Major-General O. O. Howard,
Denver, Colorado.

Dear General:-

Yours of March 29 enclosing letter from Rev. George E. Nichols, 66 Spring St., New Haven, Conn., has been received. I shall attend to this engagement as you direct. I shall also note on my calendar that you have made an engagement to speak on Decoration Day at Albany for the G. A. R.

The total price for the lecture at Denver is $150.00. I have directed that this be handed to you. I shall send you a list of the prices for the rest of the engagements later.

A few weeks ago I had an offer for a memorial address at St. Joseph, Mo.; but I declined it, assuming that you would not want to go that far from home at that time.

Regarding the engagement at New Haven, would you like to go there from Pittsburgh? You can go to Burlington by way of New York, and a side trip to New Haven would be short. Or would you like to go to New Haven a day or two before going to Albany? It occurred to me that you would like to get the New Haven engagement close to either Pittsburgh or Albany, so as to save the time of an extra trip. You will be at Pittsburgh on Tuesday evening.

Would the following Thursday evening be too close for New Haven?

You know some time ago I talked to you in relation to taking the Presidency of Norwich University, or associating yourself with that institution. The trustees have had a meeting and had the matter under consideration and they are unanimous in the wish to have you connected with it and no doubt they will see you the first opportunity that offers. I hope you will take up the matter with them and give it full consideration. I do not know how much you would be willing to limit your time but I do know that if you can afford to interest yourself in this university it will be a matter, not only of benefit to them but to you also, and I don't think would take up too much of your time. Dear Gen. Howard

We are hoping that you will favor Chattanooga with your presence next September at the time of the dedication of Chickamauga Park, and if so, we would be glad to have you as our guest during your stay here. It seems rather early to be making plans

many as our home will accommodate, and if there whom we first invite can not come then we want to invite others. We also hope that Mrs. Hancock can come with you. Please remember me most

Dear Sir:---

Your favor of the 1st. is at hand. I note your criticism of the manner in which Mr. Odell has expressed himself in regard to some of the Southern leaders, and I presume you are right in the matter. It will be difficult to make the change now, as the first part of the book has all been set and electrotyped. Such a book is almost necessarily a little partial. One side was triumphant and the other not, and we have never counted on any particular sale for the book in the South. It would be very difficult for any man, unless he was a foreigner, to write a book on Grant and Lee which would be equally acceptable in both the North and South. I think Mr. Odell has endeavored to be impartial, and may have erred in correctly interpreting Southern feelings. Do you think that his unintentional partiality has been great enough to impair the value of the book, aside from its popularity with Southern people?

I know it must be very difficult for you to prepare any matter while you are away from home. If it will be possible for you to get the introduction to us any sooner it will be a very great advantage to us. We are pushing the book all we possibly can so as to get it out at the earliest possible minute. It is to be sold by subscription, and we are looking for a great many agents among the students in schools and colleges who work through their Summer vacation. Arrangements with them are being made now, and do the best we can we shall be late in the field to secure the best men, so that every week, and even every day is of importance to us. We had hoped to have the book all complete by the 1st. of May. We shall have everything else ready so that your introduction can be set up and electrotyped the last thing. We shall forward to Burlington, proofs as fast as they come to us from the printers.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir,-

I write to extend you an invitation to speak at our coming anniversary and conference, which occurs May 14th and 15th. Some of our friends are desirous of securing Mr. Moody to speak on that occasion, and yourself. The day sessions of the Conference will be held in the Park Street Church, and if Mr. Moody comes he will probably speak in the Clarendon Street Baptist Church, where his warm, personal friend, Dr. Gordon, preached for twenty-five years. I was present in Brooklyn, N. Y., at the Y. M. C. A., when you, Lord Bennett, Major Whittle, and Mr. Sankey spoke, immediately after Major Whittle's arrival in this country from England. We believe you have not spoken in Boston for a good many years. If you could give that same address that you gave at the Brooklyn Y.M.C.A. Conference, concerning the influence of your sister, ⁹ ~~on~~ think it was, in your conversion, it would be just the thing we would like to hear. Dear Dr. Gordon had it on his mind to give us an address just before his death on woman's work in country churches in our hill towns.

I will send you some of our literature, and hope you will be able to respond favorably after you come to know something of our work. We

Manuscript

Record of Capt. A. S. Jones at the Battle of Clearwater

113

Recruiting Station
34. East 7th Street
St Paul Minn

April 4th 1895.

Maj. Genl. O. O. Howard
Denver, Col.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of Feb 8th 1895, requesting information as to the part I took in the Clearwater fight with reference to a brevet just received. In reply I have the honor to state that I was 1st Lt of "E" Troop 1st Cav. Capt. Wm. H. Winters Comdg, said troop was sent with a howitzer to a prominent point from which it was thought the Indians in the river bottom could be shelled, shortly after starting Capt Winters left the troop, went to Maj. Mason, now Col, and requested him to have some support sent, which was done, Capt George St. Burton's Co. of the 21st Inf. being sent. Before reaching the point designated a citizen rode up to ^{Yim} me and asked if there were soldiers in the cañon ahead, I said no, then he said it is filled with Indians. I halted the troop preparatory to dismounting and deploying when Capt Winters returned and finished what I began, Capt Burton joining on our left. It was then the fight commenced, from that time until the final charge of the 2nd day I did not leave the skirmish line, except a few moments the first night when I went for some crackers and ammunition, I was in every charge including the final charge and went over the bluffs with the right of the troop attached to the left of Capt Miles battalion, In the 3rd charge of the 1st day the right of the troop went half way down into the head of the cañon from whence most of the enfilading fire came doing such damage to our centre and left, having the right I could see from whence the fire came and in a short time had it silenced and my men in possession, the Indians then went to the farther cañon.

Upon my return to the battle field after the final charge I found the troop had been detailed to escort the wounded to Grangerville, Surgeon G. M. Sternberg M. Dept attending.

I should never have written this letter had it not been for the receipt of yours, preferring to do without recognition, as it seemed to me the mention of my name was studiously avoided in 1846, 1847, and in 1848: in Sept 1846 I was sent to the vicinity of Summersville Grande Ronde Valley, to have Finley and McCall indicted for the murder of one of Joseph's Indians, before reaching my destination and while on the summit of the Blue Ridge, I learned from persons fleeing from Nallowa Valley that Joseph had given the citizens until Sunday morning to leave the valley, I made a forced march of over 80 miles in 24 hours arriving there before daylight Sunday morning, and in time to prevent an outbreak. As you may remember I reported at the time I went alone with a guide of miles to where Joseph was with his warriors, I found them well posted on a high ridge, stripped with few exceptions, to the breach of out and in war paint, and ready to commence hostilities, I went alone for the reason I learned from Capt Booth of the Volunteers, that he had hard work to prevent his men from firing into Joseph's camp the night before. had I taken my troop the volunteers would have followed and I felt satisfied we would had an Indian war upon our hands. The citizens who knew the Indians, said I would never return. I thought if I could get to Joseph matters could be adjusted, Before reaching Joseph I was accosted by an Indian, armed and surly who asked what I wanted, I told him, but before leaving me, two others came up into whose charge I was given, one riding on either side, and thus we rode until Joseph sent word that I could see him, I was in danger of being shot at anytime going there and was in more danger than I have ever been in an engagement, Joseph's men were not only well armed but their pieces loaded, and as he said after our interview, now I will throw away the bullets I put in for the whites, at the same time having his men face to the rear and discharging their pieces, showing conclusively that they were on ~~the~~ eve of an outbreak.

The next year at Looking Glass Camp the only advantage derived from that mismanaged affair was the capture of from 1000 to 1200 horses and ponies, which I accomplished with 2nd Lt. C. Shelton 1st Cav. and 20 men, first driving the Indians out of the rocks above us, then surrounding the herd and driving one or two Indians out of it who were evidently about running it off. At this time the remainder of the command was on the opposite bluff, across the cañon out of reach of all support, Passing the old camp I drove the volunteers out of it and destroyed it by burning, the horses were turned over to an officer, designated by you at Mt Idaho.

The next year at the Birch Creek fight in Oregon I was congratulated, in your presence by one of your aids, Lt Wood, just after the fight, thinking he meant the troops, I replied yes they did well, he said yes, but I mean you, In this fight where I charged was the highest point held by the enemy, and most of the Indians remained until we were almost upon them, three jumped from behind the rocks as I rode over them I wounded one, who gave way in his side, dropped his blanket and continued down the mountain. I then turned my attention to another with what success I do not know, the first was found dead after the fight, down the mountain, whether it was my shot from which he died I do not know. Lieut. R. P. Earle 2nd Inf. in whom I had every confidence told me he met you shortly after the above mentioned affair, and that he asked you how Lt. P. P. Bomus 1st Cav did in the fight, you replied I do not remember seeing Lt. Bomus, but that Lt. Forse was most conspicuous or words to that effect. In no order or report that you issued in the years, 1846.-47. or 48. that I saw was my name ever mentioned, the nearest to it was I think in Chief Joseph where, in speaking of the Wallowa trouble of 1846.

you said an officer was sent. I write the above as an expression of my surprise that for some unknown reason my services have been wholly ignored by you, while others were mentioned and brevetted for parts taken in minor engagements.
I have only mentioned those actions in which I was where you were an eye witness, or knew indirectly of the result as the peace with Joseph in 1846, and the captured horses in 1844.

I am Sir

Very respectfully
Your obedient servant
A. G. Force.
