Mr. Cyrus Kehr,

Dear Mr. Kehr:-

If it does not interfere with the Chicago University arrangements, I should say: make a trial of the Dakota offer. I think the terms, one-half net receipts satisfactory, if they will guarantee me at least $75 per lecture. This would not be reducing our usual price for single lectures, as they arrange for three.

I will accept the offer of Werner Co. and furnish condensed article as the firm suggest, for 8,000 words, possibly overrunning 3,000^{200,00} from necessity, for $350. This as soon as it is possible for me to prepare them accurately, commencing at once when I have the data and then work ^{till} as you need me, in Michigan March 20th. Please send place and subject for lecture there, addressing me "c/o Gen. E. Whittlsey, 15th and New York Ave., Washington, D. C." for which place I will leave here to-morrow. I have wired you this date my acceptance of Werner's offer and favoring the Dakota trip. Tell Lawyer Pierson that I have proof that the Texas member-elect who was a contestant, was not opposed by Mr. Reed in the manner which he stated.

Very Truly Yours, O. O. Howard

I have received your telegram of to day from New York City. Have accordingly written to Rev. I. P. Patch regarding the proposed lecture engagements for South Dakota in behalf of the Redfield College. I hardly expect him to make the guaranty of $75 for each lecture; but I do not think it would be advisable to make a better offer.

Let me suggest, ^{Yours truly,} that, if you have not already done so, that you definitely secure your copy-rights from the National Tribune while you are in Washington. I speak of this now because I believe the Werner Company may be a good concern to publish your Memoirs;

Could you not, General, give us something bearing upon the subject? You could choose the topic most congenial to you, treat it in your own way, and have an audience extending over the entire country. Your recent lecture, in Baltimore, on "The Future of Warfare," gives me additional encouragement in the idea that you have "your hand in" on war reminiscences just now. Of such is history made. Head Quarters Capt. Colwell Post 201 G.A.R.
Carlisle Pa. March 5th 1896

At a regular meeting held this evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted

Resolved That we are indebted to General O.O. Howard for his admirable lecture "Thomas in Campaign and battle" delivered in the Court House on the 28th of February for the benefit of this Post. To a crowded and enthusiastic house he clearly demonstrated the fraternal love borne in the breast of every true soldier in his beautiful tribute to that great and good man. We are pleased to note that the reception given General Howard and General Fitzhugh Lee at the Indian School was largely attended and that the members of this Post were not only glad to meet the Veteran who selected the field on which the battle of Gettysburg was fought but were extremely gratified to welcome their old antagonist who opposed them on many a hotly contested field with the same gallantry and heroism with which he accepted the results of the war and who became Governor of his native state Virginia and after the lapse of over thirty years has honored them with a visit.

This sentiment is universally approved by our citizens and his former friends

The engagement at Platteville, Wis. is for Friday,
March 27.

After consultation with your brother and on his advice, I made the offer to the Werner Co. for $500. I submitted a letter yesterday, and shall probably have an answer in a day or two. It is my belief that they will accept the offer as it stands; yet they may make a lower offer or may write to you directly endeavoring to get better terms. My suggestion is that you refer them back to me. Both the man who has the charge of the encyclopoedia revision and Mr.Belford, who has general charge of the publication department, seem to appreciate what your sketches will be, and I think they will pay a good price. Your brother thinks that I should hold to the $500.

When I called on the Werner Co. before, I only met the encyclopoedia reviser, and I stated to him that you were preparing to write your memoirs. Yesterday he said that he had spoken to Mr.Belford and that the latter wished to see me.

From Mr.Belford I learned that they are the publishers of John Sherman's Memoirs and are just now getting out General Miles' Recollections. The mechanical work on both of these books

Answering yours of the 8th inst., we are much pleased that General Howard will deliver the Memorial Day address on May 24. Accordingly we will make arrangements.

Pardon me for expressing the hope that I entertain^{ed} that his charge would be less in view of the fact that it is in the interest of Memorial Day, and no charge made to those who attend. We fully realize that General Howard's time and address is worth even more than he asks, and I express my hope only because we are somewhat cramped financially.

If you think best to call General Howard's attention to this statement, do so; otherwise, let the matter stand as it is. Our Grand Army men and other citizens express much delight at the prospect of hearing General Howard.

Will take up the coinage matter at another time. One thing you forgot and that is that it would take several years to re-coin our silver and at vast expense, and it is, in fact, entirely impracticable. And another fact is that sixteen to one is probably as near the world rate as we will ever come and is better than any other that has ever been tried, and that the market price of silver ought not to be considered in the case.

With respects to General and Mrs. Whittlesey and to your family, one and all, as ever,

Affectionately,

C. H. Howard

P. S. Since writing this letter I have heard of the death of Mrs. Burgess, the wife of our acting pastor at Glencoe.

Gen'l. O. O. Howard,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Brother:

I have your letter without date, but which was mailed March 15th. I will not undertake to answer it in full today, but am very glad to know you are to be here on the 20th. I do not know precisely the date of your appointment, nor where it is, but will learn from Mr. Kern.

There are some important business matters pending here in Chicago for you.

Will take up the coinage matter at another time. One thing you forgot and that is that it would take several years to re-coin our silver and at vast expense, and it is, in fact, entirely impracticable. And another fact is that sixteen to one is probably as near the world rate as we will ever come and is better than any other that has ever been offered, and that the market price of silver ought not to be considered in the case.

With respects to General and Mrs. Whittlesey and to your family one and all, as ever,

Affectionately,

O. O. Howard
