My dear Uncle Otis;

accept my hearty thanks for your kind response to my request for a note to Mr. Tower. I shall present the same as soon as possible.
It was a pleasant surprise to hear of David's action. I wish him success and God's blessing!— At our house we think that this is the beginning of greater complications in the world at large. — We are enthusiastic in our praise for gallant Dewey and his men.
We also would be pleased to see you "in it" but can accept the inactive part if such is God's will and your place at present. Christ was known only to a few and they were poor and despised, But now he reigns in millions of hearts!

Accept our love and thanks for the inspiration of your life and example.

FORM 15

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent, for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent, for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Dear Brother:-

I enclose two or three papers which you might want to keep for memoranda.

Referring to Miss Ellis' letter, I can easily explain why there was no copy kept of your letter to Commissioner Evans. The fact is I had written out the letter in full and no doubt you simply signed it as I had written it and kept no copy. She found my letter to you, dated June 18th. No doubt yours were sent about the 20th. If I hear from the Commissioner I will inform you.

I have had a talk once or twice with Mr. Culver since you were here. The man is evidently ill, and really, it seems to me, unfit to plead a case in court. I suspect he is very near to the point of paralysis, as I notice a difficulty in articulation. I thought strongly of suggesting to you when here that you should ask him to associate someone with himself in your case for fear he should suddenly be disabled and could not carry it on or could not meet an appointment in court. I finally suggested this to him myself and he took it very kindly. I suggested that he either associate with him his own son, who is a promising young lawyer, or some other person. I have had a talk once or twice with Mr. Oliver since you were here. The man is evidently ill, and really, it seems to me, unfit to plead

I notice a difficulty in articulation. I thought strongly of suggesting from well, and ask him whether it would not be better for him at once to associate with him some other lawyer so ^{he} ~~they~~ would become familiar with the case and be ready to act ~~in case~~ ^{if} he were disabled.

He asked me whether I did not think it would be a good plan for him to obtain a change of venue. I have not much doubt it would be better, especially if he has some one else to co-operate with him, so that the new party may have, as it were, a clear field with a new court. He thinks that Judge Brentano, before whom he has been operating, does not properly take in the law points; in other words, that he is not particularly well informed as to what the law ^{is} applicable to your case. Culver asked me to mention the matter to you, as he proposes to send an affidavit to you to sign; also one to his brother-in-law, Rev. Dr. Hartzell, requesting a change of venue.

I have been thinking a great deal about offering my services to the War Department. If they should decide to raise a body of colored troops it seems to me I would be better qualified for the duty than many others. I would not feel like taking any less command, however, than a regiment. As you know, I organized two regiments, starting them at the bottom and carrying them through the School of the Company and School of the Battalion. I also had command of a brigade containing three full regiments of 1000 each, and one colored battery and a white battery, and you know what my experience was in campaigning in general. What would you advise in my making an application? Would you think it best for me simply to write to Secretary Alger and offer my services in case any colored troops were organized, stating that our quota of white troops from Illinois had been immediately filled from the militia, but that I think I have some special fitness for organizing, drilling and leading

If I should send such an application, and you think that is the proper way to do it, would you be perfectly willing to supply me a letter to accompany my application, in which you would state, with some explicitness, my long and varied service, specifying some of the battles in which I participated under your eye? If you should supply me such a letter, I would be glad to have you mention that I received three brevets; one of Lieutenant-Colonel recognizing my service and "gallant conduct" at Gettysburg, Colonel recognizing the same in the various battles in the Atlanta Campaign, and Brigadier-General recognizing the last battles around Atlanta and the campaign of the "march to the sea", including the battles around Savannah.

Dear Sir:-

The public Anniversary Meeting of the National Temperance Society is to be held this year in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, of which Dr. Cuyler and Dr. Gregg are Pastors, on the evening of the last Sabbath of this month, the 29th. The Board of Managers are very desirous to have you present and speak on that occasion, more especially as they are now inaugurating a plan to send Temperance tracts, papers, pledges and song-books to all the regiments of the country as well as the seamen on board of the naval vessels. Some 12 different tracts, 6 4 page tracts and 6 single page have been prepared especially for this purpose, and are now in press, and we wish to push this work with vigor. You will see therefore how anxious we are to have you present at that time. Of course we all realize how liable you are to be called off at any moment, but if you are at all within reach at that time can you speak for us?

Please let me hear from you as soon as possible.

Dear General:

In accordance with your suggestion, I send to you enclosed herewith a draft of conditions upon which you will consent to become Managing Director for Lincoln Memorial University. Please modify this as much as you may desire. I have given the matter considerable thought, trying to put into it such things as will make the work easier for you and will enable us to make the most out of your acceptance. As Dr. F. M. Pearsons puts it in speaking of his pledges, we want to put a lever under certain people. Dr. Gray told me some weeks ago that he could get the endorsement from the General Assembly, and Mr. B. B. Herbert has told me that he can get the endorsement of the National Editorial Association.

I shall have more matters ready to send to you soon.

Our benevolent friend [^]up street told me the other day that we should by all means have nothing to do with the financial agent whom you and I discussed when you were ^{here}. He says he has had ample opportunity to learn to know him.

Dr. Gray will be back the latter part of next week. When he comes, I will see what he can do with the McCormicks and a few others.

The report from Dewey causes great rejoicing here.

Very truly yours,

Dear General:

In accordance with your suggestion, I send to you enclosed herewith a list of resolutions upon which you will probably be asked to vote when the Lincoln Memorial University is organized. I have given the matter considerable thought, and I think it is such that it will make the work easier for you and will enable us to make the most out of your assistance. As for the person to be in charge of the project, we want to put a favor on the part of the people. Mr. Gray told me some weeks ago that he could get the endorsement from the General Assembly, and Mr. P. B. Herbert has told me that he can get the endorsement of the National Educational Association.

Gentlemen:

In reply to your ^{renewed} request that I accept the office of President of the University, I will state that the opportunity which the University has for doing an exceptionally grand work is to me a strong temptation to devote myself to it without limit or condition. But other duties and responsibilities make it imperative that I limit my efforts in this direction.

After ^{again} thoroughly canvassing the matter, I have concluded to offer to assume a portion of the duties of the President, provided that certain conditions are fulfilled. If the Board of Directors will elect me Managing Director, with full authority to direct the business and educational affairs of the University, I will accept the position on the following conditions:

(1). The charter shall be so amended as to provide that at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall be members, in regular standing, of the religious denomination known as the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(2). The By-Laws shall be so amended as to provide that at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall be persons who have had an extended commercial, industrial, or legal experience tending to qualify them to give to the affairs of the University an able and wise business supervision, to make careful expenditure of money and judicious investment of endowment.

work is to me a strong temptation to devote myself to it without limit or condition. But other duties and responsibilities make it imperative that I limit my efforts in this direction.

After thoroughly canvassing the matter, I have concluded to offer to assume a portion of the duties of the President, provided that certain conditions are fulfilled. If the Board of Trustees will elect me Managing Director, with full authority to direct the business and educational affairs of the University, I will accept the position on the following conditions:

(1) The charter shall be so amended as to provide that at least a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees shall be members in regular standing, of the religious denomination known as the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(2) The By-Laws shall be so amended as to provide that at least a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees shall be persons who have had an extended commercial, industrial, or legal experience tending to qualify them to give to the affairs of the University an able and wise business supervision, so make certain expenditure of money and judicious investment of endowment.

(3) The By-Laws shall be so amended as to provide for a reasonable distribution of the members of the Board of Trustees with the view to make the University more than one-third of said members should be residents of the same state, and the combined membership from three states should not exceed one half of ~~the~~ the total membership.

(4). The By-Laws shall be so amended as to restrict the paid employment of members of the Board of Directors in the service of the University.

(5). The Four Seasons Hotel property and the Harrow & School property shall be transferred to Lincoln Memorial University.

(6). The University shall acquire the ownership of at least one thousand acres of land adjoining the Four Seasons Hotel lands.

(7). The people who have homes or other interests at or near Cumberland Gap shall make or pledge donations of money, lands, lots, merchandise, horses, cows, wood, coal, labor, or other things of value, to amounts equal to their ability to give.

(8). There shall be secured or pledged for the University a suitable amount of money for current expenses and for a nucleus for an endowment.

(9). The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall, at its next session, pass resolutions endorsing the University and commending it to ~~the~~ said church.

(10). The National Editorial Association shall, at its next meeting, pass resolutions endorsing the University and commending it to the people of the United States.

(11). The Southern Railway Company and the Louisville and Railway Company shall each enter into an arrangement with the University agreeing to co-operate in its development by furnishing free transportation over their lines to me and one assistant and to donate freight on books, machinery, apparatus, and animals, etc., to be shipped to Cumberland Gap or ~~an~~ other location of any department of the University for the use of the University in its work.

(12). Certain persons whom I shall nominate for Direct-here should be residence of the same state, and the combined membership from three states should not exceed one half of the total membership.

(14) The By-Laws shall be so amended as to restrict the paid employment of members of the Board of Directors in the service of the University.

(15) The Fort Gibson Hotel property and the Harrow School property shall be transferred to Lincoln Memorial University.

(16) The University shall acquire the ownership of at least one thousand acres of land adjoining the Fort Gibson Hotel lands.

(17) The people who have homes or other interests at or near Cumberland Gap shall make or pledge donations of money, lands, lots, merchandise, horses, cows, wood, coal, labor, or other things of value, to amounts equal to their ability to give.

(18) There shall be secured or pledged for the University a suitable amount of money for current expenses and for purchase for an endowment.

(19) The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall at its next session, pass resolutions endorsing the University and commending it to each church.

(20) The National Historical Association shall at its next meeting, pass resolutions endorsing the University and commending it to the people of the United States.

(21) The Southern Railway Company and the Louisville & Nashville Railway Company shall enter into an arrangement with the University agreeing to co-operate in the development by furnishing free transportation over their lines to me and one assistant and to donate freight on books, machinery, apparatus, and animals, etc., to be shipped to Cumberland Gap or to other location of any department of the University for the use of the University in its work.

Dear General:

Capt. Jas. West post, which our Commander always has full day of patriotism, May 30th.
This year we expect to break the record, having from President Frost the assurance that he has arranged for you to deliver an address. I write this note to put myself into communication with you, as the leading responsibility for these exercises devolves upon me.

We would be glad to be apprized of the time of your arrival (doubtless the week previous) and something of the line of thought which you will pursue and probable length of your address.
The last is not for the purpose of setting any time limit, but to aid in planning auxiliary exercises. We have forenoon and afternoon sessions.

hope for the presence of several distinguished by soldiers. The Department Commander will be here.

Personally I greatly anticipate your visit, having heard you speak while was a student at Hillsdale, N. J. and having felt close to you through your sympathy with the work of Ben College in which I have been engaged for nearly 24 years.

Hoping for an early reply, to remain, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

L. V. Dodge.

My dear Sir

We sent you recently a notification of our Annual Meeting, & come off next Wednesday. I write & ask you to be sure to attend if possible. You could not come last year, you know. In our times is it not specially appropriate for a military man - who is also a peace man - to preside? Please let us know if we may depend on your presence.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed you will find an introduction to a work of about twelve chapters which I would like to complete for you, which will be of great educational value to the young, and an inspiration to all. My method of compiling this work is entirely new and original, childlike in expression, and within the reach and understanding of all. I am preparing the life-work of many of our noted men and women of today, who realize the personal obligation resting upon them to benefit the world in this way.

To secure the matter necessary to complete the volume, I would like about an hour's conversation with you upon each chapter before writing it, which would be taken down in shorthand, and would serve as the material from which to weave a most interesting story, founded upon your experience, which is considered a new feature today, and of great educational value.

The few lines of introduction will give you some idea of my style of work, and the main feature of it is that no two chapters of the book are alike, but from beginning to end are of increasing interest, and written as if you were talking with sympathetic friends. The book would present itself to the eyes of the public as though you were the author, until the last chapter was reached, when I would write a resume', and present

The book would present itself to the eyes of the public as though you were the author, until the last chapter was reached, when I would write a remark, and present you as the public sees you through the eyes of the author. You can see the great educational advantage of this, because of the realistic effect all the way through, and that a double value is gained by this method.

If these lines meet with your approval, for further information I shall be pleased to make an appointment, and thoroughly explain to you its advantages, not only to yourself, but to your friends and neighbors, and to the whole country, and more particularly to others of your calling who wonder how you have achieved such fame; and through your advice and counsel you may be able to raise a higher standard for those who are struggling to lay the foundation of a patriotic career upon solid ground.

We find in our libraries a complete work of only a few of our great leaders of the Civil War, and we feel that there should be such a record of each and every one of our great soldiers.

Kindly return the manuscript to me if it is not approved by you, and I shall appreciate it.

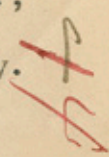

Trusting that I may be of service to you, I beg to subscribe myself,

Gen. O. O. Howard,
Burlington, Vt.

Dear Sir:-

The summer meeting of the Berkshire Congregational Club is to be held in Pittsfield, Mass. at the parlors of the First Congregational Church early in July. The exact date has not been settled but either the 5th, 7th or 8th would be satisfactory to us, and we could have it the 6th if no other day of the week would be available for you.

It is the unanimous wish of the Executive Committee that you should be the guest of our Club at that time, and deliver an address of about thirty minutes. We will, of course, pay your travelling expenses, and see that you are entertained over night in Pittsfield with friends there. The subject of your address is left with your own choice, but it has been suggested by the committee that as it comes so near our national holiday, that a subject of a patriotic nature would be quite appropriate.

If you desire any further information in regard to the meeting I shall be most happy to furnish it. I trust you will be able to accept our invitation, and should appreciate a prompt reply. You need not decide definitely what subject you will take at this time if you prefer not to do so as the programmes will not be sent out until some time in June. I remain,

Very respectfully,

Aug. R. Smith

Congregational Church early in July. The exact date has not been but either the 2nd, 3rd or 4th would be satisfactory to us, and we have at the 2nd if no other day of the week would be possible.

It is the unanimous wish of the Executive Committee of the church of our time at that time, and before the church. We will, of course, be traveling and see that we are well taken care of in Pittsfield.
The subject of your address is that your own and it has been suggested by the committee that you should not attempt to deliver a paper on the subject of a national religion.

It was thought that the subject of religion in regard to the national religion is a subject which will be of great interest to the church, and which should be a subject of discussion. We will be glad to have you in your own way to the subject of religion in your own way.

Dear Genl

I notice by the papers that you and Genl Schofield are offering your services in the Volunteer Organization of the Army

No one knows better than you do the extent of this Coast and Country and the importance of having quick moving troops in time of peace (riots etc) or war

I had the best rifled guns muzzle loaders that could be obtained when you left the A.C. and they did good execution with you and got Franklin & Ashville but since the war I have given both in this country and Europe much study of the breach loading rifled guns and their execution and much more rapidly of fire
It seems to me that batteries with cannoniers mounted and the Hotchkiss breach loading guns which can be fired 30 times a minute with a good range of 4 to 5 miles that can be used with either arm of the service is just what is wanted now and hereafter.

We can make these guns and equipment here at the Union Iron Works promptly and well and I would like to have authority to raise one or two brigades of 8 or 12 batteries each or more in case this war is to assume sufficient proportions Each battery will be equal to an ordinary regiment

Faithfully Yours
