27 TREMONT ROW,

Dear O Howard

Boston, Oct 16 1891

My dear General

I forgot in my letter yesterday to ask you if you would care to have it announced in the Boston papers that you were a candidate for Minister to Turkey.
I don't think it is known generally. I might do something in that way to give you a send off and the announcement here might create comment in the newspapers else where -

Yours in haste

AT TESTAMENT NOW

Boston, Oct 11 1891

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the will of the late John A. Smith. I am sorry to hear that you are unable to find the original of the same. I have been unable to locate it either. I am sorry to hear that you are unable to find the original of the same. Gen. O. O. Howard

Dear Friend,
You will doubtless be surprised to receive a letter from me, but I take the liberty of writing you at this time, in behalf of my Son, Roy Foss, who is now at Vallejo, Cal.
He is quite desirous of obtaining a position in the Navy Yard at Mare Island, He has already made application, and thinks if you would be so kind as to give him letter of recommendation to some Officer connected with Navy Yard, it would be of great assistance to him in obtaining a situation there, I can recommend him as a steady good principled young man, and I should esteem it a great favour to myself and son, if you would kindly interest yourself in his behalf,

Please give my kind regards to Mrs Howard

Sincerely Yours

Caroline Lathrop Foss,

desirable - You certainly earned favorable consideration by the President for any position you might desire.

While in Washington my wife got a copy of a special order by the War Dept, dated March 3rd, ordering me to take station at the U. S. Powder Depot at Dover N. J. - relieving Col Whittemore, but she was fortunate in having an opportunity to let the Chief of Ordnance know that I do not wish to move, and he had the order revoked - The principal objection is that I would have to rent quarters for my family in the little village of Dover, and I understand that no good houses are obtainable - also the injury to the education of my children.

March 16th 1897

Dear General.

I am loath to impose on your good will which has often heretofore been exhibited in my behalf - and in the present instance there is no desire on my part to request any action unless entirely in consonance with your feelings and judgement in the matter, and then only when convenient and agreeable to you.

The Washington news today says that Gen Alger has taken the subject of awards of Medals of Honor entirely out of the hands of the Assistant Secretary and attends to it himself after recommendations in each case from General Miles - the time seems favorable therefore for requesting reconsideration of the recommendations made in my case -

I enclose a copy of one from surviving Officers of my Volunteer Regiment (the 94th N.Y.) for distinguished bravery at Fredericksburg - the omission of the word "Most." seems to have caused Mr Doe to decline issuing a medal.

The Captain who presented the petition evidently disagreed with Mr Doe as you will see from the copy of his reply enclosed - and did not feel disposed to circulate an amended petition to the signers who are scattered from Dan to Beersheba.

Even if not sufficiently strong to meet the views of the War Department so as to secure the issue of a medal or two it can do no harm to call General Alger's and General Miles' attention to the fact that my record is (in part, at least) on file in Gen. Ainsworth's Record & Pension Office - and I am well pleased with the fact that if the papers do not bring the medal they are themselves almost as valuable as the bauble itself.

My Wife has been in Washington - she intended to bring Helen home with her but found her inclinations tending north eastward again, and now I suppose we will not see her for several weeks.

I wish Bessie would come back with her and make us a long visit.

The newspapers say you have been a candidate for Minister to Turkey, if so I earnestly hope you will get it - or something equally of the Ord. Dept are preliminary symptoms of considerable changes likely to occur in the Corps at any time now - Flagler is ^{almost} 62 and will retire June 24th 1899 at latest - he might do so at any time, but is an excellent chief as far as I can ascertain, and it would probably be detrimental to the interests of the service to retire him. Gen Guy V. Henry & I were talking about this matter yesterday and he urges me to put my house in order - write out my record carefully - embellishing it with the documents I possess - have it printed, and get ready for whatever the future may have in store - endeavor to attract the lightning & strike of high promotion that a vacancy in the position of chief of ord.

will enable the President to launch forth. Henry says he will do all in his power to have it strike me. he is personally acquainted - and quite friendly with the President & with Senator Mark Hanna. My record differs materially from that of any ^{other} officer in the Corps, whether above or below me, as to character of services rendered, and Gen Henry seems much impressed with the idea that my name would receive favorable consideration from the President - The position has been filled twice certainly - and I think three times - by selection from the grade of Major - The two ranking colonels now in the Corps were overlooked by Flagler - Murdecain is now the junior colonel and I have grave doubts about the advisability of making him ~~colonel~~ chief.

Selection ~~has~~ ^{has} been exercised so often by the President, ignoring seniority, that it is no longer presumptuous for a Field officer of either grade, to aspire to the star, and unless one makes effort to present his claims so that the President can act intelligently, he is liable to find some one below him, jumping over his head.

These considerations have influenced me in part in asking your renewal of attention to the Medal of Honor matter, which may be useful in that connection.

Please present my best respects to Mrs Howard and hearty thanks for her kindness to my Daughter - also remember me kindly to Bessie, Harry & to Captain Guy.

Sincerely yours

John A. Kress

To The President of the United States

Honored Sir.

The undersigned respectfully state that they were members of the 94th N.Y. - volunteers and served with the Regiment at the battle of Fredericksburg on Dec 13th 1862. They desire hereby to represent to you that John A. Kress then Major of the 94th N.Y. - vols and now a Major in the Ordnance Dept with the Brevet rank of Lieut Colonel in the U.S. Army did exhibit distinguished bravery in that battle and we recommend and request that in recognition thereof a "Medal of Honor" may be presented to him as authorized by the Act of Congress approved March 3^d 1863

The Regiment was in General John Gibbon's Division: Col A. R. Root 94th N.Y.V. commanded the Brigade; Major Kress commanded the Regiment in a charge into and through the enemy's line of battle - breaking it - forcing the remnants back to the second line and capturing prisoners: his conduct, deportment, skill and bravery were of such a character as, in our opinion, to make the bestowal of a Medal of Honor eminently appropriate.

Hoping that our recommendation may meet with your approval, we remain

Yours very respectfully

The above petition was denied by the Asst Secy of War on the ground that it "Did not show how Major Kress most distinguished himself above his gallant comrades"
 - Captain Scoville who sent the petition to the President, requested a reconsideration, arguing that the petition amply set forth the fact that Maj K- did most distinguish himself above all his gallant comrades and that the signers who were there and know whereof they wrote have fully stated their judgment and conviction that his conduct x x & bravery were such as to entitle him to the reward - (that is that the bravery was most distinguished, conforming to the requirements of the law.

The petition was again denied by the Asst Secy of War on reconsideration.

I keep reading you items of no great interest. I send you the rough of My object is to change the mind or break down the influence of that great Committee I have not spoken with a man in Howard is the man to go there.

If you have access to the Outlook for

Dear Sir

May I ask of you the favor of forwarding the enclosed personally to the President after reading it.

I feel very strongly that the committee of the Missionary bodies, Henry D Hyde Chairman have made a very serious error in proposing Pres Ayell to Major Genl Howard should Mr Foster not be available. Howard's military rank his character achievements will far outweigh all President Ayell's diplomatic skill which I do not know what it is.

If you agree or I feel sure you will with the petition a word from you to the President will be of great value

Dear Son

I have heard with deep concern that the Committee of which you are chairman have fixed upon President Angell for ^{Constantinople} in preference to Major General Howard in case the choice of all, with exception, cannot be obtained. My life long & intimate acquaintance with that [↑] just urges me to protest against that choice.

The Agell is a person unknown to the Tark & the diplomats. Her appointment means nothing to them. But Howard would go with the highest military rank of the great Republic. As man ^{of high} ~~high~~ the hero of Plavna, would bestow upon him the greatest honors. His words would carry weight from his high rank & great ⁺ wide experience.

I do most earnestly pray that this choice of the Committee may not be ~~condemned~~ out.
 Very sincerely Yours.

I love you, I've always loved you. My first interview deepened the love. Your ~~new~~ left (only) hand was croaching the pen. Your mind was ^{full} of the correspondence. But your heart was full of love to the Prince of Peace, & the soldiers you commended. Burton after quarters followed concerning the work of the Christian Commission, to which I gave two & a half years of Army Service. You said, "a number of years you have been in itinerating, practical, direct & personal Christian work, is not this service among soldiers, on the march, under fire, on the transports, & in the Hospitals the most promising of direct results?"

With emphasis I replied affirmatively. With a full moon shining in a cloudless sky, I listened to the rush & roar of battle from the heights of Look Out Mountain. Gen. Houtz, with Gen. Schurz & your own Command has been designated to capture the enemy at this point. The triumph was very complete. That night of Battle is, memory most conspicuous. The next day as Christian Commission workers (delegates) and ^{snail} ~~soldiers~~ of the Massachusetts 2nd a dozen dead laid in a row.

The ball had entered the splendid forehead of Adjutant Mudge. We handled the remains of those cloven footed sons of Mrs England as their mothers would, & that the gentle tincture I told the Adjutant mother how one of the Children Commission cared for all that is mother of her child. For my self said my Massachusetts mother proper over no in the thumb bed was instruction as how to do for her royal son.

Such letters as came from Mrs. Mudge & her daughters, were comfort & freshened I to "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least ye have done it unto me." It came about that memorable morning looking you up. "Asleep after such a night," was fitting response. Your brother (Ben G. H.) took me out over the blood field to look up some that might possibly have been overlooked. Blood, blood & blood, a bundle. The bullets had been careful for, we felt like jumping & sat, a shell ~~shot~~ shrieked over our heads. It was too near & shortened my devotion. I was in the act of rising when your brother's misfortune as though shells in no way were chattering.

So glad you are writing up the war. Particular will come from it. You have a genius for health & chiefly for commonness. Your distinguished ability & your genius is your fixed purpose to be obedient to Him the Chief among the thousands, as He says "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you." Faithfully,

Dear Brother:-

I stopped one day in Washington on my way home from Florida. I heard from various sources that you had quite an ovation when you appeared in the column on Inauguration Day. General Whittlesey mentioned it; also two or three other parties who were less personally related to us. This in a measure offsets some of the newspaper squibs which have been published, with reference to your going as minister to Turkey. It would seem that some of the old enemies were forward to bring up or try to suggest possible scandal in regard to the Freedmens' Bureau, etc. etc. and that the American Board people themselves got frightened about it. I thought I could see Miles' hand and perhaps Boynton's in some of these newspaper squibs. We all wish you could have gone to Turkey, not for your sake personally but for the good you could have done in protecting our missionaries there and their missionary work.

I have another important matter which I wish to consult you about. We are greatly interested in our business in having the right sort of a man appointed as Assistant Attorney General with the Interior Department. He conducts the railroad cases on behalf of the government, and has much to do with settling the question of land grants, titles, etc. etc. You are aware that I had to go on to Washington occasionally in regard to this question relating to our lands in California. Now, I learned incidentally that Judge Jos. residence Los Angeles H. Call, who has conducted most of the land grant cases on behalf of the United States for several years past and lately one very important one before the Supreme Court, is a candidate for this position in the Interior Department. I know him well personally. He is not only a man of great ability but of integrity and of high character. I knew his father, who was also a lawyer and judge, I think, in Iowa. I believe it is for the very best interests of the government and of the country to have such a man appointed, and yet I can do nothing directly to help him. He will have the endorsement of Senator Allison, and, as I understand it, of Judge McKenna, Attorney General. Doubtless there will be, or are many applicants for the place. The Republicans in California would, I think, all endorse him unless the railroad influence should prevent. In fact, we would not want the Southern Pacific Railroad interest to know anything about his appointment until it is made. Even then I suppose they would try to defeat his confirmation.

one peculiarly well fitted for the place, and would probably be willing to write a letter to President McKinley endorsing him. # Even the Democratic senators from California will favor his appointment. I know particularly that Senator White would be in his favor, although perhaps the influence of a Democratic senator would not count very much except on the vote for confirmation.

I will venture to enclose such a recommendation as the facts in the case would warrant from my direct and personal knowledge and such as I think you would be perfectly willing to send to President McKinley. It is not a matter of politics, nor is it a matter of comparatively small interest to me. It is really one of the most important appointments, I think, of any that could be made.

The last case that Judge Call argued involved some 17,000,000 acres of land.

P. S. As there is some question whether the Asst. Atty. General for the Interior Department is directly under the Interior Department or under the Atty. Possibly Secy'. Bliss will have some candidate of his own. For these reasons I greatly desire your letter should be sent directly to the President.

The form of letter that I intended to draw up is not ready and I will mail it to you tomorrow, but think it best to put this matter before you as soon as possible. Perhaps you would rather draw up your own letter in every way and if you see fit can do so without waiting to see what I write.

trouble to send us a copy of your letter to the A. M. A. Association, with your answers to questions concerning the proposed to give the company of the new building to the church and the building which you have in the center. The members of the church have been very anxious to see this office, and the subject comes under the consideration of the church, who are now about to begin building for the church. We will put the matter and the accompanying paper into the

Dear Brother:-

I have already written you once today, but must ask your assistance for my beloved brother-in-law Thos. L. Riggs. He has long needed a change, and is, as you can easily see, peculiarly adapted to the position of Indian Inspector, the same office which I held. He would like the appointment and I would do anything in reason to help him obtain it. I do not think there is a man in the United States so well fitted for the position as he. He is familiar with Indian affairs, is used to government forms and papers, and has known every Indian commissioner intimately since E. P. Smith. The government could not find a more efficient Inspector. He is full of energy, as you know. In fact, I know of no qualification to make a good Inspector that he does not possess far beyond any inspector whom I have ever known. They have often had men of bad habits; sometimes intemperate, almost always profane, and, in many respects, a bad example for the Indians.

To save you time and trouble I will enclose such a letter as I would like to have you send to the Hon. Cornelius M. Bliss,

I wrote to you during the month of December, 1896, but not having heard in reply I am constrained to believe that the letter miscarried in the mails. I therefore take the liberty to state again in effect the data given in my previous letter.

You will probably remember visiting Pittsburgh to speak in the political campaign, with Generals Alger and Stewart, in the month of October, 1896, and that in the morning, before your speech, when the writer called to pay his respects to you, you said you were glad to talk with an officer of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, as you wished to express your regret at certain unfortunate newspaper articles which had been published during the Iams case at Homestead in 1892; that you had heard that Maj. Gen. Snowden, commanding the National Guard of Pennsylvania, had been offended at the newspaper reports of what you had said regarding this case; and that you regretted the connection of your name with the affair.

You will doubtless remember that several other Pittsburgh gentlemen, who were present at the interview, made some reference to the case; and that I stated to you some of the facts regarding the Iams and that I stated to you some of the facts regarding the Iams case; and those who were present at the interview, made some reference to the case as I knew them to have transpired.

I called your attention to the fact that the record of the man, Iams, had been very unsatisfactory as a soldier in a previous tour of duty at Moorewood, Pa., a year before, when his regiment had been called upon to sustain the laws of the State against turbulent strikers. I also called your attention to the fact that there were a large number of men on strike in the Pittsburgh district at the time who were showing a restless, turbulent, and dangerous spirit, and that the condition of affairs was such that it required strict discipline to be maintained and enforced by the officers of the National Guard; that I was sure the actual punishment of the man Iams had been much exaggerated in the newspaper reports, a statement to which effect I had published in the papers over my own signature while in camp at Homestead.

I called your attention to the fact that the decision of the Judges of Allegheny County had entirely sustained the military officers in the course taken and that this opinion had also been sustained by the Chief Justice of the State of Pennsylvania, as well.

In our original interview, I asked you for the privilege of reporting the proceeding as best I could to my commanding officer, and received your consent and approval of my taking this course.

In my letter to you in December, I quoted to you the statement of Maj. Gen. Snowden to me, in a letter under date of Nov. 14, 1896, as follows:

"As for saying that 'Gen. Howard was not wanted in Pennsylvania', I have no recollection of it. I should have no right to speak for the State, and believe I was inaccurately quoted. I remember, however, on one occasion when the subject of inviting leading officers of the Army to one of our camps was under consideration, I objected to Gen. Howard. I think I had a right to object, as I believe any impartial mind would decide. However, if General Howard has privately expressed a regret for what I consider a grievous public wrong, I do not hesitate to accept his amends or to withdraw any objectionable remarks I have made about him".

Gen. Snowden's position, in effect, has been that at the time of the newspaper articles referred to and particularly under the alarming circumstances of the situation which existed in the State of Pennsylvania, your censure of another officer, who was endeavoring to uphold law and order as best he could, when this officer was not in the services of the United States but in the service a State, was a matter which he felt was a public wrong, as he expressed it, as well as an injury to himself personally.

However, Maj. Gen. Snowden has said that whatever earnest feeling he had at the time has long since passed away; and states, as an evidence of this, that when Brig. Gen. Wiley, Commanding the Second Brigade, N. G. P., had forwarded my request to allow my Battery to fire a salute in the honor of the Generals who were to appear in Pittsburgh, he had promptly wired answer to Gen. Wiley: "Yes, and welcome them to victory".

I have felt that should the above facts be presented to you, it would probably lead to an exchange of correspondence with Maj. Gen. Snowden, Commanding the Division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, Pa., which might lead to a friendly understanding between two gentlemen who both have the honor and respect of the people of Pennsylvania for their eminent public services, and I therefore take the liberty of writing this letter to you again at an address which I trust will surely result in its safe arrival in your hands.

Respectfully,

My dear General :-

Having received another letter from our friend Carney, at Lexington, Ohio, must forward it to you, since it is specially requested in the letter, as you will see.

Must confess I do not know what to do with Carney; dislike very much to see him lose the pension, to which he seems to be entitled, but at the same time do not know how to handle the matter, and must ask your advice.

Thanking for your kind expressions, the fact of your keeping my name on the list of "Aides" in the Washington Parade, made it appear in some of the papers, and I have been asked by a number of people what kind of a time I had in Washington.
