"OBJECT OF THE GUILD

"To maintain, define and defend literary property and advance the interests of American authors and literature."

New York, November sixth 1896.

My dear General:

Do you happen to remember anything about General McClellan's war horse which he rode from Shiloh to Atlanta, and did you own any charger during the war that could be called celebrated? If so, kindly give me a few particulars concerning both animals, that I may introduce them in an article entitled "Famous War Horses," in which I shall describe Grant's, Lee's, Sheridan's, and other celebrated horses.

I trust that you are none the worse for your service in the political campaign which has terminated so gloriously.

Very faithfully yours

My Dear Sir.-

On the 10th. inst., the Trustees of Norwich University have an important duty to perform in the election of an active President. The circumstances of the College make it absolutely necessary that a wise choice be made.

Two names have been suggested for the position. The Rev. I. P. Booth and the Rev. A. D. Brown of Brattleboro, an Episcopalian clergyman, an ex-Professor in the U.S. Naval Academy, a retired Commander of the U.S. Navy, a gentleman fifty-three years of age and one who has a wide acquaintance among influential people.

Mr. Brown seems to be an ideal man for the position and just the man to place our College on a splendid footing. If you agree with me in this respect will you kindly sign the enclosed proxy and return it at once ?

Yours very truly.

Signed, George Nichols.

My dear General

It has long been my intention to write to you, but somehow, or other, I got prevented to do so, but I feel I must not let your birthday pass, without sending to you, my heartiest wishes for your happiness and your good health, praying the Lord to grant you many happy returns of the day. -

From the newspapers, you had the kindness to send to us from time to time, (many thanks) I saw, that you were very busy during the campaign just ended. Vermont stood in the front rank in defence of the good cause. But I suppose besides feeling elated over the splendid victory won, you must be glad the same is accomplished at last. Though the final result was never seriously in doubt it was nevertheless a great strain on everybody and business had almost come to a standstill. -

In consequence of the hard times, my firm with which I have been since 12 years is going out of business on January 1st next, but I hope if business will revive now, as confidently expected, I shall soon find some other occupation.
