

From Mrs Ann Tompkins, -

It is Sunday afternoon, and I am imagining you up in your house, happy to be back, but maybe giving a thought from your large heart, now and then to us, and a prayer too.

It hardly seems possible now to realize that you have been here, and not for the great blessing which remains from your visit I could almost believe it one of the 1822

The last a very nice harbor afternoon, and for a ride together you
- you and I went out
- you called me to me
- there other things and and then perhaps see Non-them in my own heart, I shall grow fond of the all the best of me! but of the situation now -
for a better adjustment and of good and I hope you did enjoy me a great which we have sometimes dreams of happy things

From the time the first
It is
Sunday afternoon, and I am writing you up in your love, happy to be with you I am in giving a thought for you and your heart, and I am in a way, and a prayer
too.
It is hard to be possible to be in a way that you have been there, and we
for the great blessing which
I am in a way, and a prayer

which we have sometimes.

You did every one a great deal of good and I hope
for a better adjustment
of the situation now.
Oh! how I long for it! but I shall pray first for the Overflow in my own heart, and then perhaps all these other things will be added unto me.

Father and I went out for a ride together yesterday afternoon, and we had a very nice

I have been thinking to us and we feel all over with kindness - and not in our hearts.
The one thing that you in your kindness and friendship to come to also as that one for removes from one's ability to have, but we can try to be worthy of it and the one shall share in most faithful - I believe in promise to you and stand, and I want to tell you that I have time - I was happy indeed.

John is very busy now - now, working early and late. I am ambitious and hope for him the best things. We have spoken once or twice together in regard to your Council about a note to Father, and perhaps John will feel a conviction about it soon. It seems to, and then you and I will both be glad, and he will be too I think.
We consider you visit 1922 the same as before - and

- and you are very kind and I am very glad to hear of your success and hope for the best things. The
- and I am very glad to hear of your success in regard to your work about a month ago and I will feel a great relief about it soon - to and then you can will be very glad and I will be too to know the number from which

A rare blessing to us, And we keep all your sayings - pondering them in our hearts.

You can hardly thank you for your kindness and friendship, because such gifts as that are too far removed from one's ability to thank, but we can try to be worthy of it, and this we shall strive for most faithfully.

I remember the promise to grow well and strong, and I want to tell you that I have one afternoon it is very long as to the other side that you are and our way that the for apart -

I am going to look for a letter from you very soon - in a while I am going to write a little account of my travels about the year 18 - I think that is a good idea - I am well - ever your son John

Gained 6 pounds somewhere. It must have been during your visit - Goodbye my General.
It helps me to know you are remembering your little Alice when you ask God to bless us all - We won't talk any more about the manuscripts. In I can't bear that. The world would lose its greatest treasure in you, and I - oh!
John and I would lose our best best friend.
But when the manuscripts

I am going to look

In a while I am
going to write a little

My dear sir:-

I have learned that you are engaged in writing a history of your life to be entitled, "Personal Memoirs of Maj. Gen. Oliver O. Howard, U. S. A."

I think that the book ought to have a large sale and I should like the opportunity to handle it among my many agents if you would be kind enough to let me know who will publish the book for you, so that I may open correspondence with them upon the subject. I will state right here that I was formerly confidential book-keeper for W. M. Thayer & Co., publishers of "Autobiography of Gen. Benj. F. Butler," and I have a list of thousands of canvassers secured during the canvass of that book. Many are working for me now and would come into line on this new book if I should handle it.

What will be the size of the book, number of volumes, price, etc.? When will it be issued? I have canvassers who could take orders at once, without prospectus or circular, if they could know the above particulars. They are doing it now for Phillips Brooks forthcoming book.

Very respectfully yours,
A. Clark Fuller

I think that the opportunity to handle it is a very important one and I should like to have the privilege of publishing it.

I will publish the book for you as that is my business and I will do my best to give you the best results.

I will state right here that I am familiar with the subject and I have a large number of subscribers for the book.

I have a list of thousands of subscribers and I am sure that I can find a large number of subscribers for your book.

My only objection to the book is that it is a little long and I think it would be better if it were shorter.

I think it will be the right size of the book and I think it will be a very interesting and valuable book.

Will you please let me know if you have any other books that you would like to publish and I will be glad to do so.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY,

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20, 1897.

My Dear General Howard:-

I think it is very clear that in Industrial Work, Howard University can not compete with either Hampton or Tuskegee. Neither can they compete with us in the Higher Education. That would indicate what is wise for us. Senator Morrill, of Vermont, who has always been very kind to us, does not think, we should have an Agricultural Department. He introduced a Bill, which failed in the House, granting us, say $13,000, for a building for School of Trades. If you should see him, I think a word from you would help that matter. All that we do for an Agricultural Department, therefore, has had to be done, with some deference to his wishes. Hart's work is of a more individual nature; but, the Trustees have given it a kind of recognition, which may yet result in something. Just at this time, he, Hart, is trying to interest the District officials in the purchase of his farm, as a training farm for young colored boys in the District. Not to be dissociated, however, from the University.

I have studied into Booker Washington's work. It is larger than the work at Hampton. He is in a great black belt, and comes into relation to the people as farmers. That, even Hampton can not do. I do not think it will be wise to drop the cheese which Providence has given us, to try to sing like Hampton or Tuskegee. We do Industrial work; but, it is necessarily limited in amount. If we had an Agricultural Farm, we could do a kind of sociological work for the homeless and neglected boys of the District. Of that I approve.

If you could come on and see us: especially, see Dr. Hamlin, who is Chairman of the Committee, that has the Agricultural subject in hand. General Eaton, Mr. Prof. Hart, I think it would be a capital thing: and I believe the Ex. Committee, would approve of the trip, and at least share with you in the expense; if they did not pay the whole of it.

Still, I come back to the idea, that our most immediate need is the aid of our Theological Department; and the establishment of Scholarships for poor students.

Of course, while in Washington, you will stay with us; and if I can know when you will come, I will arrange before hand, so that gentlemen will be ready to meet you.

I send you an article on the Koreans, some 9 of whom are here, and who want to stay with us. If we had $100 a piece for them, that would be a grand thing.

Genl J. O. Howard,
my dear General:

I don't know but that my silence has occasioned you a sense of relief. I thought you might like to hear however of the result of my application for office. After the President returned to Washington the 2<sup>d</sup> time Sec. Lang went to him in my interest and learned from him that Charsilles, Castetmare and substantially everything that I had indicated a preference for was gone. In the course of the conversation he found out that Sec. of Legation at St. Petersburg was vacant as some person whom the President had sent it for decided not to go. Mr Lang got the President's promise for that and sent me word that it was St. Petersburg or nothing and advise me to write at once accepting the place which I did.

The appointment will not come down for some weeks yet I understand.

Now what do you think of it? Do you suppose I can stand the harsh climate and should you have accepted?

The pay is $2625 salary + pay in addition at 1/2 the minister's salary during the vacation of the minister who is entitled to 2 mos. making approximately $4000 a year. St. Petersburg understood is a very expensive place + I suppose it will take all I earn to live there.

It seems rather the irony of fate that I should get just the kind of a position that would not please me in a climate so rigorous. Have you ever been there?
Ethan Allen Hitchcock of St Louis is <sup>writing</sup> He sails the 27th.

I want to thank you for all your kindness and effort in my behalf. I should like to hear your views on this appointment. You will r Be kind enough to treat this as confidential as it was not to reach the public ear till announced from the White House.

Are you likely to come this way soon?

Mrs Howard from Farmington has been in today for a little business connected with the settlement of her mother's estate.

I hope you are enjoying good health I should love to see you + I am
