Washington DC
June 1-1896

Major Genl Howard

My dear Friend

I was very much disappointed that I did not see you when you were in Washington.

I am sorely disappointed in the fate of my pension bill. It came up before the House, last Friday night - a week. It was the victim of a political encounter between the Chairman of the pension committee Mr Pickler and Mr Blair of Kansas. It was on showing favor to officials widows as against the private widows however it was my bill was set down to what I am already receiving $30. per month and the only one on the calendar that was treated in like manner.

Mr Gallinger who has charge of the bill in the Senate is going to have a conference on the bill. I very much need additional evidence as to my husbands service and I believe a letter from you giving such information as to General Boughton's service would help me with the Congress. I know no one in Congress who knew my Husband

do you know any one who could use a letter from you
to my advantage.

I have <sup>never</sup> needed a friend more than I do now. It seems impossible to get any measure
through Congress on its merits
I will send you the Report of the Senate and House Committee
I thought after the bill had passed through the Senate and the Committee of the House it would at least pass for ~~thirty~~
fifty but it was cut to thirty.
It does seem queer that I should be singled out among the many bills that have gone through this session and my report is the only one that shows
long continued illness as the result of service. I hope I may have the pleasure of seeing you. Respectfully
L A Boughton

Maj-Gen. O. O. Howard, U.S.A.,
Burlington, Vt.

Dear Sir, You may be aware that Hon. Isaac Henry Wing, who was Roland's roommate, was prevented from graduating with his class (of 1856), after pursuing the course into our Senior year, by reason of ill health, requiring a sea-voyage. Geo. R. Williamson and I (both now of this city) have set on foot a movement to have the degree of A.M. conferred upon Mr. Wing at the approaching commencement, with the insertion of his name in its place in our class, in future catalogues, precisely as was done with Albert Smith Rice (also of our class of '56) a few years ago, under exactly the same circumstances.

121

My understanding is that you are familiar with his military and civic services, his high position socially and in business, not only in Wisconsin but throughout the North-West, the liberal manner in which he disburses a large fortune for public and charitable objects, and the cultivation that extensive travel in this country and abroad had added to literary knowledge; - hence, we assume that, if present at the Commencement this month, your voice and vote would favor the proposed recognition of his merits; but if you are not sure to be there, would you kindly send me some expression of your favorable opinion?

Gen. Hubbard will present the resolution, and Chief Justice Fuller, who has known Mr. Wing from their boyhood, will support it. These are the only ones I have seen; and I thought, if your commendation were added, there would need nothing more. I trust you will feel disposed to signify it.

Very respectfully and truly,
Yours,

Edwin B. Smith,

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARIES, CHITTY'S PLEADINGS, ETC.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., June 1, 189 6

General Oliver O. Howard,

Dear Sir:- Your esteemed favor of the 29th ult. is at hand. Following the suggestion of our recent letter we take pleasure in presenting to you with our compliments a copy of Webster's International Dictionary, which we trust will find a useful place in your private library.

The book is a revision of our "Unabridged" so thorough and complete as to constitute an essentially new book from cover to cover, being the product of more than ten years of active work by a numerous editorial staff.

The principle of the revision was the scholarly, scientific perfecting and modernizing of the work in every detail. Like the earlier Webster, the International is still a popular dictionary--in comparison with encyclopedic works--the steadfast aim being to exclude all merely sensational features and to approach as nearly as possible to the ideal of a dictionary at once scholarly and popular, comprehensive and condensed. The methods and scope of the work are quite clearly set forth in the Publishers' Statement at the back part of the book, to which we invite attention.

We should be glad to know that the book, which is sent by prepaid express, reaches you safely, and to receive a brief expression of your opinion of it if you are disposed to favor us with a few lines.

Very respectfully and truly yours,

G. & C. Merriam Co.

It is my judgment my degree
will live or die in the Committee, i. e.
the Committee's action will be confirmed by the Board. Having this in view,
I wish you would be kind enough
to confer with one or more members of the Committee before they assemble.
That is what a favorable ~~and~~ strong argument will do the most good.

I send to-day by American Express a box containing 500 window hangers, 7 electrotypes, one volume of Personal Reminiscences of the War by H.W. Bolton, one volume of Fremont's Memoirs, two volumes of Sheridan's Memoirs, and the encyclopoedia manuscript which you left to be submitted to the Werner Co. I have tried several times to see Mr. Belford but have so far failed, and as I do not think he would care for the manuscript, I enclose it in the box.

The window hangers cost a trifle over 1-2 cent each. This makes $2.50 for the 500. The seven electrotypes are worth $1.00 each.

My dear General:-

Allow me to in-

trude so far as to state that I fear you may have misinterpreted my request, and to explain that it is not a political article I wish, but merely a short expression of opinion as to what you believe to be the first step necessary to be taken by our next President, toward the relief of the long felt depression. Ever so brief an item would be most acceptable.

I trust you will pardon my again making the request, if you fully understood my first letter. I do not mean to be aggressive. I assure you I am most anxious to have a word from you, as I am confident your opinion would have great weight with your many friends and admirers throughout the country.
