Dear General. -

It has been my purpose to call on you while here; if you do not go away until this P.M. I will get to see you at our hotel at the time you go; if it is otherwise ordered, this letter will advise you of the material facts that I wish to say to <sup>you</sup> <sup>1</sup>. I would like to grasp that <sup>on</sup> <sup>1</sup> ironless hand of yours again as I did Saturday night last. I, with 3 brothers, were members of Co. G., 89th. Ill. Inf'ty. Vols; Willichs. Brigade; Woods' Division; Fourth Army Corps; Army of the Cumberland. That was "the horn Brigade" - as the Confederates called it - It often drilled, marched, fought by sound of the bugle, as you will remember. There are a few of us of that Brigade here in Galesburg. Some of them may have called <sup>on</sup> <sup>1</sup> you personally, as I would have done but for hurried professional work that occupies my time.

Unaltered God, dear General Howard, it was your life of christian activity, though high in command & busy, with the humble christian life of my oldest brother John every day developed before him, that finally brought my brother, First Lieutenant Peter G. Tait, into the Kingdom of God during the Atlanta Campaign. Words cannot tell the joy there is in that reflection. Both John & Peter gave their lives for the preservation of our Country, brother H. P. & myself are here yet, & journeying heavenward. Our mother keeps the sword of Peter, & cherishes it as she, too, still journeys heavenward, in her eightieth year. She lives 20 miles from here. Brother John fell mortally wounded, at "Burnt Hickory" May 28th., 64. & passed to the presence of his Master June 19th. 64. Brother P. G. fell at the head of his Co. Dec. 16th. 64. Their memories are very tenderly cherished yet by our large circle of friends & relatives. They "Rest in God". I could not avoid giving you these few facts, dear old Commander of that historic Fourth Corps. May the Master we both serve bless the precious truthful sentences you uttered in our Church last night-the church of the late Rev.

George Duffield D. D.-whose daughter-Mrs J. J. Tunnickliff-is here with us yet.
With love and thankfulness for your life, & what blessed memories that life brings to our family circle, I greet my old Commander.

Faithfully Yours.

W. K. Tait.

Dear General:

In order to assist a worthy Comrade - a Conn. Battery Sergt. - whom I have often befriended in former times, I desire to sell, for his benefit, the last letter written in by Gen. Grant - 1879 - Do you know of a purchaser, at a not exorbitant figure? Perhaps it would be better to solicit contributions for its purchase, turn them over to the Comrade in question, and present the letter to a local library.

My wife & I enjoyed exceedingly listening to your account of the ~~Gettysburg~~ fight. We were so not to have <sup>had</sup> a chance to speak with you. Now we want you to plan to spend a night with us on your way to Maine. I understand you & say that you were going down a day or two before commencement to speak at some school graduation. Kindly let me know what day you can be with us in conformity with that plan.

Can't you come up here Saturday the 23<sup>d</sup> so as to be with us Saturday even-friends in to meet you & it is wholly agreeable to you and that is why I want to know definitely

When I may expect you I think we shall have a fine time at Brunswick.

My Dear General:

I read your article on the capture of "Bald Knob." Will not the records show that Company "A," 21st Indiana, Kirby's brigade, ~~lost~~ more men in killed and wounded on that occasion than any company engaged? The regiment advanced, from the edge of the woods to the creek of the wheatfield, at a doublequick, breaking into a run as we neared the top. The Company mentioned was ordered to close intervals while advancing so that the left would rest at a large dead tree about two hundred feet to the left, while the right aimed for the apex.

Needing the rifle pits and rail barricades we were an easy prey for the mud-crowned enemy, who gave us a volley when they were fairly on prisoners.

You will remember - for I have not forgotten our surprise at your presence, "as you during summer that 'it was a one sided affair' - that we laid there for some time while the rebel batteries, located along the brushy fence-row to the east of the wheat-

Dear Mr. Overstreet:

My dear friend:

I read your article on the confusion of "Baker House". Not only the records show that Company "A", 21st Indiana, killed private, but company men in killed and wounded on that occasion than any company engaged? The regiment retreated from the edge of the woods to the rear of the cemetery. At a subsequent meeting with a man as the account of the day, the Company mentioned was ordered to clear out the whole cemetery so that the left would not be so large and the whole the cemetery to the left, while the right wing for the open.
During the rifle fire the men were scattered and were every day for the week-end coming, who you field, fired shot <sup>and</sup> shells into the dead treetops over us, <sup>and</sup> into the gravelly hill tops around us, until the air was filled with limbs, splinters, duck <sup>and</sup> stones.

Looking back over the ground, over which we had advanced, I remember it was dotted with the dead <sup>and</sup> wounded of the regiment, mostly from the Company mentioned.

— Referring to my journal of June 10th <sup>1864</sup> find that Capt. McClure, 21st Iles, <sup>and</sup> myself, were commanding our respective companies as skirmishers in front of the advancing brigade. Crossing a narrow cornfield at a double-quick we expected to encounter the rebel skirmish line in the mesquite brush <sup>and</sup> briars grown up along an old fence row. Instead we stirred up a Major General—yourself—with field glass in hand. Do you remember the circumstances? It was near Centerville Ga. four days before the Bishop General Polk was killed.

Capt Wm. Washington
12th Co. Inf. 4th H. B. Co.
Captain:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 28th Ult., and confess my embarrassment in making reply thereto.

On the 11th of July 1887 I was with Gen<sup>l</sup> Howard (as Chief Art. Officer U.S. Art. Cal. Columbia) in pursuit of hostile Nye's Indians. - On the morning of the day in question the hostile camp was discovered, on the opposite side of the S. fork of the Charnata, & I volunteered to spare the fight with the Lemitzers. Genl Howard kindly permitting it, I took position on the bank of the stream & supported by twenty men of the 21st Inf.

kept up my fire upon the hostiles in camp & then crossing the river to attack, until the main portion of our troops were in position on a second mesa half a mile distant, -Then finding my detachment about to be cut off, I withdrew it barely in time to save it; The Indians debouching from an intervening ravine just after our crossing: About this time my horse was shot & disabled: Reaching the main body of troops, I relinquished command of the volunteers to an Artillery Officer, thereafter attending to my legitimate duties as Adjutant Officer: I know of no other specific act outside of my duty: Possibly the facts narrated touching as they do acts beyond my assigned sphere of duty may have called forth Genl. Howard's favorable consideration; for which I am duly grateful.

Very Respectfully
Yours

The Consuelo Santa Barbara California, June 2nd 1894

General Howard,

Dear Sir:

Only for the reason that my mother has ceased to write me; that my daughter is seldom from writing to me; that we are completely cut off from our kin, and all among us, must I, very much against my inclination, trouble a friend of my husband's and mine, who has been already too kind. In Sept. last my mother sent me a R.R. ticket from Santa Barbara to Omaha, where she then was in charge of "The Mission of Our Merciful Savior," at that time I had become indebted to strangers in Santa Barbara, through a long Illness. Apparently my days are numbered. In addition to a constant cough, dys-pnea has developed, and paralysis is threatened. A physician has given a medicine containing digitalis. I wished my mother to borrow $108.00 for me from a relation of wealth in Milwaukee, but she was <sup>not</sup> willing to ask for this sum although I have given her so many hundreds of dollars; my sister Rosa and more; and they have both spent money brought from the sale of my property, without my consent. In March the U. P. R. R. cancelled the ticket, refunded the money to my mother, and she has spent it. Adelaide has lost the scholarship at Ford du Lac, and was with my mother at Omaha last summer, at an Institution for the reformation of reprobate women. She is now, so I have learned indirectly, and not from her, or my mother, at the House of Mercy in Wood-m. Hulson, or as I understand it; 86th Street North River. This is a terrible place for any girl to be; none all for one whom her adopted father intended to have so much, and who has still a home, if she were allowed to be in it.

I have written to the Chief of Police New York City; and the the President of the Young Women's Union. but have heard nothing. Anyone not repainted with the circumstances will be convinced by my mother that Black is white.

Unless some real, disinterested friend of Captain Murdoch's and mine, can interfere, either by legal measures, or personally, I know that Melaine is lost to me forever. She is completely under my mother's control, and has not written to me, but once, since January 8th last? six months?

Before leaving St. Monica's school she wrote regularly every week.
My mother not only does not write to me, but returns my letters in an envelope addressed by her without a word of comment.

She prefers to ~~adhere to~~ this line of conduct rather than acknowledge herself to be in the wrong, in regard to the Laidis mode of existence, or mine.

Last week I received a letter from Mr J. S. Taylor, Treasurer of the Great Burning Savings Bank, asking me to remit $86.22, the sum due on interest of my note, and taxes. The tenant is in arrears with the rent and intends quitting the house.
Probably the mortgage may foreclose.

My pension is spent before I have drawn it, and charitable church people in Santa Barbara, have given me sums that I have little hope of repaying at present.

General Miles sent me a R.R. ticket in March last, from Omaha to Chicago, with the promise of being able to obtain half rates further East, and this ticket can be extended indefinitely, Majr Groesbeck writes. But every day in California increases my indebtedness, while I am too ill to work.

Is it too much to ask of you, Sir, to use your influence to have some reliable person, try to find my daughter, and insist upon her writing to me. And my mother has no right to desert me.

In 1888 my mother and sister wrote to General and Mrs Melrose that I was insane, and to friends in Los Angeles the same, and for that reason I was compelled to allow my daughter to go East, until there was something better to offer her in California than 2 share in $20 a month?

My mother may deny this; but the letters are in existence, and can be produced. Phillips and Wells, real estate agents, Tribune Building N.Y. of whom I bought the Massachusetts place, have letters to prove that while I was absent in California, my mother actually tried to dispose of the place to pay debts of my sisters in Barrington, which to this day is an - fact.

I begged to have Captain Maudsley's books spared, and the plates I had framed, but everything was sacrificed, even the Christmas and birthday presents my husband had given me.

I have nothing left but the bare house. Pardon me for troubling you.

Very respectfully

Emily Maudsley
