Dear Sir:-

Your favor of Dec. 19th., with check for $40 enclosed, to apply on your Lean Association accounts, has been handed to me by Mr. B.F. Funk. Please accept thanks for same.

You speak of entering the amount in your book. Possibly Mr. Doyle, the Sec'y, has the book, if not, it is probably in your possession, if so, kindly forward same to be written up.

Our Association has had a successful year's business, a report of which will be sent you within a few weeks.

I am yours,

Very Respectfully,

Chicago, Dec. 28, 1894.

A meeting of former officers of the Army of the Tennessee was held at Sherman House Club Room at 12 o'clock Dec. 27th, for the purpose of petitioning the President to appoint Capt. A. T. Andreas on the Shiloh Battle-field Commission. Gen. A. L. Chetlain was chosen Chairman of the Meeting and Col. F. A. Battey, Secy. The Secretary read the following:

WHEREAS. The Shiloh Battle-field Bill has passed Congress and will undoubtedly receive the approval of the President, we, formerly officers of the Army of the Tennessee, most of us having participated in that great conflict, naturally desire that the provisions of the bill be carried out in the best possible manner, that the memorable field may be preserved and beautified, do here in meeting assembled RESOLVE That in our judgment Capt. A. T. Andreas, of Chicago, is the most suitable person to represent on that Commission Gen. Grant's Army. The interest he has always taken in that battle, his investigations to secure all the facts relating to it, his having a survey made of the battlefield and its surroundings, from which he published a large map in order to have a correct one, and his adaptation to anything of that nature peculiarly fit him for the position.

RESOLVED, That a committee of three (3) be appointed of which the presiding officer of this meeting be chairman, to prepare a memorial to the President, and to circulate a petition among former officers of the Army of the Tennessee, for their signatures to accompany said memorial, and to take such other steps as may be deemed best to secure his appointment, and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to our comrades, Gen. W. Q. Gresham, the Honorable Secretary of State, and Congressmen Col. D. B. Henderson and Gen. John C. Black, and ask their assistance in carrying out the objects of this meeting.

After remarks by several present, on motion of Col. W. A. Jenkins, seconded by Major Geo. Hunt, the resolutions were unanimously adopted. The Chairman added Gen. John McArthur and Col. F. A. Battey to the committee, after which the meeting adjourned.

We, the committee appointed, enclose a postal for the purpose of hearing from former officers in the Army of the Tennessee. Those who return the postal saying they will sign the petition, a petition will be sent them.

Respectfully

A. L. CHETLAIN,
JOHN MCARTHUR,

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard,

My Dear Sir:-

You will remember me as having managed the Chautauqua reception at the Academy of Music on Nov. 5th where you presided. I have had charge of the affairs of the Union for several years, such as excursions to The World's Fair, Chautauqua Lake &c. I am now organizing a tour to Europe for next summer under the auspices of the Union. May I use your name as reference? I think the success of the reception which is a fair sample of other affairs will prove to you that we will successfully carry out whatever we undertake. Dr Hurlbut has authorized me to use his name and I wish to get the names of a few other influential men.

The plan is to sail on the "City of Rome" June 29th and make a short tour of Scotland and England and spend a few days each in London and Paris. There will also be attractive side trips to Switzerland, Germany and Italy. I shall accompany the excursion but it will be conducted by Mr. F. C. Clark who has been manager for Henry Gaze & Sons and who has had fifteen years of this work.

Kindly reply at once as we wish to issue pamphlets.

Sincerely,

I have been an interesting reader of your letters in the National Tribune. Dear Brother:-

I finally have a tangible proposition to be shown to capitalists in our irrigation enterprise; in fact, the preliminary statement sent you has been revised and the "Financial Plan" more fully elaborated in a way that it can be presented to anyone or any syndicate who may be willing to furnish the capital to start with. This financial plan is now in such definite shape that it might be presented to any of our friends who have money to put in. This part of the scheme is elaborated in the last four pages of the document enclosed, and begins near the top of the twelfth page. Any person from whom we may obtain this five hundred thousand dollars, either from one or two or a syndicate, the promoters are ready to give a very fair commission for such a service. At first, we thought of moving forward without taking in any capitalists in this way, but became convinced that it would be better to have this working capital to make everything go easy, and prevent any possible disappointments.

Please ask Captain Gray to examine not only the first

Dear General:

On Friday eve at a friendly reception at the Union League Club in Baltimore on the occasion of the inauguration of the "Baltimore Plan" more than 1000 persons were present and the Speaker said that it was a great pleasure to have so many friends of freedom and justice gathered together to witness the birth of a new era in the history of our country.
The speaker said that the new era had begun and that the old era of slavery and oppression was about to pass away and that the new era of freedom and equality would soon be established.
He said that the new era would be a glorious one and that the people of the United States would be happy and prosperous.
He also said that the new era would be a time of great progress and development for the country and for the world.
He concluded by saying that the new era would be a time of great hope and confidence for all Americans.

part, but particularly this last part with reference to a working capital now needed, and to suggest any names of persons from whom we might obtain money, either through you and himself or by approaching them more directly. We have various strings to our bow in this respect. There is one English woman now in California with whom we are directly in communication, who has three million dollars to invest and who is getting now only one or two per cent, and there seems to be some prospect that we may get the money of her. Then, there are a number of capitalists in Chicago that are becoming interested, and there seems to be some probability that they may take hold of it together; such for example, as Mr. Sprague, who is now in California and has been asked to examine it by our Mr. Stone, of whom I wrote you as a proposed President of the company, and who is now the president of the Associated Press of the United States. If they take hold of it, it is probable that Marshall Field and a number of others who are associated with them in the Commercial Club in this City, will combine. If both these avenues are cut off from us, we will next try New York through our Mr. James G. Foster, who has acquaintance with capitalists there. Our last resort will be to London, where he has resided several years, and from which city he obtained a million dollars for the Bear Valley System of irrigation, which is located near the same mountains in California, but which Mr. Foster thinks is not to be compared with ours in natural advantages and in chances for bene-garrison is of course the best fortification the country has, but there must be some to sustain the defense of the houses and bridges etc &c & so it is evident that you should not make any mistake, when you come into town or outside the town even if it be necessary. Because when we have such a quantity of people in town there will be many difficulties and complications in our movements and they will be great, especially when you are in a foreign country, and you will find it difficult to get supplies, and the more you are in need the more difficult it will be for you to get them. But if you can get them quickly you will be able to supply your wants more easily than if you have to wait for a long time. And when you are in a foreign country it is always better to have a good knowledge of the language and customs of the country, because then you will be able to understand what is said to you and what is done by others. And when you

Gen O. D. Howard

My dear General

I have applied to the newly elected Mayor of New York Col. Wm L. Strong for appointment to one of the judicial offices which are to be substituted for the present Police justiceships. The request for my appointment is signed by Mr John A. Stewart President of the U.S. Trust Co. and by the Presidents of a number of the most substantial banks of our city and also by other gentlemen of influence and of high social and business standing.

I have practiced law in New York more than twenty five years, much of the time associated with my father and more recently with my brother the Colonel. My military service was performed as an officer in the army of the James before Richmond and with Gen Terry at the Capture of Fort

Fisher, with Genl. D. Cox at the capture of Fort Anderson and Wilmington in North Carolina and again with Genl. Terry in the subsequent campaign in that state. After that I returned to Virginia and in August 1865 was honorably discharged having been twice promoted.

If you would kindly address a note to Major Strong on my behalf and send it to me so that I could present it to him I feel sure that it would greatly strengthen the probability of my appointment.

Hoping that you are well and that you will pardon my troubling you

The organizing and taking charge of the Books of Estates in legal form; and also making schedules and accountings for Administrators, Executors and Trustees, and for Assignees to file in the Surrogate, and other Courts.

The examining and reporting upon statements and conditions set forth in proposals or prospectuses of commercial, manufacturing, financial and other undertakings.

The preparation of Balance sheets, and Trading, and Profit and Loss Accounts, with due care that provision be made, or has been made, at the end of each fiscal year, for depreciations, renewals, discounts, drawbacks, doubtful debts and other contingencies, and that the accounts comply with the requirements of partnership agreements, Corporation acts, etc., preparatory to determining the net profits for the period.

The arranging and adjusting of Books and Accounts on the formation or dissolution of Partnerships, on Joint Ventures, Arbitrations, or any other form of agreement.

The ascertaining or verifying the facts in disputed questions, the elucidating of facts from Books and Accounts in the settlement of questions of law, where accounts are involved.

The examination and statement of the accounts of insolvent businesses; and the preparation of statements of affairs, and deficiency accounts, for the purpose of displaying the condition of the estate, so that creditors may be guided thereby in the determination of their interests.

The writing up of sets of Books and balancing them at stated intervals, where a business, estate or trust does not wish to incur the expense of the whole time of a competent bookkeeper.

The providing of expert accountants of undoubted ability from William Waddell's staff for any of the above branches of accountancy business and all other matters of mercantile and stock companies' accounting.

Dear Sir;

I have been fortunate in gathering together a class of nearly 40 young men in the M. C. Church = Sunday School here. Not only on account of the rapid increase in my class do I find it necessary to secure a room for them but also that I may have an opportunity of doing personal work. The Board of Trustees have given permission to fence off a portion of the prayer room as a majority of the class are poor and we have no funds. I come to you in this hour of need. Can we secure you for a lecture in the near future.

If so kindly advise date - terms &c

Dear Father:

Your letter and letters of introduction have arrived. Only four of them have the names of the persons to whom they are written upon them. The others are all blank, but are meant for persons whom you know personally. Please send me a list of names of the persons whom you know well and to whom I can present these letters; the object being that I may make the acquaintance of the people whom you have learned to know during your long life. I desire to meet them only socially, and if otherwise, it would come at their initiative.

We are all well. Chancey's family is on its feet as to health and doing fairly well as to finance. A Happy New Year to all.

Affectionately your son,

J. W. Howard

Dear Father:

Your letter and telegrams to me have arrived. Only two of them have given me news of the war to date. The most recent was the arrival of the 1st Division, put the measure for defense at the pink, but the measure for defense was still pink. Please excuse me for not knowing what you know personally. Persons whom you know well send me a list of names of the persons whom you know well and of whom I can hear about twice as often as of whom I can hear about once. I desire to meet them only if they come to see us, and it is impossible to do so. I have no desire to meet them only if they come to see us, and it is impossible to do so. We are still well. Thursday, a Sunday, we are still well. A happy New Year to all.

All affectionately yours son,
