Gen. C. C. Howard,

Dear sir:

As you
may have seen by our dailies we have recently formed in Burlington a local organization
in behalf of the enfranchisement of
women.

I hope you will kindly listen to our plea
for a favor which
it is in your power

fully secured as at present your responsible position in the conduct of the late war must have enabled you to bear testimony to the mental fitness, executive ability and physical endurance displayed by the noble women who bravely bore in that department the influence peculiar to their sex for justice, mercy, purity and reason, all attributes so much needed in the conduct of the state which has been called the broader vanishment of her people.

In view of this it is generally conceded by friends of the cause who have provided us their signatures to be called upon (like looking my husband) that your name do first on the list - would carry more weight than that of any other citizen. This is my excuse for troubling you with this matter awhile from time to time and I trust in your heart to grant.

We are now ready
to begin our work
toward securing a
petition to our next
legislature favor-
ing the bill to be introduced for municipal suffrage
to the women of Vermont.

We wish
this petition to be worthy of the Queen City of Vermont and
to mark the moral
and intellectual ad-

home of the people
where in its in-
completeness, or
to quote correctly
from my former
pastor the much
loved and revered Samuel
J. May, — "The
state is now in a condition of
half-orphanage.
There are fathers
of the state but

Samuel J. May
O.S.A.

no mothings."

I did not mean to write so much and I ask your pardon.

If it is your will to grant us this favor please let your name occupy the first blank space of page one.

On the other hand if you feel that you much return the little book as you receive it, I desire to catalogue for what may seem like an interesting book.

Sincerely

(Mrs. R. S.) Jane Marshall Tappan

Dear General Howard:

Could you be persuaded to come to Aurora and give a lecture to my boys, some time this Spring? If so, the school would receive an immense benefit and the school much honor and glory.

Will you let me know, at your convenience, if you

Am'd saying terms were $100 and expenses and gave your address in New York. That you might like to make engagement independent of Major Pond.

Will do this, day, date, (nearly), and terms?

Trusting I have not been intrusive or importunate, I am, dear General,

Very respectfully Yours,
