Gen O O HOWARD,
Burlington, Vt.

My dear sir:

I had the honor of meeting you at Nashville, Tennessee, during the International Christian Endeavor Convention, at our denominational Rally. At that time I had a few minutes conversation regarding our work here. I learn that you are to be in the State at the Michigan Sunday School Convention to be held in the city of Saginaw and therefore venture to write more fully of a matter which lies very near my heart and which is closely related to the advancement of the Master's Kingdom.

Our little church here was organized five years ago with about forty members. Two hundred members, most of them on confession, have been received during my pastorate. None of our people are very wealthy. We have about three well-to-do families. The majority are of the working class. We have been worshipping in an old school building which has been for some time and is now increasingly inadequate for our work. It was absolutely necessary to build. Pledges were secured and have been nobly redeemed. The people have done everything they can. This is the testimony of everyone who knows our work. We have been promised a grant of $1500.00 and a loan of like amount from the Church Building Society which shows their conservative belief in the future of this work. We are in a city and in a field where we can be of immense service and if the church is enabled to get in a suitable place to work it will become a great feeder to all our denominational benevolences.

The old mother church here is in debt $25,000.00. They are not in a position to help us as you can see. But their sympathies are here. What I wish to ask of you is on what terms you would come to lecture for the benefit of the little church, at some time near to your engagement at Saginaw, or some other convenient to you. Our idea is to make a complete canvass of the city, secure its largest auditorium, sell tickets at fifty cents, appeal to the church people who cannot give large sums, and we believe that $500.00 could be netted for the work. But we need a man of national influence, like yourself, and preferably a Christian man. I lay the matter on your heart, sir, and beg that you give it serious consideration.

Very sincerely yours,

Ernest Bourner Allen, Pastor.

P.S. We have been promised the support of this project by many in our city. A lecture from you, in the Capital City, will attract & do good. A patriotic address would be timely & helpful to the whole State.

Dear Gen. Howard.

Your letters of 17th and 24th received with checks for $150.90 and $67.40, for donations to the University; I have written certificates for each donor, and enclose them to you, that you may see what kind of receipts I am giving them; I also fill out a stub with each certificate, showing name and address of donor, and amount given &c. This will be very convenient for future reference; I have been writing a letter to each donor when I have mailed the certificates; perhaps this is useless, and could be dispensed with; by just enclosing the certificates alone and addressing them to the donors.

As I have begun a record of the donations it might be best for me to continue to write the certificates here; and if you think it better to write letters to them I will forward the certificates to you; if not I will then mail them without letters direct from here.

I have also received the letter to you from the Home Missions Society, and note what they say about assisting our church. I have talked with some of the members. We hardly know what action to take as we do not know what Mr. Myers has nor what propositions have been made. We are inclined to accept a pastor from the A. M. A. as we certainly need a live man here to work a good share of his time in the interest of the church. Miss Burdett who is here now, is doing as well as she can; but she is a frail little woman, not very rugged, not able to endure what a person ought to endure who is engaged in such work, and then I do not think a lady preacher can accomplish much here on account of the prejudice against a woman preaching. I think we need a healthy, rugged young man, who is not afraid of work and bad weather, not necessarily a flowery preacher, but a man who can mingle with all kinds of people, and build up a church out of the raw material that we have. On account of Mrs. Myers' sickness before her death and Mr. Myers' care of the school-work our church has been neglected; We need help, although there are very few of us who are able to pay anything towards the pastor's support,

The attendance of our school is not what we expected or desired; and it seems necessary for us cut down our teaching force some where. We hardly

Gen. O. O. Howard,

My Dear Sir:

The Young Men's Christian Association of Sewickley, Pa. is quite anxious to have some prominent man make the address at its anniversary to be held in November. Your name has been suggested to us and I assure you it would be a great pleasure if you could arrange to accept our invitation and make the address at that anniversary.

Sewickley is a large town only a few miles from Pittsburgh, where many of the Pittsburgh business men reside.

The Chamber of Commerce of this city will give a banquet at the new Hotel Schenley on Thursday evening, November 10th in honor of Andrew Carnegie, Esq. It seems to me this would be an opportunity for the business men of Pittsburgh to meet you and I feel that you would certainly enjoy such a meeting. At this banquet you would meet not only Mr. Carnegie, but practically all of the prominent Pittsburgh business men, attorneys, etc. We could then arrange to have our anniversary meeting in Sewickley on Friday evening following, which would not detain you in this city if you should be in a hurry.

The writer is a member of the Duquesne Club and would be very glad to arrange to have you stop there when in the city. Of course it is needless to say that our association will pay your expenses.

The writer is intimately acquainted with Dr. George Woods, who, I believe, is a friend of yours.

My son is still

My son is now a freshman at Harvard. But he is very anxious for the education that he would receive at Annapolis. His instructors here, would, I know, be glad to speak well of him. Mr. Wilby has a personal acquaintance with President Elliot, and with Dr. Francis Peabody; he also knows Dr. E. E. Hale very well; the latter would gladly send you a letter recommending my son to your favor -

We shall count upon but during the time between my writing you and the reply, Mr Keith had partially engaged whether he would come Nov 6 - or 20 and as it is a preacher whom many of their people hope will

I could not engage you till I was known definitely when he would come - that being settled the way is clear for you to come for us and then the same and I shall hope to gather 1500

Can you tell me where to get some lithographs of you ~~and~~ to be used in factory advertising - and also will you send me

This will be the

a mighty service in His name

Dear Friend:

Dr. W. F. Mittendorf,
No. 140 Madison Avenue, near 30th St. (I think), is according to my judgment, the best eye doctor to be found!
I've known so many people to be cured by treatment instead of the knife and often helped to give up glasses. He is a German - past middle age - and as gentle as a woman - (a gentle woman I mean!) You'll be charmed with his manner. With regards to Mrs Howard, -
Sincerely yours
Susan K. Bourne
