OWATONNA, MINN., Dec. 3 1898.

Major General O. C. Howard,
New York.

My Dear Sir:- About one year since you favored me with your opinion of John Brown and his work. Since then I have gathered the material regarding Brown into a lecture and now request the privilege of submitting the Manuscript to you for an opinion.

This strangely heroic figure is worthy of a place in the education of the youth of the country and he has more charm for me because I was born and reared in that wild country where Brown lived and was buried.

The work desired will consume about one hour of your time.

My manuscript is type written.

Awaiting your reply

I am yours most courteously,

Elijah B. Jones.

NEW YORK

I have not heard from you since your visit to this city, and I hope that your work at the University and your travels have been productive of results to the credit of our department and of the University. I have, however, heard that you are going to New York. I am glad of it, and will be in New York at the beginning of the year, and will be glad to have the opportunity of hearing from you.

I trust that you will find your work at the University and your travels productive of results to the credit of our department and of the University. If you find any work which you think will be of use to the University, or which you think will be of value to the students, please let me know, and I will do what I can to assist you.

I am, Sir,

Yours truly,

My dear General,

Will it be possible for us to secure you for a night early in Feb. to speak a few remarks at the Annual Banquet of the Sons of Maine.

This year I am the President, and I should desire a success of the occasion if I could count upon you as one of the speakers for that event. We have our local clergy who are willing... of the state or their cities
who keep us out here.

The Mayor and some usually have some outside talent, to see the occasion tone up and entertain. We well
pray for what service
and time are worth
than No Read Money
from town to town
say, pray our prayers
from date of being victors years, and are never in debt.

I hope Jim will consider this favorably
in taxing the District along the town. I pray in mind as our principal reason
and I trust Jim in

Gentlemen will be such that you can accommodate us. As a rule our banquets happen on the first Thursday in Feb., but think there will be no change this year. Our annual academic is the only one that our Maine
people get together
and we have a very pleasure time and remember old acquaint

My Dear Sir:

There is a man

Near by the mansion of Mr. Sawyer Who applied for a pension some 60-7 years ago, and the Pension Office wrote him that he was charged with desertion and that the Office would take no action in relation thereunto, until the charge of desertion was removed. I asked our Congress man H. H. Powers to introduce a bill, and to get it passed removing the charge, and I can bring you full evidence to show that he ought to have the charge removed. This issue is some 4 or 5 years ago. But George Powers has failed to get it passed, and I think you must ask him...
Committee to report on it. He told me that it was all right, and that the evidence was sufficient. The man never ought to have been charged with desertion. He came home on a furlough and was taken sick with the smallpox, so that he could not return to the front for some months. But he was employed some government affair to report him as sick and disabled to returning. Which I suppose the government officer never did. Then the January desertion. He has lost his right arm, lower the entire arm and is unable to do the least little work. He was a splendid soldier. He was in every battle that his Co. was in. He never was against surrender and never shirked his duty and never gave up from duty by reason of sickness, ever was not from duty by reason of sickness, till he came home on furlough after being reenlisted and was later sick.
With the small pool we started. I'm this man is fair and distant and ought to have been his pension long ago. This man saw your son last fall, and wrote for you to come in on the pension. He and Mr. Ely repaid the bill was introduced and with the Committee and that Judge Thomas had never called upon the man to report it. He thinks that the man, or the bill was $800. You don't know the man that you would develop want it if the Congress continued and I wish you in this letter to do so. I want to get the bill passed right away. The matter is with the Senate, and there is no reason why the bill should go there. When called up Judge Downs was my witness to call it up, and it would have been the Senate. Senator. When it came into the Senate I never expected to manage.
Dearest Tom,

I have been unable to get in touch with you to tell you the news. I was to report. You will have kindly send your assistance to this poor Soldier, who is being so greatly wronged and so long delayed without any reason. I hope for your firm promised aid that you would help him. The wisdom will be in this home that it was a great wrong that the news changed withuch frequency hoping to hear from you on receiving this letter.

Very sincerely yours,

Anna H. Waddill, M.D.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of Oct. 27th calling my attention to Senate bill 4306, House session 55th Congress, relative to the readjustment of the accounts of certain officers of the Army was received. In reply I beg to say that I shall carefully hear the matter in course and now see no reason why the measure will not receive my support.

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 30th ultimo is received and I note what you say as to a bill to authorize the readjustment of accounts of Army Officers, and will give it consideration as soon as it can be reached. I very much doubt our being able to pass or very thoroughly consider any of these matters at this session. The appropriation bills and the necessary bill for the reorganization of the army will absorb about all the time between now and the fourth of March. I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 30th ultimo is received and I note that you can see a profit to support the establishment of a dispensary in this city. In this I am glad to have cooperation and hope you will be prepared to receive the reports of the committee of three members of this society. The information you have sent will enable me to report the same promptly and to you.

Dear Gen. Howard,

Your favors of Nov. 28. and Dec. 1st with checks have been received. I have sent the donor's certificates direct as usual, except to Miss E. O. Stone of Boston. I enclose a letter addressed to you from Mr. George Woods, which may be of some use to you.

I opened all letters addressed to you that have come here. Is that right? Some of them contain apologies for not giving something a few have checked for donations. I thought it best not to trouble you with this letter any more than is necessary.

Mr. Fairchild spent a few days with me and went from here to New York where I suppose he will see you and tell you something about the work being done at this end. Mr. Myers is still here.

Yours truly,

My Dear General Howard:

Mr. Townsend, our Managing Editor, reports to me that you had a conversation with him recently concerning the possibility of your forming a regular editorial or contributing connection with The Outlook. I am sorry I did not see you myself, because I could have explained to you personally better than by letter that we cannot avail ourselves of the suggestion. The editorial staff of The Outlook is already large and well-organized; the various active members of it being able to cover all the subjects weekly that we have room to comment upon. The fact that I hope before long to give even more consideration that at present to the editorial management of The Outlook makes further increase of the staff less necessary.

Thanking you for thinking of me and of The Outlook in this connection, I am,

Faithfully yours,
