

Dear General Howard, We met tomorrow at General Sickles house to decide upon the address to be issued. I was directed to make the first draft. This is the result. We shall be glad to receive any suggestions as to needed changes. May we append your name as one of the signers?

The Union Veterans' National Non-Partisan Committee

Major-General DANIEL E. SICKLES U. S. Army.
Chairman.

General HORACE PORTER, Vice-Chairman.
L. EDWIN DUDLEY, Secretary.

NEW YORK, August 1896.

AN ADDRESS

To the surviving soldiers and sailors who served in the Union Army and Navy during the war of the Rebellion;

COMRADES—Your country is again in danger! Unholy combinations of self-seeking politicians again threaten the integrity of the Government of the United States. Ambitious and selfish men conspire to bring dishonor and financial ruin upon the people of this Nation once saved by your valor.

Should this revolutionary and dangerous conspiracy succeed, every pensioner will lose one-half the value of his pension money. Every depositor in our savings banks will lose one-half the value of his deposit. Every policy holder in our insurance companies will lose one-half the value of his policy. The price of everything which the working man buys will be doubled at once; but he will struggle and wait long before he secures any substantial increase of his wages. The interests of the people in Savings Banks, in Co-operative Banks, in Building and Loan Associations, in Insurance Companies and Associations, especially in the Assessment Insurance Societies are most dangerously threatened.

But it is not material loss alone which influences true patriots. Even the poorest of our people can endure a mere money loss and make but little complaint. The men who answered the call of Abraham Lincoln to put down rebellion and save the Union, love the country which they defended against treason and rebellion, they love the glorious flag bearing the Stars and Stripes which they followed from Sumter to Appomattox.

The glorious Stars and Stripes symbolizes, to those who offered their lives in its defence, a country united and powerful, respected at home, honored the world over for its power, its justice, and still more for its integrity, honesty and especially for its fair dealing with friend and foe.

Comrades, you believe in liberty under law; in public order; in National honor and good faith. You are opposed to the red flag of anarchy, you condemn mob law and all movements to overturn law and order. You believe that your services and sacrifices made this a nation. We believe that you resent with earnestness all attacks upon the Executive and Judicial departments of our government for suppressing mobs and riots. We believe that you commend the measures which vindicated the supremacy of the law and restored public order wherever it was endangered.

Feeling assured that in this crisis the Union Veterans of the late war are almost unanimously united in favor of an honest government and a faithful adherence to the principles for which we contended upon so many hard-fought fields, we appeal to you to lay aside all partisan differences, to prefer your country to your party now as you did in the dark days of the Civil War, and rally to the support of our gallant Comrade, Major McKinley, who stood shoulder to shoulder with you in those great battles and for two long years carried his musket and shared the toil and danger which fell to the lot of those who defended the Union as private soldiers.

Sincerely Yours
L. Edwin Dudley

Major McKinley is a comrade tried and true. He stands for the principles for which you so freely exposed your lives and for which so many thousands of your comrades died on battlefields, in fever-infected camps and in prison pens. Major McKinley is honest, law-abiding and full of courage for the right. His heart always beats warmly for the Union and for his comrades who saved it from its armed enemies.

We feel that the country is again in the presence of a great danger, we feel that it is the duty of the men who saved it before to rally to its defence now. Therefore, we urge you to form yourselves into associations to be known as "McKinley Veteran Guards." Whenever there are ten veterans let them form themselves into a squad, and do all that in them lies to influence their neighbors and friends to stand for McKinley and the right. Each five of these squads to become a company; five companies to constitute a battalion. Two or three battalions to make a regiment and two or more regiments a brigade. Three or more regiments a division. The guards of each state in the Union shall be an army corps.

Many of our great leaders have been mustered out—Grant, Sherman, Sherman, McClellan, Thomas, Hancock, Burnside, Granger, Garfield, Logan, Dix and many others have gone to their reward. We have no doubt that were they living they would each and all be united with us in this crisis as they were in the days of the war. It remains for us, their comrades, who followed where they led, to complete the good work they upheld while living and to preserve all they helped us gain for our country.

We ask you to unite without reference to your past party affiliations. Come together in non-partisan associations as you did in those other days.

The sons of the fathers who followed the flag through the terrible series of battles that intervened between Sumter and Appomattox should defend the blessings secured to them by the services, the sufferings and the valor of their sires. Therefore we invite all Sons of Veteran sires to unite with us in this campaign against National honor and disgrace.

The mothers, sisters, wives and daughters of the men who saved the Union are interested in securing the preservation of all that we gained by the sufferings, sacrifices and labors of their kinsmen. We therefore ask them to form associations and to labor with us to secure the triumph of justice and right. We appeal to you, comrades, to do all in your power to prevent the triumph of the combination of men who would trample in the dust all that you fought for during that four years of bloody strife to the end that it shall not be said that our comrades who fell, died in vain.

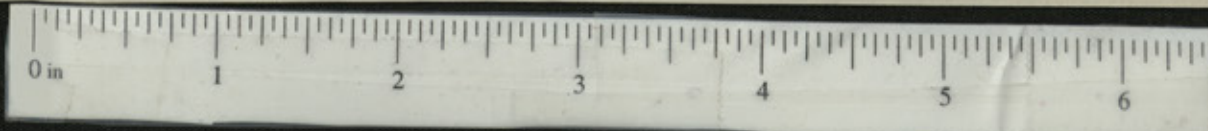

We have no unkind words to speak with regard to those who, under a mistaken sense of duty, contended against us upon the battle field. It is often said that the men who wore the gray are now as loyal, and love the country and its glorious flag as much as we who defended the Union and the Stars and Stripes on land and sea. The present is a glorious opportunity for them to manifest their affection for the magnificent government secured to them by your efforts; and to make manifest their love for the old flag, the symbol of our liberties and of our National life.

We shall always be glad to welcome all who are willing to stand with us in defence of the National honor, the integrity of the Government and the glorious flag of the United States of America.

We urge every veteran, son of veteran and female relative of a veteran to send his or her address to our Secretary at

Yours in comradeship and love of our country and its glorious flag.

CONDITIONS.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission. In any event, this Company is not to be held liable for any loss, or damage, or for delay, or detention, or errors caused by storms or action of the elements, or other acts of God, or by civil or military authority, or by insurrections, riots, rebellions, or dangers incident to time of war, or by the unlawful acts of individuals.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

My dear Genl:-

I have your letter of the 30th of July. I am delighted to know you will come to Maine. I shall assign you for twelve speeches commencing Monday, August 24th, four speeches a week, closing Saturday, September 12th. I will notify you in a few days at what points. You can do us great good in Maine, and we shall need all the aid we can get. I have written to the National Committee. I have no doubt you will shortly hear from Genl Clayton, who has the speakers in charge and that he will make an arrangement with you using you in Vermont, before our campaign commences, then in Maine, and then in other sections of the country, as you and he may agree.

I am, Sincerely yours,

My dear Sir

I have your letter of the 27th of July. I am delighted to hear from you and will soon be able to answer you in more detail. I am sorry that I cannot do so at present, but I will write to you again as soon as I am able. I am very much interested in the work you are doing and hope to be able to help you in some way. I am sure that your work is of great value to the community and I am glad to hear that you are doing so much for it. I am sure that you will be able to do much more in the future and I am sure that you will be able to do so in a way that will be of great benefit to the community. I am sure that you will be able to do so in a way that will be of great benefit to the community. I am sure that you will be able to do so in a way that will be of great benefit to the community.

Dear Sir and Mother

Your kind note, and kinde-ly wishes came duly to hand. I thank you.

I send in response a copy of my Book: "Natu-al Life," etc. It will surprise and possibly pain you, though I hope not. The theologia world is at sea on the Eschatologic question. Its confusion arises mainly from its failure to discern that there are to be (at the Coming "new Heavens" as well as a "new earth". If possible, please give me a dispassionate reading.

I have no doubt but that the Mystics, like Fraunet, Swedenborg, Totten, etc hold a great truth.
I am unfortunate in being almost totally destitute of the mathematical faculty so that I cannot follow and assimilate them.

Yours faithfully

My dear General:-

I fear you will think that we are very unappreciative of the kind invitation you and Mrs. Howard gave to this family so long ago to be your guests at the meeting of the Society of the Army of the Potomac in Burlington in September; but I beg to assure you that we are very grateful to you in spite of appearances. I deferred a reply in the hope that we might see a way to acceptance. The "lions" seem to multiply and we have reluctantly come to the conclusion that
