Dear General:-

I hope that you have returned from your lecturing tour, and are once more resting with your loved ones at home. I trust that your trip has been successful in every sense of the word. I would have written to you after receiving your letter of the 13th of Novr., but I was afraid that you would be moving from place to place, that the letters would be simply chasing you about.

First of all I want to thank you for your letter from Crawfordsville and its contents. May the Lord bless you for it. I have been to see Mrs. Upham, but on each occasion found her out and at last left your letter with the girl who given to her. I understood that she had gone to Phila. to spend a few days. I have just written to her to arrange for an interview which I hope and pray will result in the planning of ways and means to accomplish our purpose of securing a Missionary visitor for our Camp Mission work.

Our work here is doing very nicely. On Thursday night this week our Congregation meets for the purpose of passing resolutions authorizing our Trustees to bring about a more fraternal relationship between this Church and the Church Extension Society. I will send you a copy of the resolutions and memorandum of the compact in a day or two. I am sure that whatever is for the interest of Camp Chapel work and will help it onward has your sympathy and approval. Dr. Stimson has shown us in the past weeks a very cordial and helpful spirit, and the old idea of transference of the

My dear Rev. Howard,

I have ordered a half
 doz. copies of the Frier Lawrence sent to the address you gave; and would gladly increase the number, not fear your "Grip" may not be capacious enough to hold more

It was because I found in you some of the soulful characteristics of Frier Lawrence that I dared pass the tiny pamphlet over into the hands of a man!

Will you please tell me if it really gave you ~~pleas~~ me? It is one of my chief comforters and helpers in every day living.

Will remember you
with love - servants as well as the family;
and this night to make you feel more than you do that life is really worth living - if you can thus give and encourage other souls.

Most sincerely and appreciatively yours, also with regards from my

Dear Sir:

About the time of your retirement from active service you requested that your War Records be held until you could give a permanent address. You are on the list for two sets, and it has occurred to me that you may have transferrdd one of them to some member of your old staff or other person. If such should be the case, and it will be any convenience to you to have it sent direct from this office, it will afford me great plaasure to see that it is done, if you will kindly send name and address to this office.

Volume 46, Parts 1, 2, and 3, and several parts of the Atlas, are now ready to mail to you, and I remain,

ARIZONA INDIANS AND MISSIONS.

Los Angeles Express
They Are Being Studied by Mrs. Crane, the Authoress.

Col. L. P. Crane of the City Health Officer's office, has returned from Arizona, where he has been for a few days. Col. Crane went to the Territory with his wife, Mrs. Crane, an authoress of considerable distinction, who will spend some little time gathering material for a new book on Arizona, which will treat principally of the Indians and the old missions.

Mrs. Crane is better known in the literary world as Alice Rollins, a writer of bright stories and poems. Many of her works are incomplete. Among these is a reply to Helen Hunt Jackson's "Ramona" and "Amorean." She has decided, however, to leave these half finished and devote her energies to the completion of the interesting work on which she is now engaged.

The Indians of Arizona, their customs and traditions, have never yet been fully studied and written of by an able, impartial writer, and Mrs. Crane's forthcoming book on the many tribes of the Territory, as well as on the old crumbling adobe missions, built by the Indians under the supervision of the early Spanish pioneers who faced the manifold dangers and hardships of a wild country to promulgate Christianity, will be very interesting indeed.

Mrs. Crane left the San Carlos reservation the other day for the White mountains, accompanied by Captain Jeffords, who is perhaps better acquainted with the inner life of the Indians of Arizona than any other white man in the Territory. She will not return to Los Angeles for some little time.

Dear sir.

This morning I mailed to your address papers which will be more of an introduction than I can give myself to you in a letter. I have just returned from Apache land after five weeks with your old friend Captain Jeffords, and I assure you I am interested in making your acquaintance personally for the Captain holds you above all other men for honor and bravery, and I want to know more of such a man as he described to me, I had my Kodak with me and I took some excelent pictures of the stronghold on the west side you will see why I did not take any on the East side when you read the papers, I will be glad to send you some of the photo's also one of the Captain, which I persuaded him to have taken for me to use in my book, these pictures I have copyrighted but you are welcome to use them of course giving me the credit of them as I also wish to use them, I have a splendid one of what Capt, told me was the rock where you and Cochise stood when peace was declared and one of the interior of what he called the Cathedral &c I do not want to risk sending these until I hear from you for fear you have changed your address and they might misseary, Capt Overton a retired army officer gave me your address but I wish to hear from you personally and hear what you think of my adventure with your old friends & I am in possession of the Apache Chericahouas. I hope to go with Captain Jeffords to Fort Cill to see the Apache prisoners there within the next year to get further information from them through him. The Captain has written a letter to you and gave it in my charge to send it to you but as I said before I shall wait until I hear if I have the right address before I send it. Now General we ought to be kindred spirits in the Indian question as we have both had such rare opportunities for studying the question and I do wish you would give me a little of what I know is valuable time and tell me something of your experiences while with the Captain I shall appreciate it so much, and I shall wait impatiently the advent of your book to public gaze, and General have you got a spare number of the magazine in which you have written about Captain Jeffords, he could not remember what magazine it was in or what year I should so much like to see it or them. excuse me for writing so frankly but I feel as I can do so with you and not be misunderstood as I know you to be a brave broad generous man and General and you were kind to my good old friend the poor noble hearted misguided Captain he has been a loyal friend and my lately departed son loved the dear old man we found him so truthful honorable and honest. Please answer me as soon as you can conveniently, as I shall expect it. My husband <sup>was</sup> is an regular army Col was in the civil war, and he is a Vermonter, he is my second husband. Do you expect to come to California this coming year?
