Dear General:

I am sorry you received a wrong inquiry as my reference was solely to your good character, I had seen a week previous to that an account of loans on the guarantee of Mr. Merrill of the Windsor Hotel; and not on your name as you surmised. After all of my goods had been received, in talking to the credit-men of parties who knew me, I felt it a great honor to mention your name. I am very sorry he misunderstood as I have dozens of persons here ready to back for my ability to pay my bills for the last eight years. Hoping you will pardon the misunderstanding I remain yours, respectfully, W. Grant Duffield

Dear Gen. Howard,-

In as much ^{as} that you kindly favored us with your assistance at our Song service in Trenton sometime ago, I feel sure that you will be interested to know something regarding the success of our work during the season which is just closing.

We began our active campaign with the first Sunday of September, and during the first part of the season our meetings kept growing until the climax was reached about the first of January when we found it necessary to hold meetings for men every night in the week, in order to meet the demands which seem to come upon us. Even that did not seem to suffice and the first of February found us with a schedule of 21 religious meetings for men per week with definite results secured by nearly everyone.

Some of these services were held among the poorest men of the city; the drinking men, the men with clothing so wretched that they were ashamed to appear on the street, attended some of these services in large numbers, and not only these but the better class of

Dear Gen. Howard,

In as much that you kindly favored us with your assistance at our song service in Trenton sometime ago, I feel sure that you will be interested to know something regarding the success of our work during the season which is just closing.

We began our active campaign with the first Sunday of September, and during the first part of the season our meetings kept growing until the climax was reached about the first of January when we found it necessary to hold meetings for men every night in the week, in order to meet the demands which seem to come upon us. Even that did not seem to suffice and the first of February found us with a schedule of 21 religious meetings for men per week with definite results secured by nearly everyone.

Some of these services were held among the poorest part of the city; the drinking men, the men with clothing so wretched that they were ashamed to appear on the street, attended some of these services in large numbers, and not only these but the better class of young men, if we may use that term, were reached through other services and brought to God and into His church. We did not confine our effort at our own building, although the structure is very commodious and well adapted to our work, but we held regular services in Morristown, Pa., in what we called the swamp district ^{of Swanton} and in other locations as well. The result is that 483 men have given themselves to Christ and there are 140 boys that have taken the same step since the first of September.

Of this number a great many have already found their way into the city churches and others are being taken in just as fast as proper arrangements can be made for their reception, though last Sunday saw a retrenchment in the number of services, yet we are now holding 16 religious services a week and we believe great good is being accomplished. Our social, intellectual and physical departments are strong features of our work, but we are emphasizing more than ever the distinctively religious work, and believe that God has blessed and honored His word as it has been proclaimed from our platform.

With the prayer that God will continue to bless you in your labors for Him in the future as in the past, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

General Oliver O. Howard,

Governors Sec'd,

New York,

Dear Sir: —

Kindly pardon the liberty I take in making a request of you, a stranger to me.

As you have held high military positions for a great many years and have been in correspondence with many noted people during that time, I thought that possibly you might have some letters and specimens of writing from them, which you would not care to preserve, but which I would value quite highly and be glad to add to my collection.

If you would kindly favor me with any of these, your kindness would certainly be fully appreciated by me, and you would greatly oblige sin,

Yours very respectfully

My dear General -

Many thanks for the paper with your speech -

I only wish I could have heard it - It must have been one of your best and I am glad to have it to keep - I have thought of you all often: And many times of our delightful trip in Florida - It is a part of Paradise left over

I have been hoping to hear from Cousin Lizzie to know what where you all are - I doubt not you went West. And are as usual ever on the wing - And some of you to TX. The weather has been quite warm the past two days. But the city is so lovely now with its wealth of trees and parks I ever am sorry to leave it. Well - The Island must be lovely now Has Col. Wren been to N.Y.? I hope my Barnett has given stringer and all your household too are gaining new fresh life with the spring. I have not much of interest to tell of myself. Just now dressmaking and making up colls are stealing away my days - I went three times last week to the Opera - And am going every blessed night this week - A very good wife and prices reasonable and myself good - No quite the rage - I had a look from Washington - Have any of you been there? - Give my love to each & all the home folks - I should be so glad of some tidings but know how many demands Cousin Lizzie has on her time - With best wishes ever sincerely your affe Cousin Lizzie R. L.

Dear General.

I am ever than sorry that circumstances prevent my complying with your request of the 17th and wish to explain what the circumstances are.

As I have explained last year and a meeting year on one and when any of the you came in I was in hopes that my way was clear, but it was not for the last of that month I was prevented & kept the house for weeks and have not done for whole days work at my business since. Brothers came thick & fast & while I don't care I might thank you at the time but one assure you that since the 1st day of Feby. I have not had a dollar of income.

I hope to soon get at work again and your ^{£5.} will be among the first articles of pay. Since we started again, we and execution issued and everything I had sent to the coal. At the time I sent you the £50. I borrowed several hundred thinking it tide over, and sent you £50. of it & intended to send the bal (£5.) the next week but could not. I am extremely sorry that you should have been placed in an inconvenient position by this matter & trust assured of my intention to pay the bal as soon as I can get it. Will you that you are to be retired in June & would like to have your own address when you leave Governor Island.

Wishing you every joy & send me to a man who has served several times

I am very respectfully

My dear General -

It seems strange to me, but perhaps I am too impatient, why you do not write - and tell me what you are going to do with regard to the Mines -

In the letter you sent me from your friend, I read something must be done at once - Are you doing anything, or is it too late for action?

It would be a sore trial, I must confess, to learn that my dear husband's work had all been in vain and that the Mines were to be henceforth to me at least, but a myth of the past. His anxiety with regard to them, is over at last, for this, I am most thankful and God's ways are great finding out, so I must try and be Content. I found the papers in your possession at Sister Phoebe's request. She wanted to show them to her Grand, the Incident-an eminent-lawyer in New York - He writes He has examined the papers very carefully and sees no reason to differ from the Child's opinion with regard to them. His only doubt being as to the validity of the title after the lapse of so many years and thinks it would be well to consult a lawyer nearer the ground. Would you like to have a talk with him (his office is 588

May 21st [1894]

shall I send them to you at once?

Hoping to hear from you very soon, with kind regards to Mrs Howard and yourself
