My dear General,

Thanks for your note.
It will be all sufficient. My idea was to have Mr. Morgan call on the Supt. and obtain from him exact information as to what would be proper.
I will write Col. Ernst, enclosing your note, and Mr.

Dear Gen. Howard:

The time is drawing near for our Annual Meeting at Omaha and we are putting the finishing touches to our programme. The annual business meeting of the society will come Wednesday afternoon, June 6th, at half past three o'clock. It is expected that an excursion train will leave Boston and New York Monday evening, getting us to Omaha in time for the above meeting. I hope we are to have the pleasure of your presence with us on that train. The sermon by Dr. Herrick of Boston will come Wednesday evening and the first regular session of the convention on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The time from 9 to 9:45 that morning will be devoted to the regular prayer meeting, to be conducted in the main by our home missionary brethren. From 9:45 to 10:30 the time will be given to devotional exercises, appointment of committees, etc. and an address of welcome from some Omaha gentleman, probably Dr. Duryea, with a response from yourself. It is about this latter exercise that I write you especially this morning. Dr. Duryea's address with your response should occupy I suppose from fifteen to twenty minutes each.

This will enable us to wind up this part of the programme promptly at 10:30.

Notwithstanding the hard times, everything promises well for a large and enthusiastic gathering at Omaha. The expense of meeting there will not greatly exceed, so far as the outlay of the society is concerned, the annual expense at Saratoga. We always pay the way of a certain number of our superintendents to the annual meeting and as most of them are at the West it will cost less than usual to bring them to the gathering.

I thought you would like to know the above particulars especially with reference to your opening address, and hence this line.
