & the young wife gave them to her husband, he ate the desire for strong drink, ~~for~~ possessed him, he yielded & soon was a victim of delirium tremens & covering from this much humbled he again bowed to abuse the fatal cup, his wife a pious woman believed a thorough reformation had been wrought & life with child & husband went on happily until a ~~Xmas day~~ brought a mince pie ^{which she had brought} from her mother, eating this the demon entered his soul & controlled him, his sister next knowing of his fall, called at his door to ask his opinion of a span of horses she had just bought, asking him to take her place & try the horses whilst she attended to a little commission, he at first refused saying that one of the animals had a vicious cost, his hand was not strong, ^{he had been otherwise} she laughed at his fears saying why I have driven them five miles he took the reins from her hand & presto as she desired. 3 minutes later in turning a corner of drove the carriage onto a heap of stones, was thrown out & killed instantly.

moral ^{corruption} will only the great day will make known all you have done & been to our dear home-land - You were often a tower of strength to me, when ready to die because of the hardness of the way -

Now that you command the forces of temperance as well as those of the army you have my loving prayers for that wisdom which is preferable to direct in every emergency -

With kind regards to your family & best wishes for each & all

Yours with affection-& grateful respect
Ellen M. Harris

When a girl I heard a lawyer of unusual strength say nothing but a omnipotent power - Can help a man to keep his pledge to forego drink & long as the women offer us in dainty glasses wine, cherry bounce & other intoxicants, & every bar is closed, I signed the pledge made as I was told, an effective address, started home fully awake to the terrible evil of drunkenness, passing a tavern the fumes of which key reached me, so over-powered me that I went in & drank & went home drunk, many a time since I have gone out of my way going home through my stable rather than pass a tavern, so fearful was I that this curse of curses would overcome me; this strong man was held in bondage to the fear of intoxicants until the day of his death -

At the close of the last & the beginning of this century, men well to do had on their own property distilleries. I well remember such on property of my maternal grand-father managed chiefly by Irish men assisted by coloured men from which flowed much evil & yet appeared as this evil was encouraged the clergy of all denominations, with the exception of the Methy-deists who, when this exception was named in the presence of a relative, were said to be a direct -ed to the meaner - vices of lying & cheating, not the manly -ed of drinking & swearing so that an estimate was put upon total abstinence.
Many times have I as a child

listened to songs of Burns as sung by a Presbyter Presbyterian, some times an Episcopal clergy man as they stood before the side board glass of toddy in hand, the Secader being a correspondent of Burns who sent him manuscript poems to which my father adapted music.
It was a striking group as they all wore crees & ruffles, one of the number died from the effects of a fall from his horse whilst returning from a wedding intoxicated.
In 1825 a godly minister succeeded the above mentioned & gave him to Temperance work, society was formed promoted, but the ple-did ^{not} include wine, great good was wrought it was soon found that the pledge must in total abstinence for intoxicating liquors - for that time social drinking was unknown for many years, but alas the wine cup is no longer unfashionable in that community & there has been a lowering of the standard of religion & morality in many ways.

I often think of you & your inestimable service to our country in many a hard fought battle, with the foes of the Union & with abounding vice you & others like were

My dear General;

In reply to yours of the 10th inst, I regret being unable to do anything for Mr. Henry, as it is absolutely necessary that all mechanics employed in the Yard, be taken on through the Board.

I am informed by the Constructor of the Yard that George Henry, Wood Chucker was discharged on August 26th 1893 for lack of work.

There are now but six caulkers employed some of whom will soon be discharged also for want of work. If Mr. Henry applies at the Board, he will be registered for employment and will, through being a veteran, have precedence over others.

THE ADVANCE OF THE UNITED STATES FORCES INTO VIRGINIA IN 1861,

THE TWELFTH REGIMENT, N. G., S. N. Y., LEADING.

From the Report of Gen. S. P. HEINTZELMAN, U. S. Army.

WASHINGTON, May 24th, 1861.

"During the day I named the Regiments to be prepared to march at a moment's notice, and at 8 P. M. officers were sent to the colonels directing them to march to the Washington end of the Long Bridge. The orders were to enter the Bridge at 2 A. M., on the 24th of May. A few minutes before the hour, the head of the column halted at the Washington end of the Bridge, and precisely at the hour the troops advanced, the 12th New York State Militia, Col. Daniel Butterfield, leading. The troops which crossed were the 12th, 25th, and 7th New York, the 3d New Jersey, one company of cavalry, and one section of artillery. It was on the eve of the Virginia election, to determine for or against secession. The crossing of the Bridge was a grand and impressive spectacle. The moon was full and the sky cloudless. Silently, Solemnly and firmly the gallant troops marched across the river. No sounds to disturb the solemnity but that of their own footsteps, the order and firmness of which heightened the effect; and thus the Constitution was proclaimed by the advance of the 12th, on the right bank, before the rear of the column had left the left bank of the river."

Dear Sir:

Since replying to your very kind letter of the 10th. it has occurred to us that perhaps you might aid us in procuring photographs of Governors Island, the Fort, Parade Grounds etc., for reproduction in "Our Own Country". We find it difficult to procure satisfactory Eastern views and our special photographer in that section will not have time to visit every point of interest hence we desire to aid them as much as possible by securing views wherever they are to be had. If you know where photographs of the Fort etc. can be secured we shall esteem it a great favor if you will put us in communication with the party. We prefer views about 8 x 10 inches in size but can use either larger or smaller.
