Dear General,—I am instructed by Gen. Lander Post 5, G.A.R., the Agent Post 2, Massachusetts, to invite you to deliver an address on Memorial Day, May 30, 1895. I enclose for your information a report of our observance of memorial Day on Wednesday of this week. Having that your arrangements for next year will permit of your acceptance of our invitation, I await your answer.

Yours with great respect,

John L. Parker

my dear General,

I thank you very much for your kind letter of support for the 10th Army Corps. I hope your health is improving.

I have another firm track of the General. M. Kimball has asked of the War Dept. that he be granted the Medal of Honor, which is now under consideration by Congress.

The letter to Gen. Schofield, the letter to the Secretary of War, which contains the whole story.

I'm indebted to Mr. Hendricks for his letter to me suggesting my being a member of Congress by that method, but the Sec. of War said I should forgo that and recommendations from those who knew me in the war, it is very annoying to me. Those who were in the service very much

Dear Sir:

A college friend and myself intend to visit New York City on our way home. I understand that special permits, obtainable from you, are necessary for admission to the right arm and torch of the Statue of Liberty Enlightening The World. We intend visiting the Statue and I would regard it as a great favor if you would be so kind as to send...

Dear old Commander and friend:

On this 32nd Anniversary of Fair Oaks, allow me to extend to you my hearty congratulations, that you still live to see this day, while so many of our comrades have answered the last roll call, and we shall see their faces here no more.

I hope and trust that many more years of honor and usefulness may be vouchsafed to you. And may Our Father Who is in Heaven ever have you in His holy keeping.

Sincerely yours,

G. W. Balloch
Dear Sir—

Your answer to my note of last Monday was duly received; the suggestions therein contained were laid before the young girls of the Circle in the 61st St. M. E. Church. After a little further explanation. They decided to act in accordance with your advice. Thanking you for your kind interest in the matter, I remain Yours sincerely, Emile M. Rubbo

Dear Sir,

I received in due course your favor in reply to my note of inquiry and a little later the Biography of General Taylor written by you and subsequently the book. I had the pleasure to hand you on the occasion of your visit to Monteire.

Permit me to express my many thanks most cordially for your kindness in sending me your exceedingly interesting work on the life of General Taylor, which I have read with great pleasure and appreciative interest.

I enclose you a paragraph of a letter published May 22nd in the San Antonio Daily Express referring to the book, and hope it may induce residents of this city to accurately inform themselves on this subject.

Old Mines Being Reworked. American Visitors to the City.

Monterey, May 14, 1894.

(Special Correspondence) A copy of the very well written biography of Gen. Zachary Taylor, by Maj. Gen. O. C. Howard, United States Army, was recently received by Prof. A. C. Ford of this city. It is published by D. Appleton & Co. of New York in "The Great Commander Series," neatly bound, gilt-edged, and contains a steel-engraved portrait of Gen. Taylor with maps of the localities where his various decisive battles were fought. The book is of especial interest to residents of Monterey, where some of the most important events of his eighteen-month campaign took place. Notwithstanding the fact that half a century nearly has elapsed since their occurrence, many eye-witnesses of these events are still living here. Many of the old landmarks referred to in the book are still discernible in and about the city, while others have become obliterated in the progress of time. Some three years ago, while preparing the work, Gen. Howard visited Monterey, remaining here several days to personally inspect the localities."

Gen. Oliver C. Howard,
Will you kindly tell me at what date you were created Major General, when you first entered the army and with what rank, and what the address of Gen. Dow Carlos Buell is?

I have a very particular reason for what last, and hope you will not think it is any idle curiosity which prompts me.

Hoping that you will favor me with a reply before June 17, I am,
Respectfully,

Dear Brother Otis,

Rev. Mr. Bailey, pastor of our church, will send you this letter. I have given him a letter of introduction to you. I hope it will come in your way to give him some appointment of importance in the meetings of the State Society, as he needs a man of more ability — an all around man. He never disappoints. He was pastor of the largest Congregational Church in Illinois — Part of — for nineteen years and came here from there — a native of Maine and graduate of Bowdoin.

I hope you received our letter asking you to come in to dinner, before you left home so that you have made your plans to do so. Belle is very anxious to see you and get acquainted. It will be eight years since we were married and yet you and she have never met, which is rather a sad commentary on the infrequency of the social relations of our families, and that reminds me that it is over eight years since you and I have met. I almost take it for granted that in coming to Omaha you are accompanied by Lizzie or Beatrice or both. What an excellent thing it would be for Beatrice to spend some time in the Rockies. Maybe you can arrange it.

If you could telephone me that you would come, I think I could procure night as passes for yourself & wife from the Railroad, particularly if I could say to Mr. Finley that he is a member of our church that you would deliver a lecture for the benefit of our church debt while you are here. Belle joins me in the heartiest greetings and urges you to come on to Denver. I hope the meeting of the Home Miss. Soc. will be a great success. Best wishes with me in love to you & Lizzie.

Your affectionate husband

My dear Brother Ohio:

I learn that you are respeting to be at Denver on the 30th June to attend the annual meeting of the Ame. Home Missionary Society. As you will be less than 24 hours away from here only a short distance & wish you would continue your trip to Denver. You have a sister and three little people here who have never seen you and would be delighted to make your acquaintance, Belle especially is anxious to meet you. She met Charles this people last year and your James. She has also met Dizzie & Nessie and enjoyed their acquaintance very much, and as you are to be so near we wish you would come further and visit us in our home. If one of the

Dear Sir:

I am writing to inform you of the recent developments in our company's finances. As you know, we have been facing some challenges due to the current economic climate. However, we have made significant progress in reducing our costs and improving our efficiency. Our latest financial report shows a steady increase in revenue, indicating a positive trend for the future.

I would like to request a meeting at your earliest convenience to discuss these matters further and explore potential strategies for continued growth. Please let me know if this is feasible for you.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. Enclosed is a summary of our recent financial statements for your review.
Family or a member of your staff is to be with you being here or her along. We should be particularly glad if Lizzie were to come. As you are one among your old acquaintances at Omaha, it has occurred to me that Lizzie might embrace the occasion to come west with you. If so, it would be exceedingly pleasant to have you being here with you.

Belle joins me heartily in this invitation and I hope you will not see your way to refuse. You can doubtless get away for a longer trip if you plan for it before leaving home.

Give me love to Lizzie and the children at your home, in which Belle joins me to accept a large share for yourself. Your affectionate brother,

My Dear Brother Otis:

This will introduce Rev. Frank O. Bayley, my friend and pastor, of Plymouth Church, Denver. I hope you will be able to get well acquainted with him, for I am sure the acquaintance will prove mutually enjoyable. His ability, spirituality, and geniality have in two years rescued Plymouth Church almost from destruction, and made it one of the stronger churches in the city. In the meetings of the Home Missionary Society, he will fill any place in which he may be placed. He joins with me in the hope that you may accompany him back to Denver.

Your affectionate brother,

R. H. Gilmore.
I'm afraid I can't speak for him, but I suppose he might be able to explain. I don't know much about the situation, but I've heard that he's been involved in some sort of conflict recently. I'm sure he'll be fine. I hope so, at least. I think he's a very good person.
