Dear General,

Your beautiful tribute to our dear friend J. C. Johnson was duly received. I read it to his Johnson and the children and they all feel very grateful to you. There seems to be nothing but for now 'all along the line.' The enclosed concerning J. J. Reynolds, to step out from the 'shag of the 19' tells its own sad story. The morning papers give no hope, such a fine true friend as he was to us, in that Court Martial. He believed in us and was not afraid to say so. I have done all his Notary Work for many years and am very much attached to him. He was 74 years old about 3 weeks ago, and I met him...
Four days ago and congratulated him on his apparent good health. He was married on my 21st birthday. Hence I could always keep track of his birthday if not his birth day. It occurred that "murder will out" and it seems to be true in our old matters. A very important fact came to my knowledge a few days since which I wish to tell you in person, but prefer not to write hence the next time you are here I will tell you of it. Mr. Sofford's husband has been stolen in her Johnnies place. He did not ask for it. But Dr. R. asked for him. In an application to a R. L. Co. for a bond he refers to you. Knowing him he is quite ill with grippe. He being the Lebanon died very suddenly but he had been and was a very hard drinker.

Sincerely,

Dear General,

I do not doubt that you will be somewhat surprised at receiving a letter from away up here on the Klondike. But of course you have heard a lot about my Government commission from The Smithsonian Institution at Washington from the Department of the Bureau of Ethnology besides a small contract for a National Geographic Syndical and General News papers. We are to come to the point. I had quite a turn today, while in conversation with a very talkative man "an American" who called himself "Col. Word" I believe from a town in Montana, who announced the startling information, to the people present as well as myself that ten, 00
Howard was dead. I immediately learned the sad news. He struck little and me in a loud, undignified tone and said he had fought and died at your side, yes, and died by hit, which made us laugh although he was an grave subject. I told him it had not been much over a year since I had received a letter from you. I hope you look forward to an answer to this. Oh so expressly. If you cannot answer it by post postumus please have one of your family or friends, while you live, feel that I have a true friend in you as your past kindness and entertainments have procured. It makes me prosperous from to have to the confidence and friendship of one so highly thought of. The late Honorable and deceased Alice Holmes Egan.

My Dear Brother:--

I was much pleased to receive the book giving an account of your work during the summer and have been reading it with much interest. It serves the purpose of a long letter, giving an account of yourself and work during the year which it covers. The memorandum on the corner of the wrapper advised me where I could reach you, but I left the paper at the house and until this morning would forget each day to bring it to the office where I could write you. I have seen something in the newspapers from time to time of what you had been doing during the war, but our papers give us but meager accounts of such work. They are prolific in describing calamities of all kinds, including crime and misdemeanors, and if a man goes astray who has been connected with the church, particularly an officer, the fact of his church relations is never omitted. I suppose, however, that the newspapers furnish the wares which the community demands, hence when newspapers abound in such things it is an indication of the state of public sentiment.

Your book gives a vivid and interesting account of your own work, but a personal letter would tell of the other members of the family. Where are Guy and John? Are either of them among the troops sent to Cuba or the Philippine Islands? I suppose Lizzie, Bessie and Harry are with you in New York; I wish I might hear in regard to them. If Harry would write me, at your suggestion, a family letter telling all about each one of you, we would be very glad to receive it.

A day or two ago I had a conversation with a gentleman from Cripple Creek, where David resided before going into the army. As he was an old acquaintance I have received considerable information concerning David which is of interest. He mentioned particularly David's popularity with his company, and said that David had found the occupation most congenial to him and for which he seemed to be very well adapted. He said he thought that if David could remain permanently in the army he would meet with success. Inferentially I understood that he had not been succeeding in his profession at the bar, particularly during the last year or two. I met Mr. Dalton, a brother-in-law of Otis, on the street two or three weeks ago; he had just come from San Francisco where he left Otis. He said the latter was meeting with great success; by which I understood he was making money. He said Otis and his wife were about to take a trip to Japan.

My Dear Professor:

I am much pleased to receive your letter of the 1st Instant. It sounds the promise of a book for the future. I know, therefore, that you are making progress on the summer course. Since the first days I wrote you, my account of your work has given me pleasure, and I have been looking forward with interest to the report of the winter session. For this reason I am glad to learn that you have completed your course and that you are now preparing to depart. I have been busy preparing the manuscript of the book, and I am now at work on the last chapter. I am sure that you will find the book a valuable contribution to the literature of the subject.

I wish you success in all your undertakings, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours truly,

Our people are taking much interest in the controversy in the army over the meat question. It is apparent that the convictions and sympathies of the people here are with General Miles. I believe that the opinion is almost universal that all the difficulties in the army are traceable to the lack of efficiency on the part of Bec'y Alger. If somebody could be placed at the head of the war department who knew something about the army, or knowing little about it would let the military men control it on military principles, things would improve. If President McKinley would appoint Alger's successor it would create a host of friends for him in this part of the world.

My family are in usual health, except that the children have all been vaccinated and are now at the height of that sort of experience. We have been having a smallpox scare in the city which has given the doctors an opportunity to do a thriving business in vaccinating people.

We are pleased that our old friend Colonel, now General, Merriam is coming here to take command of the department of the Colorado. I think he is expected next week. Remember me with much love to Lizzie and the younger people, in which Belle would join me if she were here.

Hoping I may hear from you soon, I am

I feel that the situation is more favorable, the change of the government will be helpful. I have not received any word from you since my last letter. I hope to hear from you soon. I am planning to return to the States next week. Remember me to your mother and father. I hope to see you soon. I am looking forward to seeing you again.

Gen. D. A. Howard,

New York.

My dear Sir,—

We are planning for a patriotic service on Sunday, Feb. 19th, to which we desire to invite the G. A. R. Posts of the city and all soldiers and sailors of the late war and it is with the hope of securing you to address that service that I write.

It will be, of course, a Men's meeting and it is our constant desire to make these meetings essentially evangelistic and thoroughly helpful to the men. I should be glad to have you select your own subject, it is my earnest hope that the service may lead some to realize the need of Christ in the battles of daily life.

I feel that the opportunity presented will be an exceptional one and know that your coming would particularly attract the soldiers of the G. A. R. as well as those of the late war.
I trust that the way may be made clear for you to come, and that the Master's rich blessing may be upon the service.

May I ask for a reply at your early convenience as I am very anxious to complete arrangements for that service. If you can accept be so good as to let me know what arrangement would be satisfactory to you. We should be pleased to have you spend the Sabbath in town or if you preferred you could leave or return to L. Y. in the afternoon.

Trusting for a favorable reply,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear General:

I was considerably interested last night in the case presented by you at the close of the service at the Church of the Strangers, and was especially struck with your manner of presenting it. I refer, of course, to the case of the man who requires the very modest capital of Three hundred dollars to enable him to "get on his feet again" in a business way.

I have many calls upon my resources (which, in themselves, are far from unlimited) and cannot possibly respond to all of them in as liberal a manner as I could wish. But, in this instance, I venture to send you a small check ($15), to aid in the matter a little; and if—as I hope—you can find nineteen others who will each do even as much as this, the required amount will be forthcoming, and I shall be very glad to have aided, even to this inconsiderable extent, in a cause which I feel assured must be a most deserving one. If, however, my little contribution is too trifling to be of any substantial assistance in the matter referred to, I beg that you will kindly devote it to any other worthy and benevolent object with which you may be concerned.

With Great Respect, I remain,

Yours Very Truly,

Major-Gen. O. O. Howard,

W. R. Beach,
Dear General:

I was considerably interested last night in the case presented by you of the service of the Gunter at the Armory, and was especially struck with your men-ner of presenting it. If I were, of course, to the case of the man who rendered the very modest service of three hundred dollars to me, I would say to "rest on his feet again" in a prudent way.

I have many calls upon my resources (which, in connection are far from unlimited) and cannot possibly respond to all of them in an impartial manner as I could wish. But, in this instance, I continue to send you a small check (id) to aid in the matter.

It is -- as I hope you can find Indians of other who will interest me -- and if -- as I hope -- you can find Indians of other who will interest me. I expect to have a check for the amount of $700.

In response to a very kind and grateful letter, I feel assured must be a considerable extra. If, however, my little contribution in the matter is further to be of any essential assistance to you in any other matter and personal orders with which you may be concemed.

With great respect I remain,

Your very truly,

Walter G. E. O'Keeffe.

Dear Sir,

We desire to ask of you a somewhat personal question that we beg to assure you that we do not do so from idle curiosity, but from motives of public interest which we believe that you will appreciate.

It is understood to be your custom to totally abstain from the use of intoxicating beverages, and if you are willing to give us the information, THE NEW VOICE would be glad to have from you an answer to the questions below. We should like to use your reply in our paper along with other replies that we are receiving to the same questions.

Do you consider your custom of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors to have been a factor in your success in life? If so, will you kindly state in what way and to what extent?

Very truly yours,

EDITORS OF THE NEW VOICE.

My Dear General,

at the request of your brother, we reply to your kind letter. He asks me to say that he will subscribe $250 towards the $15,000 we are trying to secure.

If I personally were as committed to securing this work for the Y on the basis of the class, I might be able to add an additional $250. But you understand me.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir and Brother:—

There is a feeling that we must confer again with reference to the Prohibition Union of Christian Men, while Dr. Mead the Secretary is in the City, and as he has to leave on Thursday morning, it is thought best that we have the meeting at 4 o'clock to-morrow, Wednesday afternoon, at the National Temperance Society's Rooms.

I trust that you will find it convenient to be present, as the work of the Union ought to be at once inaugurated.

Yours sincerely,

Jas. B. Dunn for the Committee.

Dear General Howard,

The death of my mother and the sudden calling away of my own wife has greatly disturbed my affairs. I thought that you would return to me under your instructions during my absence. Please accept my thanks for your kind letters and熊 me. Yours faithfully,

My dear General Howard,

I am asking my friends to aid me to secure the appointment
of my son to a second lieutenancy in the United States Army, by com-mandatory letters. He enlisted in the regular army on the 15th of last April and was appointed to the rank of Sergeant on July 13th, by my son. Believe me, and has been acting as such ever since. I am now your humble servant, and have been acting as a Sergeant for several months. His conduct, character, and bearing, are all such as to make me feel confident that he is honest, truthful, conscionable, and a worthy officer. I am happy to say that he has applied for his discharge, and has been offered a commission. He is willing to serve his country, and to live up to the duties of a Christian. He is efficiently fitted to be a most efficient officer. The Secretary of his appointment...
grateful to you for your aid.
Thanking you in advance, William.
Most sincerely

My dear General:—

Your kind letter and the accompanying high tribute to my abilities were received this morning. I left Washington rather suddenly and forgot to advise the hotel to forward my mail to Brooklyn. I decided after a careful study of the situation in the capital, to postpone my application until a more favorable opportunity. I was rather premature, for there will be few appointments made for a while yet.

I appreciate your kindness very highly and will endeavor to thank you in person while you are in the city. Believe me, very sincerely Yours

Your kind interest in the opportunity offered to the applicant was greatly appreciated.

I feel confident that the applicant has the ability to utilize the funds in a manner that will benefit the community. I believe that a careful study of the available funds and an investigation of the applicant's background will reveal a need for the requested amount.

In closing, I recommend that the funds be awarded to the applicant to further his or her education.

Respectfully,
