General O.O. Howard, LL.D., etc.

Dear General:

Allow me to thank you for your kind letter, the book, pamphlet, etc. You were very kind to place autograph in "Gastarini." Have not yet had time to read "Gastarini." Have but and am reading "Howard, the Christian Hero." I am greatly interested in it. I am getting ^{to} worshiping this "Hero." Is it wrong to worship a great, good man; or to worship the great and good in him; or is it the God in him?

To study, to love, to revere such a character makes us higher and nobler and better.

You are lifting me up, giving me a nobler, a higher ambition; a more earnest desire to be good and do good.

FLAVER S. THOMAS, M. D.,

I shall put a copy of "Howard"
and "Isabelle" in our ^{copy} library. Hank put "Donald" in.

I intend to buy your other works as fast as I get time to read them. Shall certainly buy "Henry,"
as soon as it is in print.

It seems strange to me that Harvard has not made you an LL.D. I feel sure that she would if her attention was called to
it. Should be most glad to suggest it to Harvard if you would not object. There can be no question as to your worth.

I send you two numbers of "Education" containing an educational article which may interest you.
In it I give some of my ideas
on the honorary degree question.

I should be very, very glad to hear from you again if it is not asking too much. Yours, Flavel S. Thomas.

My dear General Howard;

In compliance with your request, to-day received, we forward two copies of the July HOME MISSIONARY. I also inclose the latest statement of our "Facts and Figures" for the last year, together with a leaflet, on the third and fourth pages of which will be found some facts that will doubtless be helpful. You will be pleased to know that the number of subscribers to the Roll of Honor has reached 125. The circular letters of appeal have been delayed by a fire which occurred in the publishing house which is doing the work for us; but we look for them this week, and we believe that when those are issued the response will be more general.

Sincerely yours,

Dear General Homsey:

In some instances with whom I have met, so far removed,
as to warrant two copies of the THE HOME MISSIONARY. I also propose the fastest delivery of one "Note and Pictures" for the first issue.
together with a copy, or the first and third parts of which will be found some time first will answer all purposes of publicity. You will be pleased to know that this number of prospectuses to the Hall of Honor has reached 152. The original letters of the best have been joined the work for us; but we look for from this week, and we hope five per month those who respond will be more generous.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Brewster
