Dear Sir,

We have in our town a free public library, entirely unendowed and wholly supported by voluntary contributions. It has been established at considerable sacrifice on the part of a few. It is still very small, containing about eight hundred volumes.

We are trying to raise some money by lectures. Would you give ~~give~~ a lecture or address some evening this fall in our town-hall, for the library's benefit?

Inches 1 2 3 4 5 6

You would not need to make any elaborate preparation, for we should enjoy hearing anything which you might have to say. We are glad to have you in our state and anything which you could do for us we should very fully appreciate.

Of course we should pay your expenses and see that you were comfortably cared for while here.

Trusting that you will not consider me too presumptuous in asking so much,

I am most respectfully yours,

J. Wesley Miller.

My Dear Sir-

In arranging my articles for further use in religious papers during the year 1897 I would like to include one by you on some topic of present and general religious interest, such, for example, as "Religion in the Home," or

"Religion Work for Young Men," or "Battlefields of Deceit". Will you furnish me an article on one of these topics sometime during the year 1897? I would like the article to contain about 1800
words, for which I will pay $25.

General O. O. Howard

Dear Brother in Christ:

As I well know the interest you take in my personal welfare since I was converted at the Chrystie Street Mission and thanking you for what you have already done in my behalf, especially for the efforts you made for me last year when I wished to go to Germany, I write to inform you that I have received notification that my dear mother died about a year ago.

There is an estate coming to me, a little larger than I expected and I am glad to say that I am now in a position to go over and arrange the settlement of the same, for which I Thank God with all my heart.

I propose to sail from here on Octob. 13th (Bremer Lloyd), but I have however a favor to ask you dear Brother in Christ before I go and that is I should like you to write me a letter of introduction to the American Consul General in Frankfurt of Main, as I may need his assistance as an American Citizen, in my business matters.

I shall also go to Berlin to visit the grave of my dear Mother, and should like to have a letter of introduction to the Consul there.

Also, if you know any friends from America who are staying in Wiesbaden, or could give me the name of the pastor of the American Colony there I should be greatly obliged so that I may obtain my spiritual food and keep up my connection with the church.

I am sorry to intrude upon your time, which I know is so valuable, but I know you will be willing to do what you can regarding the matters I have mentioned, if I ask you to do so in our dear masters name.

In writing my letter of introduction you will kindly remember that my full name is:
Ernest L. Ruchs-Schreiber. as Colonel J. E. Bryant from Mount Vernon explained to you previously. I have a position since June last year in the:
Harlem River R.R. Freight Office.

Upon my return to this country I shall make a point of paying you a visit in Burlington to talk over

Guilford, Maine,
Sept. 30, 1896.

Gen. G. O. Howard.

My dear Cousin, -

I see that you are advertised to speak at Abbott Wednesday, Sept. 7. Abbott joined Guilford and my sister, Mrs. C. F. Hudson, and my nephew, Henry Hudson, requested me to write and invite you to stop with us during your stay here -

Henry told me to tell you to leave the train at Guilford, and he will either carry or send you to Abbott in season for your meeting. We are all "wicked" Democrats but you won't mind that, I guess. If you will det we know at what time you will arrive, we will have a carriage there to take you to the house - In case you do not know exactly on what train you will be here, you will find a public carriage at the Station and you can tell them to carry you to Henry Hudson's - My sister and I live in the house with Henry - Dr. Eccleston spoke here Saturday Evening - Henry brought him over to the house to-day. He's a wonderfully well-preserved man - I hope this will reach you all right.

Yours truly

doing such valiant service for Sound Government:--

Gentlemen:--

As a private citizen, and a native of that loyal state of Pennsylvania, I wish you a hearty welcome and God speed in this your noble and patriotic pilgrimage throughout these western states at this time.

To you, gentlemen, and your comrades in arms, among whom must be included three brothers of mine, uncles (one of whom was within a few feet of General Howard when the General lost his arm) and cousins to the number of fifteen, must be ascribed the honor and credit of preserving to us, the younger ones of this generation, this beautiful Republic left to us intact, besides which there is none other to compare--this country so gloriously set and upheld in the midst of a great Christian people.

Referring to your comrades, the scenes now transpiring around us by reason of your presence in our midst, gives us an opportunity to see in the hearts of the Old Veterans that spark, which like the "burning coals upon the altar never allowed to go out"; rekindled by reason of the "reports" heard now upon the very outposts of our now sound and stable Government.

Your comrades are fast disappearing beneath that hand which has in the past so well guarded and guided this nation, and which will in these latter days see to it that it loses none of its prestige, and of Him who ruleth all things well do we invoke that blessing which shall crown your declining years so as that when the final "reveille" has sounded you shall triumphantly march into the presence of Him who when He commands all shall unquestionably obey, and there receive the final reward, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

May you, gentlemen, be permitted without interruption to
