Sen. C. O. Howard,

Dear Sir -

About two weeks ago, I wrote you, ~~saying~~ that I had left the $ 1500 note with Judge Hamilton S. Peck & asked you to pay to him this amount, with interest, in two separate checks, one of $ 1500 - the other $ 90. This is necessary as he has my taxes &c to pay in Burlington. Please make out N. Y. drafts for the $ 1500 - to me, and hand cash for the $ 90 - to Judge Peck. This is necessary as I am so far away & cannot attend to my business in Burlington in person. I return the matter that I received this morning as I can do nothing with it here. Will you kindly make it out as above suggested and send Much Obedt Mrs C. E. Atwater.

My dear General

I feel like one cast adrift on the wide sea, since hearing of your firm resolve to give up all interest in the Mines, so intimately have they been associated in my mind. These many, many years with - you and my dear husband -
And yet - I cannot blame you - I do not wonder you are willing, yes, very glad no doubt, to give up a charge taken before you had felt the weight of years or dreamed what a hopeless task it was to be, & how soon the gloom surrounding it & growing deeper and deeper it seemed as the years sped on - The troublesome letters too. What a trial they must have been to your time and patience and yet how gentle you have been doing all in your power to make the way clear before me - 236

The Actuary has not yet had time to figure out the new rates but as soon as they are ready will write to you.

Please hand these enclosures to Harry or John & tell them to write to me.

Dear Brother:

Your good letter is in hand and finds me well and very much jaded. I am just in from a hard week ride and the heat is very great. But the worst feature of the work is the crowded houses and lack of nourishing food. I will do all I can to secure house room and accommodations for the people who now wish to come here and send to this school. I will also see what can be done to secure furniture to refurnish the much needed brook House for our friends and students. I think I can borrow a few hundred dollars to start this repair and improvement. We must try hard to locate all the friends who are now coming this way. You are right we must now let well enough alone and push for the shore and next year we may see daylight and so start new. Glad to hear of your coming. Hope I may not be so far out as to miss you. I have been at home here but two days and now go to Jellico, Tenn. Yours in Christ

Dear General.

It occurred to me as the compiler and editor of the forthcoming volume that a brief statement of the "Founding of the University" over your name would add much to the interest of the book. If you desire I can give you a transcript of data that you ~~can~~ use; or if you ~~are~~ are pleased to do so, such an account as you gave at our last Commencement, would do. I would be glad to make your portrait a frontispiece and presume that you have a block that I could use for the purpose. I trust that I may hear favorably from you. It is intended that the book will be got up neatly and attractively and it is expected that it will arouse an increase of interest in our Dept.

Kindly send me word when convenient and permit me to wish you good health.

Yours truly,

F. J. Shadd

If you desire I can give you a transcript of data that you have furnished. If you are pleased to do so, please let me know as you gave at our last communication. I would be glad to make your portrait a transcript of the same. I am sure that you have a story that I could use for the purpose. I trust that I may have a story from you. It is intended that the book will be not only a history and a narrative and it is expected that it will show an increase of interest in our past. I am sure that you will be most interested in the work. I am sure that you will be most interested in the work. I am sure that you will be most interested in the work.

Dear Sir:- I am much disappointed that I cannot attend the re-union of our Regt. on Wednesday of next week. Though back at the office I am hardly able to be here; certainly haven't strength for the journey to Maine, nor yet for the excitement of meeting old friends and comrades.

I'm gaining surely, but nerve-force is so slow in returning - I must wait another year ^{and} 203 in that time what changes may occur -

I remember that last year you thought you would certainly meet the environs of your first command this year - Shall you try to do so?

Although I have not written my thanks for what you did for Beatrice ~~and~~ me as well - you know that I appreciated your kindness always & do - She "failed to pass" but not from lack of knowledge or intelligence - The rush and confusion rattled her - she was actually sick for three days following the exam - she now has employment at home wh. suits her and me better than a govt. office tho' not so remunerative.

I heard of you through Mrs. Galt who requested that she send not accept gr. invitations and her husband as the winner of - what was it? Medal of Honor man?

I thought the General would come and tell me about it -

I hope you are all well in your lovely home this hot weather - When it is cooler you'll be going to school.

And must give us a call - Oh! your book of the tower that I enjoyed so much, I have loaned many times - Got.

Knight enjoyed it too - Your picture that came with it from the publisher (the best I ever saw of you) was in perfect - Please send me one mounted if you have it to spare - With kind remembrances to the family
