Dear General

You will be surprised by the receipt of a letter from one who in the course of the last 30 years must needs have sunk into oblivion, but still I hope that, when you look back on your illustrious campaigns of 1863-1865 and review the names of the General-Officers who then had the honor of serving under you, I also be remembered by you.

The last time, we met was at Vicksburg Miss. which you visited on a mission of pacification.

After the war I was assigned to the Consulate at Lyons, France, which I held for 16 years during 3 consecutive administrations and until I was obliged to resign on account of the ill state of health of Mrs Osterhaus which required a change of climate. Thus I came to and settled at this place, where I found a position sufficient to live by and educate my numerous children. Mrs Osterhaus died, and as to myself I had during all these years to struggle hard for the daily necessities, for affluence was ever unknown to me. Now I am old and decrepit, the faculties both physical and mental decline rapidly.

Some of my Western friends, comrades of the war, became acquainted with my situation and wishing to improve the same, endeavored to interest the Hon. Barthold M. C. for St. Louis Mo in my favour and this Gentleman had the goodness to prepare a bill to be introduced at the next regular session of Congress (Fall) for an increase of my pension.

The fate of this bill will virtually depend on my military record (April 1861 till January 1866). Believing, that you, dear General, can before all other Officers certify as to my services and remembering gratefully the kindness and sympathy you have always shown to me, I took the liberty to give your name to Mr. Barthold, as my former Commander who could authoritatively inform on and judge my services.

I am fully aware, that it was presumptuous on my part, to use your name and address you in this personal affair. I beg to pardon the liberty taken and to believe, that I would certainly have abstained from all solicitations, were the vigor and elasticity of younger days not broken by forsaking old age.

I sincerely hope that this letter will find you in the best of health;

Should you be so good as to answer me in a few words, you confer the greatest favor;

With the expression of my thanks for all what you will kindly do for me

I remain, dear General

Dear Sir:-

We have recently had occasion to investigate the "Fremont Polytechnic School for Colored Children" in Alexandria, Va. Two colored men, Fremont and Cheshire, have been canvassing on behalf of this School, circulating a very attractive prospectus with a list of prominent New York subscribers, among whom I notice your own name.

It appears from letters which we have received from Protestant Episcopal clergymen in Alexandria, from the Mayor and from the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette that there is no school of this name in Alexandria, that articles of incorporation have not been issued, as the two agents claim, and that their representations are absolutely fraudulent.

Will you be kind enough to let me know if you have contributed to this school, and whether, if the two men can be apprehended, you would be willing to testify that you have done so? We regard this as a very important matter. We have had occasion this winter to investigate three or four similar enterprises conducted in the alleged interest of the education of the negroes, but really only for the personal profit of the canvasser. The work is itself so important and so commendable that it is doubly criminal to permit it to be hindered by such schemes, and we shall very much appreciate any assistance that you can give in bringing those who are guilty of this kind of fraud to justice.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find excerpts from papers giving accounts of the work and history of Lincoln Institute.

I am one of the three young men who served under you as clerks when you were closing up the affairs of the Freedmen's Bureau. Hugh M.
Brown and J. M. Cant Stewart were the others. I was a student at Howard for five years.
I went with you and Mr. Stewart to the international V. M. C. A. Convention which was held atoughkeepsie, N. Y. in 1873. When this Convention adjourned I went to Providence, R. I. where I entered Brown University in the following

September. I remained there four years, and was graduated from the B. A. Course in June 1877. In the fall of this year I began my career as a teacher in the Hatchery Seminary, Hatchery, Miss. At the close of the school year, May 1878, I returned to Providence, R. I. where I married, and in the fall of the same year came to Lincoln Institute.

I shall always consider myself under many obligations to you for the encouragement which I received at your hands when a student at Howard University. There the happiest period of my life was spent, and there I gave my heart to Christ, in whom I have trusted ever since.

Very gratefully yours,
Samuel C. Page.

Dear Sir;

Since Commencement I have been invited to serve on the Board of Preachers at Harvard University for the ensuing year. This would involve an absence of two or three weeks during each of the last two terms. It would interfere slightly with my work as professor; but would be legitimately within a broad interpretation of my duties as president. As I am to be absent during the first term I should not wish to undertake this additional work without the approval of a majority of the Trustees of the College; and I will thank you to give me your views on the question. I have declined for next year a similar position which I have held for the past three years at Dartmouth College; which however involves simply absence for two Sundays. I should expect to decline practically all other outside engagements. Aside from my personal interest as a graduate of Harvard, I think this connection with the life of the University would not be without advantages to ~~the College~~. Bowdoin College.

Very truly yours,

Wm. D. W. Hyde

My dear General:

My name has been presented to President Mc Kinley for the position of Judge of the U. S. District Court in place of Judge Benedict, resigned. A number of my friends are writing to the President in my behalf and if you could conscientiously do likewise, I would appreciate the favor.
It is not known when the appointment will be made but it is thought the sooner the letters are in the better.

With best regards I remain

Very sincerely yours,

My Dear Genl. Howard

Your letter accepting our home as your home,
while you are in this City is received. We shall put two bed rooms at your disposal, one opens into the other, and we shall be glad to entertain any one you may bring with you. We hope to have you with us at supper Saturday night - he will not offend you with Colles, but will endeavor to make you stay pleasant. The services on Sunday will be, the Lords Supper in the morning,

Sunday School at noon,
your address at the Auditorium in the afternoon at 4 - and at our Church in the evening at 7<sup>30</sup> - We want you to feel at-ease, and rest all you can

It is not our purpose to make company of you, but to let you enjoy your time among us.

With sincere regard & affection
I am
Yours affectionately

My dear General Howard,

I received your book last Tuesday, and thank you very much for your kindness in sending it to me. I was so surprised and pleased to receive the book that I revealed the state of my feelings very clearly, much to the amusement of the assembled family.

I have not yet had much time to read the book, but have been greatly interested in what little I have read, and I am sure that I shall enjoy finishing it as soon as possible.

It will also be a souvenir of your visit with us which was such a great pleasure to me. I want to remind you of your promise to visit me at Nassar. Remember that you will be gladly welcomed there any time after the seventeenth of September.

With much regard,
Alice M. Burnham
