matter to me, nor have I mentioned it to him. He knows nothing through me, or anyone else so far as I know of my recommendation. But when I hear of medals of Honor being awarded for personal gallantry and daring I cannot avoid feeling that Baird's conduct was as conspicuous an instance of such conduct as any that occurred during the war.
All his official superiors are dead, and I feel that it is a duty of those having personal knowledge of the facts should give their testimony in his favor. I hope you will consider the matter, and if you deem it a worthy cause that you will write to that effect to the War Department.

Sincerely yours

Dear General:

I have recently written to the War Department a recommendation that a Medal of Honor be awarded to General Abraham Baird, Retired for his personal gallantry and daring at the Battle of Sharpsburg, Ga Sept 14 1864. You were an eyewitness to the assault on the rebel works at that point by Maginn's

Division, my Division and a Brigade of Baird's Division, all of the ^{1st} 44th Army Corps, and I remember hearing at the time, that you expressed great admiration of the gallantry displayed. The facts so far as they relate to Baird are as follows: My Division had assaulted and taken the rebel intrenchments under a heavy fire from the enemy and had captured Gordon's Brigade. But a reinforcement of rebels had come up and retaken a part of the line. At that stage Baird was ordered by Genl Jeff C. Davis commanding the 14th Corps to send any his Brigade to support me. Promptly sending the Brigade he came with it, took it in line and moved forward with it at the signal of his line on his knee, encouraged the men under an extremely hot fire from the enemy and retaken the line and drove the enemy away, after which the fallen retreated and gave us the position. His victory gave us ~~the position~~ which was abandoned by them as soon as he heard from Fremont.

I was near Baird all the time and was struck with admiration at his gallant and daring conduct, which was entirely voluntary, for he was not directed or expected to lead his Brigade in the battle, he being in command of a Division. Genl Baird has never mentioned this

My dear General:

I received your letter of Jan. 29. in which you suggest the possibility of being sent as a delegate to the Republican Convention from Vermont. I hope you will go and stand for Mr Reed. My heart is set on his nomination. I wonder if I can be of any service in promoting your interest this way. You suggest that if sent you should endeavor to voice the sentiments of your constituents. Now I am sure Vermont with the rest of New England will be solid for Reed.

The Boston Journal as you know is interested for Mr Reed, and must do much toward crystallizing opinion in your state. The managing Editor is a personal friend of mine. I wonder if an editorial comment that Genl Howard is talked of as a delegate in Vermont or would make a strong delegate or some thing of that sort might not set people to thinking or help matters along - Do you mind my dropping the Editor a hint?

Yours Very Sincerely

Edgar O. Achorn

Dear General

I am sending you today invitations to my marriage, I am a son of Nelson S. Jordan and Susan Sweetser of North Yarmouth, who knew you when attending school in Yarmouth, and I was named for you and Gen. Hammond. I have seen you several times on the train and at Yarmouth over a year ago, but never had the opportunity of meeting you to make myself personally known. I was born June 17th 1864 and am very proud of you and my name.

Hoping this my first letter to you will find enjoying the best of health and all this world can give any of us. I am.

Yours very truly,
Howard H. Jordan.

Dear Cousin - After sending off your Lists of soldiers it occurred to me that I did not see the name of Duane S. Wing on the list. - he was in the Navy I know. because I enlisted him - is now living. - Your Father will remember him.

Yours Respectfully
