Dear Sir:-

I write you to learn if something cannot be done under the present Administration for Captain James T. Gray, during the late Campaign I was in a position where I was able to realize the valuable services rendered the Republican Party by you, and, I wish to say right here that in my opinion no better service was given during the Campaign, than by yourself and Colleagues; I am in a position to know that Captain Gray would accept the Office of Inspector Of Hulls for the District of the Willamette, and no one could possibly be selected who would be more acceptable to the different Transportation Companies of the Columbia and Willamette Rivers, he is perhaps without exception the most skillful Pilot now in active service, his appointment would be looked upon as a just recognition of merit.

For a period of eight years I was Purser of the Lurline, of which Captain was Master, he was like an older brother to me, he has always been a staunch Republican and a man in whom every one has the highest confidence, and I believe that he is entitled to the position to which he aspires.

If he cannot obtain the appointment of Inspector, it would seem to me that with proper effort he could be appointed to some good Consulship?

He can get the very best indorsements from this State and Oregon. I wish you would take this matter up with the President and if I can render any assistance in the premises I will be glad to do so.

Very Respectfully.

Dear General:- Replying to your favor of the 10th I send in a separate wrapper some of the circulars which I used for your lecture work. My printer has the electrotypes for all of the pages of this circular, and he would probably sell them. If you would like to have them, I will see what his price is. The biographical sketch printed in this circular was corrected several times by you and your brother.

I met your brother at luncheon the other day and he told me that you have arranged with a Bureau to lecture next season, and I suppose you want this material for that purpose. If the Bureau wishes to make a new portrait plate, they can get a photograph from Gibson, the photographer, in this city. You will remember going there with Mr. Steele and myself once when you were here. Of the several negatives taken then, one is, I think, the best portrait that I have seen of you. The portrait on this small circular which I send to you is from this photo, but it is a poor reproduction. There is also a larger negative there which I understand is a good one, but it has not yet been retouched. The press notices in this circular are what I considered best after carefully selecting from all that I had.

If it is not too late, I take the liberty to suggest that you take pains to contract with the Bureau in such a way as to limit the number of lectures per week and to limit the distances to be traveled. I know of some people who have been utterly worn out by an excess of engagements coupled with long distances to be traveled.

I shall be glad if you can find it convenient to reserve next Feb. 12 for me. I have in mind an entertainment for that date for Lincoln Memorial University, to be given in Chicago or Louisville with you and Col. Watterson and a few others in the programme. My idea would be to make it a business matter, paying you in behalf of the University what I paid you last year. Such a celebration of Lincoln's birthday will be helpful to the University.

A few days ago I again saw Col. Huntington Jackson, merely dropping in for a short chat with him. I was surprised to hear him say that the condition of the people in East Tennessee in no way appeals to him. He says that the State of Tennessee ought to educate its own people. He says also that the people of the mountain country went into that country and made their nests there and should be willing to stand by the result. He said that all that appeals to him in a charitable way is the people of Chicago and those of the new North West. He says that he has a very warm feeling toward the needy people in the Dakotas and Minnesota. I did not tell him that these people went there and made their nests with their eyes open. Some time ago I met another man who said that ~~East~~ Tennessee could educate its own people, that he had no money to send away from home for such a purpose; that he did not believe in helping people away from home anyway; and that he thought that after a while he should give some money to Yale University. East Tennessee is 500 miles from Chicago, while Yale is 1000 miles away.

In contrast with these cases, I called to see Mr. McCormick last Saturday and found that he had just gone out of town for a week. His secretary discussed the entire case with me very fully and surprised me by saying that Mr. McCormick had lately been talking with him about us and that he thought Mr. McCormick would want an interview on his return. I shall see what comes of this and let you know.

Senator Allison &

strong efforts to get me back my former position of Chief of Division in the a more difficult matter to accomplish now, owing to the extension of the civil basis on which to work They have filed petitions that law with letters

Both Mr Bliss the Secy of the claims forcibly, but Col Hader that, possibly a letter from you to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Secy of the Interior setting forth what you know of me and my service in as favorable a light as you can conscientiously and asking that my service statement be favorably consider-me. It is presumed that you are on friendly terms with Mr Bliss & that what you may say will have much weight, In any case the hard in the campaign entitles any of your requests or endorsements to great consideration. If you can & will therefore write such a letter as suggested you will confer a valued favor had been some error there to me, also I should have been glad to have called upon you, as you can tell me, at your private residence.

Dear Genl. Howard,

As you see by the above I am in Birmingham.

I have as you know been in England for a few weeks.

and am meeting with doubt place my invention on the market here. But will not perhaps reap any money from it for some months. and again I may dispose of my rights.

for the United Kingdom before I return, in either case I will not have come over for nothing, but I hope to get some money to bring back with me.

I am so glad that you have been chosen for such merchall. and wish I were there to take part in the great event, but trust that my good wife you will have a remembrance of me. I miss my church and the association. But hope soon to require them. and to see you when I return and have a good long chat.

I may not get back in time to attend to the business matter between us. will you

Some institutions at the Bank to renew it for me. I don't know as I will have enough money in the Bank. to pay the interest. Could I ask you to help me in it. My friends loaned me some money to come over here to attend to the Business, and I saw no other opening at that time and had to take the venture, may the Lord prosper it for me. and I feel he is guiding me in my affairs. Hoping you and all of yours are in the best of health and happiness I am as ever

Dear General:

I have been unfortunate in my efforts to find you either in Washington or in New York. I hope I shall be more successful when you come here for the Grant Monument Parade, in which I am glad to see that you are to take a leading part. I would have seen you in Washington at the head of your column of veterans if I had remained for the Inauguration, but I deemed it prudent to return home and thus avoid the crowd and too much excitement. I have a letter from your son acquainting me with the desire of your friends to see you appointed Minister to Turkey. It seems to me you are just the man for that position and I shall say so to the President when I have an opportunity. I am sorry I had not heard the suggestion while I was in Washington. I have no reason to suppose that I have any influence with the President, or that my wishes in your behalf would make any impression on him or on the Secretary of State. Indeed, it seems to be quite generally forgotten that Democrats took any part for McKinley in the Presiden-

Canvass. The recent municipal elections seem to indicate that reinforcements must be found by the Republicans somewhere else than among Democrats. Our friends are making a mistake in supposing that all the country needs is a Tariff with higher duties than we have evre had before. If these high duties keep out foreign goods, the revenues will not be increased. Unless foreign goods are excluded, home manufacturers will not be benefitted. Our friends have not yet taken steps to restore confidence, which is the basis of prosperity. The House of Representatives having passed Mr. Dingley's Bill finds nothing else to do, believing its work completed. Currency Reform is forgotten, although without it restored confidence and prosperity are impossible. In this City the feeling of disappointment is profound and general. Let us hope for better things before long. I have great faith in the patriotic purposes of the President and his advisers.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Gen: Ned would be very glad to have you interest yourself in him, as you have done before, to this extent: write a letter to Commissioner of Pensions (Cross), asking him to reinstate Dr. G. A. Balloch to his previous position on one of the Boards of Examining Surgeons in this City. He held the place during Hammon's Administration, but was removed by Lochren. He was in the medical division of the Pension office for several years, and resigned to practice his profession, in order to get started before he became a fossil in Govt employ. He is well equipped to take the position from which he was deposed. He stands very high in the profession, and in the Pension <sup>office</sup>. As you have known him from a boy, I need not tell you of his solid worth as a man. He has not depreciated a bit. Harry will tell you of us personally.

Sincerely and truly,

G. W. Balloch

My dear General:

I have been looking for a word from you in reply to my recent letter, and in the good news that you would be with us next Sunday (Easter) evening, to give us an Easter greeting and also enjoy with us our service. If you cannot come will you not just send us a word?

We want you if you can come - but if you cannot as I am afraid, send us a word -

We shall have a delightful service and I am sure you would enjoy it and rejoice with us in God's rich blessings he has bestowed upon us.

If you cannot come can I have a short talk with you when you do come to N.Y. Either before or after the Great Anniversary of the 27th

May our Heavenly Father's richest blessings be given you

In His name
