Dear father: 472

Saturday Guy recd our invitation from the G. S. Blodgett of this city owner of the Mirror Lake Hotel, Lake Placid, inviting you and mother, Guy & Jennie, Bessie & me, to spend a week at his hotel in the Adirondacks between now and Sept 8th (to be away from there Sept 8th)

Of course we all want to go but the invitation is conditional that you go.

Guy asked me to write ask you if you & mother could arrange to meet us there at any date suitable to you? The N.Y. Central by runs to Saranac Lake, & which point we have to go to get to Lake Placid, so you could use your pass.

Jeanne expects her mother after Sept 1st but Guy says we can go when convenient to you by Sept 1st. The same day Bessie rec'd an invitation from Aunie Thompson, also at Lake Placid, for her to go & spend a week with Aunie

She answered she couldn't go Monday but asked if it would be convenient a few days later

She would go by Pittsburg.
Now with this other invitation she don't know what to do until you answer us.

Genl O O Howard

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of addressing you in regard to a matter which it would seem should receive some attention, but which perhaps is out of my province and perhaps also of other civilians. Sackett Harbor has become this summer quite a resort from this City on account of more than ordinary R.R. facilities, and the attraction of the Army Drills. But there is one drawback and that is the intemperate habits of the soldiers.

I have often heard of this, and of late it is becoming disgraceful. My son who has just returned from the Harbor reports that yesterday (Sabbath) there were several intoxicated soldiers passed by the house where he was staying with friends. He said it was a thing of common occurrence. Although there are facilities for obtaining as much beer as they may desire at the Pantries

This does not satisfy and they resort to the Saloons at the Village, with the result which I have named

Col Butler I understand is aware of the state of things, but does not seem to correct it. I know nothing about Army regulations, but it occurred to me that such a state of things would not meet with approval at Head Quarters

We are all highly pleased with the great improvements which have been made at the Banack. Sackett Harbor is ten miles from Watertown, but we are interested in its prosperity. It is the only town in this part of the State which has a history.

Of course I am an entire stranger to you, but am an old resident of this City having resided here nearly 75 years

If necessary would refer you to the Old Bookeller, and Publisher of N.Y.

Respectfully yours
J. C. Sterling

From the BURLINGTON HAWKEYE
December 8, 1892.

New York, March 25th, 1881,
Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—

May I ask the great favor of you for a sixty days absence for Mr. N. E. Dawson, of your Department, to accompany me to Mexico, as Secretary and Stenographer.

His knowledge of Spanish will make him especially useful. I ask this favor with more confidence, because I believe my business to Mexico is of greater importance to the nation at large than to me or any other person individually.

If Mr. Dawson comes he should meet me in St. Louis in time to take the morning train, the Iron Mountain Road, for Galveston; or else come here in time to leave with me Monday morning. Would like very much to see him in New York before we start.

Very truly yours, U. S. GRANT.

War Department, Washington, D. C., March 25th, 1881.

General U. S. Grant, 5th Avenue Hotel, N. Y.

Dear General:—

It will give me pleasure to grant Mr. Dawson leave until June 1st, to accompany you to Mexico.
He will report to you Sunday morning in New York.

Respectfully yours, ROBERT T. LINCOLN.

U. S. Legation, Vienna, Jan'y 31st, 1892.

My Dear Mr. Dawson:—

* * * We all join in kindest regards for you and yours. I remain, as ever, sincerely, Frederick D. Grant.

The Graduates of the Hawkeye editorial and business staff are found all over the United States. Many of them are in prominent public positions; others engaged in journalism and private business enterprises.

Among the number well known to our citizens is Noble E. Dawson, who was private secretary for Senator Allison, General Grant and other public men, and who now holds the same confidential relationship to Director General Davis of the World's Fair.

An article in the Chicago Saturday Evening Herald regarding Director General Davis and the Columbian Fair has this interesting reference to his confidential secretary:

"Not far away is the desk of his confidential secretary, Mr. N. E. Dawson. Thoroughly kind and unassuming, a man of rare tact and sterling worth no one can doubt, a man in whom Grant, Sherman, Dodge, Chief Justice Miller and other prominent men in the country have placed the utmost confidence. His friends say that it is this quality of entire trustworthiness united to abilities of a high order that renders him an ideal private secretary. To me the most interesting fact connected with his history was that General Grant loved and trusted him, that he was constantly with him during his last days on earth, devoting his entire time to the preparation of the famous memoirs."

Could you not make time soon, - some afternoon when you are in the city to call at my studio, in the Studio building No 51 west 10th street (six doors east west of 6th avenue, north side) to look at an oil portrait of Abraham Lincoln I have recently finished from a plaster mask of his face and from photographs? I can at the same time show you a three quarter length of Genl Hancock and Genl Geo A. Custer,

I have also my large portrait of Genl Thomas in a suitable frame that I would like you to see again, you have never seen it in a frame, it makes a great difference for the better in its appearance in the frame, Major

Spurgin and Captain Puncie from West Point have both been to see it and expressed themselves as highly pleased with it.

Said they would like to have it at West

Dear General,

I have sent by mail today a package containing two samples of what is supposed to be gypsum. This is the only deposit thus far found in the Northwest and may prove valuable. - My request is that you send this to the Smithsonian Institution for analysis. I think that a request from you will hasten this, and possibly lessen the expense. - The location of the deposit is near a proposed railway - and will prove of great benefit to this section of country if it proves to be good. I shall have a claim as well as some of my friends if they can for it. Grace & children still at the Seaside all well. Expense of analysis will be paid by us. I am, Sir, all yours faithfully,

My dear General Howard:-

On receiving this article I glanced over it and immediately put it away to be used as soon as possible. I took it up this morning to read over before giving it to the printer and I think I shall have to return it to you.

I confess I do not like to publish an article which is so personal as this is about a private individual and friends still living in whom the public generally can have no special interest, as they might, indeed, in his brother Thomas, a man whose work I read when a boy. Further than that, the paragraph quoted from him on page 4 is ungrammatical and I can get no meaning out of it. And the long paragraph on page 5 I dislike very much to print on account of its false teaching. It is not true, very, very far from true that the story of the life of Christ, our Lord, depends for its credibility upon the first chapters of Genesis. The real fact is that it is the life of our Lord which carries the burden of those chapters rather than the reverse; and it is not safe to teach our young men, who are wide awake on scientific matters, that if they should happen to give up the story of the Flood they must also give up Christianity. Such seems to be the teaching of that paragraph, and I believe that on second thought

My dear Howard:

I received your very kind letter to the Adjutant General just previous to leaving Fort Leavenworth for Wisconsin, and as I expected to be in New-York before very long I did not write to you but expected to see you personally and thank you for it. I intended to go over to Governor's Island this morning, but seeing Capt Watherspoon yesterday afternoon he told me that you would leave quite early to-day to go to some place where you were to deliver a lecture. As I leave for the West this evening I will not be able to see you and therefore I wish to fully express my thanks for your generous letter in my behalf.

While in Washington I was received very cordially by the Sec'y of War and by the President think my chances exceedingly good.

It appears to me however that Bliss is the strongest candidate; many think him to be the coming

Dear Sir - Knowing the kindness of your heart I feel free to address you on a matter of interest to myself. I have applied for a chaplaincy in the U.S. Army, today, through Sam Thos Gray. (House Rep) Wash D.C.

It has occurred to me that if you knew my desire in the case you would give whatever assistance you could consistent with your position. I am encumbered with a debt of a thousand dollars or more, college expenses, the debt is already outlawed which makes me the more anxious to pay it. If I could secure the above appointment I can in a short time pay all obligations. Beyond this, being a young man, and having had success in my work among young men, I have no hesitancy in saying that I could fill with Divine aid the requirements.

of the position. My private reasons for seeking the appointment I have made known to no one but - you self - I send you a copy of endorse ment accompanying application. I could furnish you recommendation from A. P. Bancroft - with whom I was employed when you were on the coast, I could if required secure endorse ments - from Dr Charlotte Blake Brown + Mrs Sarah Leoper. S. 7.

Any word addressed to Hon Thos Gray that might help me will be fully appreciated.

It may be in order to state that I am 24 yrs of age, a graduate of Allegheny College Meadville Pa. Class '83. Have a family of wife and two little boys. - My heart is in the work of the ministry and I can not give it up. I know the Lord will help me out of my financial difficulties without - doing so.
