Gen'l O. O. Howard,

156 College St., Burlington, Vt.

Boston, Nov. 15, 1898

Dear General:-

Replying to your favor of October 19th relative to your sketch of "a locomotive ride" we beg to advise you that the withdrawal of our house from the juvenile magazine field, when "Wide Awake" was merged in "St. Nicholas", renders it impossible for us to use any short sketches in our publications.

Our line now is juvenile books and books on American history. If you have anything touching your army life or other experiences that you could submit to us we should be most happy to consider it, though we must advise you that collections of sketches and stories have but small success. What we need is a single completed book or story.

Yours truly,

LOTHROP PUBLISHING COMPANY

Dear Friend:—

We would like to include your name in our prospectus for the ensuing year as one of the contributors to the UNION SIGNAL.

A number of the friends of reform were so kind last year as to give us one or two articles for the good of the cause". May we hope that you will be willing to do so this year? We would be glad also to have you designate, if convenient, the general subject upon which you would probably write.

An early answer would greatly oblige,

Yours respectfully,

THE EDITORS.

Dear Friend:—

To me as one who has given over all to our microscope for the same year as

CONTRIBUTOR OF THE UNION SIGNAT.

It is a new world to himself and to me. A world of science and of art as well as of the best that man can do. "Please add to your list half a dozen books on the subject of chemistry and physics. We may find some of value for you in Germany, if you will speak about your money property with us."

A short answer will greatly oblige,

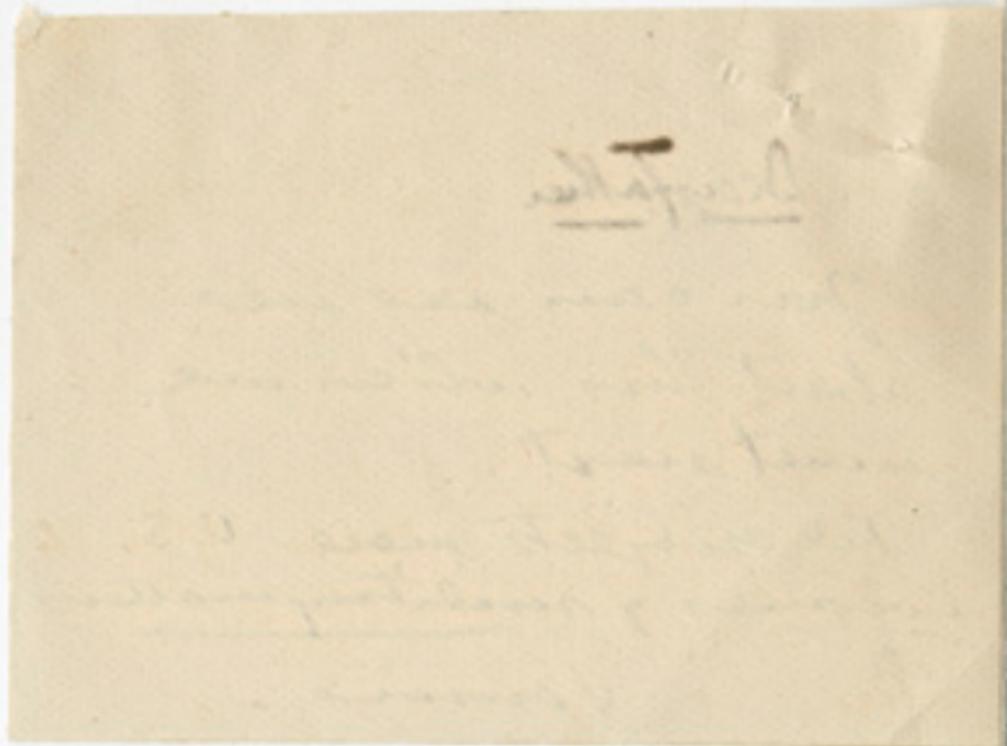

Yours very faithfully,

NEW YORK MONUMENTS COMMISSION

-FOR THE-

Battlefields of Gettysburg and Chattanooga,

23 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

Nov. 16, 1898.

My dear General.-

I beg to advise you that a contract has been entered into by this Commission, for the construction and erection of a Monument to the New York troops of Howard's 11th Corps, commemorative of their part in the engagement at Wauhatchie, Oct. 28-29, 1863. The monument will be 7ft. square at the base and 23ft high, and is to be placed on the site selected by the 11th Corps Locating Committee, at the junction of Brown's Ferry Road and the lane skirting the southerly slope of Smith's Hill.

Provision has been made upon the monument for four (4) bronze tablets, each 3 ft. 6" wide by 3 ft 3" high. The one on the front, or towards the main road will contain the list of the New York Regiments taking part in the operation on that night. The one on the reverse, or towards Lookout Creek is to be descriptive of the movements of the troops on entering the Valley, and notice of the 141st New York Infantry's skirmish which disclosed the intent of the enemy. That on the right side, or towards Smith's Hill will commemorate the part taken by Steinwehr's Division and that on the south side, or towards Tyndale's Hill, the movements of Schurz's Division.

A draft of the proposed inscriptions for the four sides has been made, with a view of eliciting criticisms and suggestions, so that the final result may be satisfactory in every particular. I trust you will favor me with your views, which will be much appreciated.

I am, General, with much respect,

Yours very truly,

A. J. Zabriskie

SCHURZ'S DIVISION.

Soon after firing was heard in the direction of Wauhatchie, Gen. Schurz was ordered to send his leading Brigade to the relief of Gen. Geary. Tyndale's Brigade was in the advance. Its left, while passing Smith's Hill, was fired upon by the enemy concealed in the woods; the Brigade advanced to the hill on the right of this monument, (known as Tyndale's Hill) from which the enemy was speedily dislodged. Kyzyzanowski's Brigade was then placed in this gap between Smith's and Tyndale's Hills and Gen. Schurz, instructed by Gen. Hooker in person, sent Hecker's Brigade to effect a junction with Geary's Division, which was accomplished about 5 A. M.

STEINWEHR'S DIVISION.

Between midnight and 1 A.M., heavy firing was heard in the direction of Geary's Division, and shortly afterwards Steinwehr's Division was moved toward Ellis' house and the leading Brigade ordered to capture the hill to the left of this marker, (known as Smith's Hill) already occupied by Law's Alabama Brigade, Longstreet's Corps. Orland Smith's Brigade charged up the hill, under heavy fire without returning it until the crest was gained. The enemy was driven from his barricades on top of the height. About fifty (50) prisoners and some arms were captured. The attacking force numbered not quite seven hundred (700) muskets. Buschbeck's Brigade, held in reserve, was advanced into the gaps to the right and left of the hill to prevent a flanking movement of the enemy.

Between midnight and 1 A.M., mess hall firing was heard at the division of Gerst's Division, and shortly afterwards 2nd New's Division was moved toward Hill 100, horses and the heavy guns. Bridges ordered to capture the hill or fall to the left of this position. (Known as Smith's Hill) Silvers occupied by 1st New's Artillery (known as Smith's Hill) found itself a garrison, only Smith's Bridge spared by the hill, having been captured by the 2nd New's Artillery. The gunner was driven from his positions on top of the hill. About thirty (30) prisoners and some arms were captured. Artillery forces, however, had never numbered (400) respects, attacking to the enemy to the base. Headquarters, 2nd New's, held its reserve, was advancing into the base to the right and left of the hill to dislodge a German moment to the enemy.

On the afternoon of October 28, 1863, two Divisions of the 11th Corps, meeting with slight opposition, moved down this Valley towards Brown's Ferry, where junction was effected with Hazen's Brigade, 4th Corps. After encamping, strong outposts were thrown out. A detachment of 150 men, from the 141st New York, under command of Maj. C. W. Clauharty, advancing beyond these foot hills about 500 yards east from where this monument stands, encountered the enemy, shortly before midnight, moving to attack the Union forces in the Valley.

Maj. General O. Howard,
U.S.A. Retired,

My dear General:-

Hard luck seems to pursue me whenever it comes to entertaining you at my home, for I have to go West this week Friday morning. I feel terribly about it, but I see no escape; I must face my duty regardless of my inclinations and wishes. We could have such a good time riding around and chatting, and the old soldiers thereabouts would warm your heart with their greeting. I shall ^{see} about that large picture of you as soon as I get back, and shall send it to you with a request that you dedicate it to me in your own hand.

With the greatest respect

General O. O. Howard.

Dear Sir -:

I hope you will pardon my seeming presumption in addressing you a perfect stranger, but when I have explained my motives, I think you will admit the position justifies my action.

I must first introduce myself, - I am the eldest grandson of Perrin B. Whitman who is the only living nephew of Dr. Marcus Whitman. I am the only descendant in direct line, who bears the name of "Marcus Whitman" and I feel, in order to do honor to the name I bear I must have the proper education and equipment.

I graduated from the Idaho State University last June with the degree of A.B., since that time I have been doing office work, essment work, and in fact anything my hands found to do, but it is painfully evident to my mind that doing my best, and by the most careful hoarding, it will require at my present rate of accumulation at least two precious years to enable me to procure the means to take me through a law course.

A few days ago when this financial problem was pressing hardest upon my mind, I chanced to be reading an account of the Banquet given Roosevelt in New York City, and among the eminent names mentioned, I saw yours. The thought came to me like an inspiration, I felt that you were the one who could help me. I decided to write to you and ask you for the sake of the name I bear, Marcus Whitman, a name loved by every Christian patriot and especially dear to your good wife, to assist me. I have selected as the school I wish to attend "The Columbian Law School" at Washington City D.C. My hope is to get some employment that will occupy me during the day, which will give me my evenings to myself and I can pursue my law course in the night school. Knowing your power and influence and knowing that we are to have a republican Senate, - I feel that you could and would procure me a situation, the selection of which I leave entirely to yourself, and I will accept with the deepest gratitude any position that will enable me to complete my law course by ^{my} own effort, and open to me possibilities for the future.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

The fact that you have ever shown your interest in, and sympathy for young men is my only ~~only~~ excuse for bringing my troubles and my hopes to you.

Hoping to hear from you very soon

I am Respectfully.

Marcus W. Barnett

General O. O. Howard.

My dear Sir.-

Your letter of Nov. 11th has greatly surprised me because I thought you had received mine of September 28th, in which I gave you an account of my interview with the President and asked you a very special favor for General Calisto Garcia. I am sorry that letter, which I mailed myself at Havana, did not reach you. I said to you in it that every thing was pleasant in my talk with Mr. McKinley, less what referred to you, because three times I mentioned your name to him and he did not answer. I cannot say if his feelings were unfavorable. I can only say that I could not obtain a word from him about you. As the fact called my attention I told to a friend of mine in Washington that my desire was to see you appointed in a special mission to Cuba and he answered these very words:

"It is useless to think of that. Mr. McKinley greatly appreciates General Howard, but he will not dare to appoint him because it will stir up the whole Army." The thing seemed so strange that I demanded an explanation and I was answered, not only by that gentleman, but by many others, that the great obstacle was that you belonged to the retired list. I did not want you precisely, to come here as a military man, I did not want your sword for Cuba. You have a glorious past as a fighter, which is recorded in the history of the United States, but I want you to come here as an educator, which is what we most need. When Mr. Flagler gave me the letter for Mr. McKinley I told him that I was going to see the President about you.

If you are appointed as Civil Governor what it has to do with your military career? I wrote to Mr. Flagler on the subject, because I honestly think that if the fate of Cuba is thrown into the hands of a mere military man, who knows nothing else but to direct troops and who can never speak to the heart of the people; not only Cuba will be ruined but also Mr. McKinley's party. The very reason then why they don't appoint you, ought to inspire them to send you here. I am sure that if you come you would not need a single soldier.

I give to General Garcia a letter for you and am extremely anxious that you meet him. He can tell you many things about Cuba and describe the situation here with more authority than myself.

I propose you now what may be a good scheme for you. Why don't you come to Havana, even for a few days? Here, on the very spot, and in two or three conversations I am ready to give you more information about this people than you can gather, perhaps, in a year travelling alone through the country. You can return then to the States and either by lectures, or in a book - the latter idea being probably better from a pecuniary point of view - present to the American people the "real Cuba".

I will help you without any interest and only for the good of Cuba. If you stay a short time and live around Central Park, there will be no danger of yellow fever.

I am glad to know that Mr. Howland is now well.

My dear General Howard:

I received your letter from Lansing this forenoon, and on inquiry at the house at noon I learned that your knife and key were found this morning. I forward them by this mail to the address given.

Permit me to say how glad we were to entertain you, and how much we all enjoyed your stay with us. We hope that you may sometime be called this way again, and if you are you may be sure we shall insist upon the honor of having you again with us. Each member of the family desires me to send kindest remembrances to you.

Friend, friendless & weird world without you I've been and we've had no fun, no warmth, either and we're glad to have you back.
I'm sorry I can't help you make money but it's hard to make when you're not working.
So I'm going to try and make up for that by doing all the work I can like cleaning fish and anything else that I can or can't do for you and anytime you need me just give me time at an certain place and I'll come over and help you.

My dear Sir:-

Marcus Whitman Barnett, Taviston, Idaho, is desirous of taking up his law studies in the city of Washington, not only on account of the professional advantages thereof - fered but as he is quite a student of affairs he wishes to study in the nation's capital. He was a student in the University of Idaho during five years of my presidency of that institution. I know him to be a good student, a worthy young man with a well formed determination to honor the name he bears and to perpetuate in the Northwest the services of his historic ancestry.

He is not able financially to continue his studies unless he can be ~~employed~~ ^{employed} in some capacity in some department of the public service. It may not be in your line to exercise your offices in the manner implied as I do not know what conventionalities hedge you about. Anything you would feel warranted in doing would be an act worthily bestowed and help a struggling young man attain his ambition. Commanding him to your favorable consideration, I am,

Yours truly,

D. B. Gault,
