General:

I do think that it would be greatly for the interest of the public service for Major Wham to be transferred to some other department. He has been here many years and has got into such peculiar relationship with other officers and has done his official duty in such a way as to give perpetual annoyance to the head of his department, and yet there is not enough against him to warrant a court-martial. I believe the situation would be relieved by a simple exchange. He is capable enough and might have ^{given} Genl. Pope, Terry or Augur complete satisfaction, but frankly, I do not like to be responsible for his conduct of his affairs, and would recommend that he have a trial under another commander.

Respectfully yours,

Bear Sir:

Please find herewith copy of a letter doubtless long ago forgotten. I am convinced that you never intended this to bar the way to Major Wham's future promotion, yet it seems to have that effect.

Major Wham has letters of commendation from all Department Commanders under whom he has served--Generals Hancock, Crook, McCook, Carlin and Otis, and, if I am correct in my above surmise, would like to make it complete by a kind word from you.

Major Wham won, as a member of your old Corps--the 4th--and now holds, recommendations by his Corps and Division Commanders--Generals Stanley and Kimball--for the medal of honor for going over the works at Franklin to the assistance of a fallen comrade, and at Nashville, a few days later, planting his regimental colors, first on Montgomery Hill, the apex of the Confederate position, and more recently, Major Wham, when attacked by banditti in the mountain gorges of Arizona, fought his escort so "excellently well," as said by Secretary Proctor, that he won high commendation for himself and the medal of

Gen. Howard

Dear Sir:- Yours came to me Saturday and yesterday-Sunday-I went to Georgetown to find Mrs. Longstreet. She had gone to see her sister, but I had a very pleasant, satisfactory visit with the Aunt who told me that her niece (Grand-niece) was very well though she missed her husband very much - I asked if she needed any thing to make her more comfortable than she was; she said no indeed, that her husband sent her money enough to keep her along till he came home in the Autumn when his time would be out. that she would not require the rent of the room that her niece had, till he should come back - She spoke very highly of Longstreet, said he was an excellent man ^{and} a member of St. Johns Church in Georgetown - She was very glad that you took an interest in him, ^{and} wanted me to thank you for her ^{and} that she remembered you all, in her prayers - They are poor people - very poor but not suffering - The Aunt's son & wife & baby were there too - They too spoke well of Longstreet - I do not think he need worry about his wife -

Now tell me this please - Why didn't you give your Washington friends a call on your way to Fla? We heard of you on your way there ^{and} expected for several days to see you - were disappointed that we did not - Have you forgotten that you are to be at Wash - Province on Aug. 10th to the reunion of our old Regiment?

Must this miserable war break up that arrangement?
If so, I wish all good my vacations with the sick & wounded or distributing supplies to them - From my experience in the last war, I could render much better service now than then in many ways - I have the same courage ^{and} endurance - But not the same interest - Write me ^{of} August 10th so that I may write to our friends who are expecting you - ^{Yours truly & faithfully} Wm. L. Campbell

have passed well so far. Next Tuesday I will be through - I was glad to see a good account of you & your work in the Sunday Sun (May 22nd). It showed the confidence the soldiers were having in you & believing your words. Gull Ruggles writes me that too many are applying for appointments & that his name has been used so constantly that it has lost its force as a recommendation - James talks of having been offered a Captaincy in the new Engineer Regiment, Col Griffin's Co. on our Vermont Regt when you reach Chitt (2nd), especially Co. M.

My dear General Howard:

As the time draws near for our Annual Meeting at Cleveland I begin to be in some concern whether your duties to the government at this time may not stand in the way of your being present, and, if so, then it is time we were making some arrangements for a substitute greatly as we shall regret to do so. The meeting begins two weeks from to-day. Shall we expect you and if not have you any choice as to which vice-president shall take your place?

I am not surprised to hear that you are looking after both the temporal and spiritual needs of the army.

Success to you in all things.

Sincerely yours,

our dear Boys - O. Gen Howard I rejoice to know of the pleasure and delight you take and the great good you will take, in speaking and praying - knowing of God's goodness to us - I was pleased to know - in reading

Gen O. O. Howard -

15 Mins 11 - a. m.

My Dear Comrad -

Good Morning Gen Howard - How do you do? This rather cloudy May Morning.
I'm well and happy. One year ago, Sabbath day previous to Memorial day, you were in Fitchburg to speak to us, of God's blessings. Called on me at my Christian home, & thoroughly engaged your Christian Presence and your kindness and Christian fellowship for your brother Comrade.
Your kindness in escort of my Wife, to her your words of cheer and Christian words of a great Love for our blessed Lord - who does so much for us - Carries us through life's journey - giving us so many comforts - We truly enjoy him.

appreciate him and love him dearly we have been spared - kept through the winter - and enjoyed our comfortable home, a wife - a truly Howard. by name - and nature. She is comfortably well - tired from so much care and anxiety for my easy comfort, with a thankfully loving heart - and joining with me in thanking God for his loving watching care of us - We love the blessed Lord, we appreciate his kindness to us - We know its the Blessed Jesus who has preserved our lives - who has given us so much to be thankful for, we pray for his care and watchful eye - over all - Especially in the great trials of War. How cruel Spain has been with the poor Cubans and in blowing up the Maine - Our dear President has tried to avoid war, but its been of no avail -

What - a good Congress to stand up and unite with him - truly I enjoy our Congress - And what grand help Dear Senator Proctor was to him - going to Cuba and seeing true Condition - reporting facts as seen by him - The Spaniards are truly an Ignorant Barbarous race - And know not what to do - brought on War. How successful we have been so far - Comd'r Dewey - want his engagement a truly great victory - no men lost, God has a hand in it - What a brave good man Sampson & all our now all Officers are - Our Country has answered our President call - and our State - always ready - with its Christian Spirit - generous heart - love for the dear Old Flag - we fought for and sustained - we could not have disabilities - You with a truly record one Arm - given and a generous

I trust - they "are" at last that Heavenly Camp - with God as our great Commander - one thinks camp Heaven - will be a lovely camp there we'll meet all our Christian Soldiers - gone - to that beautiful land I am trying to live truly with the Bible truths - I am so glad you are with the Boys - the teachings you will give them - will be truly good The dear Boys are away from home but God is with them. There to bless a Gen visit them in in their tents speak to them Gods holy words - they will love you - I can imagine what a power of good you will do - Please if time permits write your success - in Camp - I know you will do your whole Christian duty. God will reward you - Except love from the "Short In" Soldier - You met at Fitchburg one year ago - may the Holy Spirit be with you - & keep you from Mr and Mrs Kinsman.

FRED G. KINSMAN

Dear old friend Fitchburg, Mass., 189 of Christ - O Gen - you can and will do a power of good - Our City has sent two companies - to the front - they are attached to the Sixth - Col Wood ward - and at present - in camp at Camp Alger near Washington - studying the School of a Soldier - enjoying camp life - they were fine young men one B. Conkey - was a grand Company during the Civil War - commanded by Gen John W Kimball - State Auditor think you met him when at Fitchburg he led as grand Marshall of the day - the procession - of two companies and many organizations including the G. A. R. post 19 - Kimball Post as they took departure for Framingham over 20,000 people were on our street - to see the Boys off - Thank you of me sitting at my front window watching the dear Boys departing Gen Kimball mounted and dressed in his full dress uniform - leading the Corps - he turned as he passed my window - gave me a full friendly Matting Salute - and the Post - Every Company as they past I thought 37 years ago I was marching by - for the war of the rebellion - Dear Boys how cheerful and what an Elastic Step they could take - when the G.A.R. passed with their clafadadad step - Round Shoulders - Gray Sacks trying to keep step - I could but feel sad for the poor Boys - who little knew what their future would be - Tears came in my Eyes - I thought God would care and watch over them - He answers our humble prayer - we little know how long the war may last We see a Call for 125,000 more troops by the President - looks similar to 1861 Calls - rather different to our Civil war - most will be Naval - fighting O. aint it grand to learn of the Oregon safe arrival - what a long trip she has made and reported off again her cut is in Journal - Capt Charles E. Smith Commander - She is one grand Boat - I have just ben to dinner and thanked God for providing so liberal aint he a just lord - Here I am a poor old wreck - my walking days are over - having ben out doors since last Sept - with a cheerful loving wife - and neighbors - bringing me in papers - my friends praying for me I am happy bound to love God and keep his commandments - many of our Past have left us and gone home - To die no more
