I have booked you for Lock Haven, Pa., Monday evening, June 28th, $125. It is for the commencement exercises of the subject, and want to know if "Warfare, Past and Future" would be best for such an occasion. Kindly let me know your preference.

My dear Genl.

I take the liberty to address you on a subject that you may recall.

about a year or more ago you intimated in a note to myself that you would probably recommend me for a bronch for services at the battle of Chen Water 1847. as I have never received such honor. I presume you reconsidered the matter. Now as I am growing old quite fast I desire that my children may reap some benefit from whatever good name I may have behind as in these days of strong foreign competition I perceive that the nation's youth is seriously handicapped.

I performed hard and useful service on the frontier from 1849-80 and also in the Civil War. did my duty truthfully.

as ~~Yr~~ Genl Wesley Merritt, Col Switzer and and others can attest. receiving two painful wounds, one at Mellybury and one at Meadow Bridge Va. I also recd a wound at Grass Creek Vt. Aug 1855, and, as Genl Kautz stated to the Army Board, should have got a medal. This for rescuing a wounded Comrade in the Canyon, but such things were not given then and enlisted men were very slightly considered.

I shall never cease to deplore the false position in which I was placed at White Bird and would joyfully accept such a trial again when I could.

I believe more fully emphasize my inclination and maybe have my Endeavor more justly recorded.

I shall certainly never rest until the War Dept. has upon its files the proper records of those two opponents of mine or rather enemies who so coolly escaped counting and have since a general honors.

and Genl Grant while you are in the East and in probable contact with those two Officers alluded to. W. May Genl Merritt and Genl Switzer I would deem it a special favor if you would by a word confer with them concerning my deserts, as I confidently feel that they would most willingly attend to my credit.

Dear Sir:- I take great pleasure in sending to you by separate mail a set of cards called "Historical Quotations" of which I am author. As you will observe, the game is of a patriotic character, and I consider that its wide circulation would help instill into the minds of our country's younger generation some of the patriotism which is expressed in the game.

As you will notice, the cards are imperfect in many respects and when perfected I shall be pleased to send you a perfect set.

If not asking too much of you I would like an expression of your opinion of the game, for which I would be very grateful I assure you.

THE NEW YORK HERALD

NEW YORK, May 10 1897

Gen. O. O. Howard
Burlington, Vt.,

My Dear Sir -

The enclosed clipping refers to the case of Mundy. His naval credit recently appointed to Atwood (I presume), the West Point colored cadet, who was so unmercifully hazed a few years ago; at least so he claimed. You will recall that at the time a great deal was written & said about young Atwood both for, & and against him. According to the clipping "it", Atwood finally was graduated with credit &c, a fact which I had forgotten when I wrote you the other day.
Mundy was only recently

² appointed a cadet at Annapolis, but the indications are that he will find it very rough sailing there.

My desire was, in view of these, & other instances of like character, to get your ~~own~~ opinion as to whether it would be a good idea for the U.S. to establish separate training schools for young colored men, ambitious to become officers in the army or navy; whether it would not be wise to encourage them to compete with white youths, to give them the same advantages of school, in the field & at sea; to set apart certain ships to be manned & officered by colored men; & certain regiments of infantry to be similarly made up & commanded.

Yours very truly,

Geo. B. Gordon

P.S. I have asked the same question of a number of our leading men at various points & have asked the privilege of publishing their replies in full or in substance. G. B. G.

My dear General:--

Many thanks for your kind note received upon the eve of my departure for the south about a week ago. On my return yesterday, I learned ^{that} the death of Admiral Meade has quite disarranged some plans. It was ^{to urge} contemplated his selection as Commander in Chief of the G. A. R. I am not in the councils of those who are active in such matters at present, although I used to be in the early days of the organization. But my suggestion is, that in the event that you should be named in that connection in common with many ~~commanders~~ ^{candidates}, I hope you will not discourage the movement; but allow it to run its course ^{and to include the Vermont-delegates,}. Should it prevail, it would seem to me one of the most fitting things that could be done for that organization; and perhaps in connection with your lectures, a congenial thing to yourself. The duties would not be onerous, but probably pleasurable.

I will look up the address of the ^{returned} ~~retired~~ staff ^{letter,} ~~and~~ and will send the others if I find we have made any omissions in the list of those who were present.

This morning I have received a pleasant note from your son (H.S.) and will be pleased to have you convey to him my thanks and kind regards; and that you will allow me to remain, with great esteem,

Yours sincerely,

Genl. O. O. Howard

My dear General Howard:-

Thanks for your letter and the spectacles. It has occurred to me, since the death of General Mead, whom our Post had taken a great interest in as a candidate for Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army, that as we are now free, you would be a splendid candidate. I have canvassed the matter a little with some of our people. They all think very highly and favorably of it. They tell me of your engagement with Major Pond, who is of Lafayette Post, for a series of lectures, and it seems to me that should we succeed in electing you Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army, that the two would be combined to great advantage for your success, in bringing out a great many Grand Army men and have demonstrations of respect and regard for you at all points where you appear to lecture.

I have not the time to elaborate the matter, but your quick perception will take it all in. I shall be very glad to interest myself in working the matter up, without your knowledge, providing I am not to be met with a refusal on your part to entertain it. Please think the matter over and advise me confidentially about it.
