Dear Mr. Miller,

I am writing to request your assistance with a matter of importance. I believe that you are the person best suited to handle this situation.

The issue at hand concerns the settlement of a dispute with Mr. Johnson. As you are aware, Mr. Johnson and I have been involved in a disagreement over the ownership of a parcel of land. Despite our efforts to resolve the matter amicably, we have been unable to reach a satisfactory agreement.

I am not sure how to proceed from here. I have considered seeking legal advice, but I am not sure if that is the best course of action. I was wondering if you would be willing to mediate the dispute and help us reach a resolution that is fair to both parties.

I understand that you are a busy person, and I do not want to impose on your time. However, I believe that your involvement could be crucial in finding a solution that is satisfactory to all parties involved.

I would be grateful for any advice or assistance you can provide. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

My dear General,

I see by the newspapers, that the President has appointed a Commission to point out the most feasible canal route across the isthmus of Panama. It is stated that this party leave the United States the last of July.

My interest in reading this has led me around to the Canal Zone. The Panama Canal, came up here. Postponed our trip. Came up here. Possibly perhaps to my mind. The Charles to Panama. Poster held to mean may have made him come to some interest. But I do not. Did the man forget them? Where the pamphlets for private circulation? I have been circulation. Male suffrage in Pennsylvania. Facts that I did not regard before, and come upon with some significance to the mind.
I learn that coal was taken out from one of the mines and that having been excavated, it salt water for some time and surface coal at that, was not really a fair test, but even such coal, was said by an agent engineer then available, to burn with a hot flame, free from clinker and with not little of my sculpture in it. If Mr. Arnold (who accompanied my husband to the mines) said these statements fell far below the reality and that some experimentation which came afterwards under his observation he brought this coal to be burned to mainland coal for steam generation. But why do I write this? How do I know if the Mines

Dear [Name],

I enclose you a letter which I have written Dr. [Name], but which you will know whether it should be sent or not. I see he is giving elsewhere literally and it seems strange to me, after what he has written that he does not stop in the hour of greatest need. It may be premature for me to address him, as I never met him, but...
You will use your good sense and better reason the letter or destroy it.

Andrews is a very good friend of mine and though he knows nothing of my educational work, he understands me and knows my family favorably.

I think if I am willing to launch out
and give my strength to the work, somebody or several bodies should be ready to aid the starting. Once going, it will go.

Dear Sir:

I see that Mr. Hutchins of Worcester declines to serve on the Board of Directors. I wish, if another Massachusetts man is desired that you would order the name of Horace S. Sesto. He has quite extensive interests in the South in the form of cotton mills for the north of cloth. He is a Unitarian, but one of the orthodox stamp. His first Rev. E. R. Sears was the author of that beautiful work "The Heart of Christ" and he wrote the best two Christmas hymns in the language, "Calm in the Listening Ear of Angels,"
...his Glorious Song of Old.

I think he would like best for my sake. He was graduated from the Boston High School, I think he was praiseworthy; I think that must be fairly well off but that is not my thought. He is well known among Boston Unitarians as a thoughtful, reliable man and I think he was a man of influence in a different way. I think well of this. I will write him, or his relatives, will visit him at the county home. I will send you a few letters. I am hearing some new ones made that are more comprehensive. I am also hearing a Cumberland Gap Post that will be useful. I know, Mr. B. Please you, a few new ones.

You may say that you are not Lawrence and that I find myself to stay another year. I must not have the county court and please. I will try and put the S. M. W. also. I get that lecture in June, and, if you are ever before this way let's meet and see. Perhaps we can and join forces somewhere. Everybody and loved

Yours, permanently.

Dear General,

Your letter of the 7th with enclosure came in due time, and yesterday the letter in the name of the old patriotic Col. was upon me. He is an ancient Agnews' Whittader, and great like a Hudson's Bay seal. I hardly know what can be done for him. If you had been it might be different, but now it is shooting at long range. The want to get a place as watchman in the Post Office sep. store in the Union building or the new City P.O. It cannot be done in such a place. After he left for he could not get a lamp for eight years. He purchased them left two years ago and cannot as hard work. If you will write a letter to the Post Master General recommending him I will see what can be done for the old man. Hardly a word from him that I am not interested in some colored paper or book. An Enos. I wish I had the power to give them all. Send me a Copy of that No. 300. Speech. I am anxious to see how you could bring it on. You have done so many kind things for me, that I shall not be surprised at anything.
You speak of the trials of the last 11 of July. I never saw anything like it here before. It was enough to drive one crazy. It would be more than nothing. I went out one the railroad to Mr. Munro's last night with Sunday along with me and pointed out where we spent the first battle, and also the pontoons along the line the scenes of our first campaign. How many changes have taken place since then. It seems incredible.

I wonder if you have been well advised, any of three years. In these three years we have meetings being held, forty years. I hope the future Return will be as just as have been. Well advised, any of three years. I suppose the cornerstone of the new Review Hall at Norwich University will be laid at Norwich, Con. I have been told when the Review comes sailing home. I shall very much to be there, but I suppose I shall not be able as I am as poor I cannot afford it. I would expect a hundred dollars. If I can or anything get a pass on the Railroad. I can do it. I am very proud of my Alma Mater of what it has done for the country. The day we got the news of the battle of the second Indian, I wrote the College some long letters that it was the turning at once to raise funds to build a new building called Review Hall. Whether or not they act on my suggestions I don't know, but it looks as if the building would go up.
Matless at our community are growing on in their usual course. At the last annual meeting the board established a new department that of pedagogy. We are hopeful about turning out some teachers who can teach. We have had for years a Normal Dept on paper but two years ago Boston Washington could not find in it a teacher who could teach his lowest grade scholars. That opened my eyes to see what we needed, and we have got started in the right direction. The New Division is getting aid of the business splendidly and is going to make an valuable officer. In many respects he is better than Mr. Johnson who is a rumor on the street this morning that Alonzo is leaving the work. He ought to leave all pretty well, after the effects of the age a little in my legs but I think my head is all right quite. Forgive this long rambling letter and remember me to all the family.

Yours Always

CHICAGO, July 12, 1899.

Sen. C. O. Howard,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir: Will you kindly favor The Inter Ocean with your views on the Negro Problem in the South, along the following lines:

What is the cause of the conflicts between whites and blacks?

Is there a remedy, and if so, what is it?

What do you think of the following assertion, made by Major Vardaman of Mississippi:

"We are charged with entertaining race prejudice. I admit it; the charge is true. The prejudice exists; it cannot be eliminated, and it may as well be considered as a factor of the Southern problem. I am tired of this lying and shuffling in politics and platforms. When we educate the negro we implant in him all manner of aspirations and ambitions which we then refuse to allow him to gratify. A negro could not be elected even justice of the peace in Mississippi, no matter how able, honest, and otherwise unobjectionable he might be. It is folly, and criminal folly, to talk about advancing the negro race by education. The negro is not permitted to advance, and his education simply spoils a good field hand and makes a shyster lawyer or fourth-rate teacher. It is simply money thrown away. Booker T. Washington's school is no better than the others. It would be all right in a nation of negroes, but it is useless in the South. There is no field of usefulness for its graduates. We might as well look the matter squarely in the face. It is futile to attempt to elevate the negro."

An early reply will be appreciated. Yours truly,

W. J. JACKMAN,
Editor The Sunday Inter Ocean.
