Dear Sir:-

We take pleasure in handing you the accompanying prospectus of Littell’s Living Age, now approaching the close of its fifty-first year.

To demonstrate its value it is only necessary to say, that, originally commended by President Adams, Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, historians Sparks, Prescott, Ticknor, Bancroft, and many others, it has never ceased to receive the support of the best people and journals of the country.

Trusting that our special offer to new subscribers may meet your acceptance, we are [Handwritten text:] Cleveland, to express to you, in the name of our institution and of our community, our pleasure that you are to be again for a while in our neighborhood, and our hope that your interest in our work still continues and that you will be able before long to visit Forest Grove again.

President McEldred is now at the East seeking additional endowment funds, and will probably return in January. The work of the school has made substantial progress lately in several directions, and has outgrown its former facilities. A new building, to cost about $5,000, is well under way, and our present attendance (over 170) is the largest we have ever had, in spite of financial difficulties which interfere somewhat with our work. I send you a copy of our latest catalog and some other papers.

Yours respectfully,

Dear Mr. A. Q. Howard:

I received your letter of 25th, and permit me to congratulate you on your honorable retirement, but more on your noble career as a Christian soldier and statesman.

I hope you may be selected to lead the National Religious in next national election. You can draw more votes from Christian men than any man I know of. Now a little about the future. Why can we not arrange a series of Evangelistic Meetings for Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Olympia, and perhaps some others, beginning in April, and you know what a glorious Climate Fraser Sound is in Summer, and I am so sure it would win...
That I would gladly enter heartily into it. Suppose you make it a subject I pray, and at your leisure give me your views on that proposition, I would have to include some great Tabernacle Meeting at some point to be agreed upon, and enlist all Christians that are One. I am now in this wicked little City. Old in sin, yet we are hearing Conversations almost daily. May the clear Lord direct us in this most important work.

Yours in Christ, J.D. Bell

P.S. I write with pleasure to promote your New York and Montreal to become a City.
My Dear General:

Before I left Coosaw Island I wrote another additional letter for your article and turned them over to Mr. Dolph, he has gathered mixed up all the other papers and mailed them the copies back home. I have concluded that as they are not publishing your papers very fast there will be plenty of time for you to look this over! Indeed I think it would be best for you to do so as it becomes a matter which might be delicate. If it was as simple a matter I would not hesitate about signing it. The notes and pretty freely written from General Sherman's headquarters and are incomplete. Henry can read them to you and put them together if it suits you.

I trust you have had a delightful trip and are enjoying your visit to Wades Island and that Mr. Howard and your family are helping you have a good time.

I have heard of your safe arrival in San Francisco but nothing from Macmillan as yet. I am still alone this Thanksgiving not joining anyone but the rest of our work. I hope that he will sell for a large price.

I suppose that we have not the necessary things here so that I could continue my studies of your Indian Campana...
i should have found instructions and forms in it as well as broad of some additional help to you. maybe later we can get the needed books.

with kindest regards to your family and wishing you a very merry and happy christmas

sincerely yours very sincerely

Honored Sir,

The Sons of Veterans of this town have organized a Camp and named it after yourself. They have 15 Charter members, willsoon muster in the officers, and if you will give them a word of advice it will be gratefully received or what would please them better, would be a call if you could make it convenient.

1894,
Dear Professor F. G.,

This letter is to inform you. I have decided to withdraw from the course. Therefore, I must resign as a teaching assistant. Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience this may cause.

My dear Sir,

You may not remember me, but I used to know you in Omaha. I am now in a similar position in this city.

We have in this city an organization known as The Puget Sound Congregational Club, a thing you understand very well and you will feel sympathetic. The next meeting will be the 19th instant and will be a celebration of Thanksgiving Day. Dr. Thomas Carpenter, pastor of the Cong'! Church in Plymouth, England, will be present as the principal guest. It is suggested that you must with us sometime. It would like it have you then. If at another time, that would please us. This December meeting will be held in Seattle. The next meeting, the second Tuesday in January, will be in this city. All we can offer you will be your expenses. Can you attend the Seattle meeting? Or which would suit you as well can you promise to come here in January.

Dear Sir and Comrade:-

One may infer from editorial comments that you would perhaps take the Lecture Field. If inference is correct, will you do so in the near future and will your services be obtained through any bureau or direct? Kindly indicate how, and as to price. Would like to have you soon in our City, upon almost any topic that you might suggest, the proceeds to go in the treasury of a Sabbath School.

My Dear General:— I was delighted to receive yours of the 28th Thirty years ago when I was an enlisted man I hardly hoped to be ever permitted to write to a real Major-General.

I was also delighted at the kindly feelings you expressed for my young partner's wife, she that was Edith Turner. I see her sister, Marie, now Mrs. Cook, almost daily and her Mother frequently but have not seen the father for sometime, and take it that he is East on business. The young brother met Mr. and Mrs. Daniels in London last summer and when they returned to New Zealand at the end of July he went with them. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels went to New Zealand in October '93 from Frisco and in March '94 sailed for London, reaching there the 1st of May and had the three best months of the season in London and England and went back to New Zealand, as before stated, the 26th of July. They have changed their plans somewhat from a hunting and fishing season in the interior to a furnished house in Wellington, where they have already been shown Dear Mr. General:

I am delighted to receive your letter of the 28th.

With your kind offices, I can see no reason why I should not apply to be an Assistant Mayor-General.

I have also applied to the Kindly Letters you expressed your willingness to accept.

If you have none, I will be sure to let you know. If you do not, I will write you.

I am in the business and have been in the army for some time. I have served in the army and in the navy.

I am now in London and will write you later on to see if you can help.

My name is J. H. Brown with this.

May any of your forces with this.

Your service is important and we need your help.

Portland, Oregon.

My Dear General:-

I have been hoping to hear from you, but not a line since I wrote you at Governor's Island. I notice by the papers that you have safely arrived at Oregon, and I hope you are having a restful time.

You will see by the "Advocate" for December that was sent you, that we are to have a severe fight on the Sabbath question—opening of saloons on Sunday. I propose to fill the next "Advocate" full of the subject, and shall ask the Board at our meeting next Monday to pass a resolution requesting every Minister in this State to preach on the subject at some particular Sunday either the last of January or 1st of February, and then I want to raise money enough to send the "Advocate" to every Minister in the State, some eight or ten thousand. I wish we could have a ringing blast from you for the "Advocate" if you get this in season. I shall go to press by the 20th at least. I enclose you a circular we have just issued which was virtually the same we issued a year ago with some few changes. We must make a strong push at once for $10,000, and I hope you may find somebody in Portland who will help us in that direction.

Yours very truly, J. N. Stearns
Dear Mr. Howard,

I am writing to inform you of a recent development that I believe may be of interest to your organization. I was notified of the need to change the location of our office building due to a new city ordinance that affects our property. We have decided to relocate to a new site in the heart of the city, which will allow us to expand our operations and improve our services.

If you would like more information, please let me know. I am available to discuss the details of the move and answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for your understanding.
