Dear [Name],

Would it be convenient to send me $5.00 in a set of the catalogues?

I need the amount to pay field miscues in the dance.

Respectfully,

John Hale Cary.
Dear Cousin:

I am not writing you since I received your letter in regard to the Canton P.O. but I assure you that I approached him highly. The Canton P.O. office was given to a democrat by Senator Davis's influence, so I was left out entirely. Since that time I have been making a living here working in the P.O. and running a small store. The Postmaster here is a democrat and his term expires in September next. I shall make application for the appointment soon and I will then ask you to write a letter enduing — me, addressed to the 4th Ass', P. M. Zenas, and I see that Capt. P. R. Rice of Maine & Chief of Agricultural Bureau, and I think that, if you knew him, that if you would write him a personal letter that it would be likely to have good influence.
I can get the endorsement
of the local Republican here but will have several appointments.
I am very anxious to get this appointment for I am hardly making a support
now and if some one else gets the office I will not do that service.
I am in good health,
Love and kind regards to
all. Yours truly John Otis
Minneapolis, Aug. 8th, 1899.

Dear Sir:

You have probably received a circular letter from the receiver in the suit against the stockholders of the Northwestern Guaranty Loan Company, relative to your liability upon stock held by you in that corporation. The liability of stockholders residing outside the State of Minnesota seems to be established by numerous recent decisions in different states, and especially in a late case decided in Boston by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, First Circuit, in favor of this receiver and against a stockholder of this corporation. The case referred to is HALE vs. HARDON, decided May 31, 1899, reversing a case of the same title reported in 80 Fed. Rep., 283.

Accordingly this receiver, who has already prosecuted to a successful issue an action against stockholders residing in Minnesota, is now preparing to enforce the liability against all non-resident stockholders. The litigation necessary to this end would be extremely costly to litigants in time, money and annoyance. Evidently it would be for the interest of all parties to settle the matter out of court by compromise, and this would be effected on much better terms if a considerable number of stockholders should join in a proposition to the receiver. We represent certain stock and are endeavoring to secure united action on the part of all non-resident stockholders, or as many as practicable, for the purpose of securing a favorable settlement.

Doubtless you will seek local counsel as to whether your liability can be enforced in the state where you reside. Unless you are satisfied that this can not be done, we invite you to join with others in placing your case in our hands for compromise. We will investigate it upon the books and records of the corporation, and if any possible defense is thus suggested will advise you, making only such charge therefor as shall be satisfactory to you. If we find no ground for defense, we will handle the matter with a view to compromise for a fee of ten per cent. of the difference between the amount finally accepted by the receiver and the full amount of your liability. You will incur no indebtedness to us until we have ascertained approximately what settlement can be made, and have secured your assent thereto. No settlement will be made without your express authorization.

As to our reliability we refer to Hon. Wm. Lochran, Judge U. S. Dist. Court, Minneapolis, to the Judges of our local courts, or to any bank or reputable attorney in this city.

You will readily see that if such concerted action as we have suggested is to be taken, it should be begun with all possible promptness.

Very truly yours,

F. W. Reed

Dear General:

I have made my trip to Buffalo and now return to you your Nickel Plate annual pass enclosed herewith by registered mail.

I think something will come from the matter which I am looking after at Buffalo.

How are you getting on with the University work, and is there anything on which you wish me to help?

Very truly yours,

My dear General:

You know all about our American soldiers, their best side and their worst. And because you know them, and have such sympathy with them at their best, you are likely to appreciate an attempt to show them in their loving loyalty and in their true manhood.

For years I had no thoughts of anticipating a Chaplain’s story, but I found so many who wanted part of it in record that I finally put it in book form, and I send you a copy hereewith.

With pleasant memories of the bygone days.

Yours most sincerely,

Dear Gen.

Enclosed find drafts of pages of the folder. These need what seemed necessary changes. It is quite a little job of composition. I am planning for some new letterhead. I don't know what to do about Mr. Myers. He demands that his name should not appear. Shall I leave it out of everything? Would you prefer that the letterhead should tell the directors and advisory board? It can be done but will look formal. I can print a column on the left of the page as I have lined. I don't think it looks as I have lined. I don't think it looks too well in the folder enclosed with the whole story. Send the enclosures by enclosed envelope as I may be away at Thompson or Thompson or in our church but not doing any work while I am away. I shall put the work in when possible and gotten out as it will be by the letter I have bought our future work. I feel that it is growing 'hotter' as the children grow. When hunting the keys and as I look at the picture of the Rasp or G.I. I sometimes fancy you are there.

Yours paternal,

John Hale Larr.

My dear Sir,

Yours of the 1st. having arrived, I notice "pedagogy" and marked it for correction on the second proof. Will see that it is corrected on the new edition.

Would you like the folders sent you at this date? I may be away for a few days for a little rest, especially if you think an armchair easy and it is an armchair.

My dear General,

I regret to trouble you so often in regard to the clerical, but I did not want you to hear me. I am going to avoid you another with this, and hope soon to hear from you. I should not have heard from you on the 30th. Should the others by any chance "turn up," will you kindly return me one copy,
as my stock is getting low.

My dear General:—

I have your favor of August 8th and to-day the Express brought me your two subscription books but up to the present moment Mr. William H. Miller of 30 Oliver St., Boston, has not put in an appearance. I can only say with this proposition, as with the other about which you wrote me, that I could wish you were here in Boston and together we could doubtless work up an advisory board and possibly get some help such as you seem to need now more than ever.

Of course you are aware that I am tied up more than I have ever been and particularly at the present time as one of my Assistant Appraisers lies very sick at the Hospital, but still, if you were with me in this city we could talk and work together in a manner that I feel sure would be much more satisfactory than talking with a stranger like Mr. Miller who may be very excellent in every other respect but is still a stranger. I shall be very glad to see him when he calls and talk over the matter and throw in all the encouragement possible, but, as I have often told you, your personality counts in such a work at such a time very materially.

Perhaps you will find it in your power to be in Boston within a month and, if so, I should feel it wise not to try to do much until you came. No person can explain the cause you are interested in so well as its President and no person can find such ready auditors as you yourself.

I will write you after seeing Mr. Miller and if anything can be done, shall be very glad in doing it.

With kind regards to yourself and family, I am,

Yours, very sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Your son, Mr. J. W. Howard, called to-day and made deposit of his stock of the Barber Asphalt Paving Co., and among them was the 20 shares formerly held by you, but which had been transferred to Mr. J. W. Howard subsequent to the making of the list of stockholders of that Company sent to me. From that list the rights of the holders to purchase a like number of shares of the stock of this Company was made, and an Agreement to Purchase Stock of the Asphalt Company of America, No. 214, Form A, was sent to you, but as Mr. J. W. Howard purchased your stock and deposited it he now has the right to the subscription for this 20 shares. Will you kindly return to me the form of Agreement No. 214 so that it may be cancelled and an agreement for a like number of shares issued to Mr. J. W. Howard. Kindly give this your prompt attention, and oblige,

Yours very truly,

My dear General:

I have been intending to write to you for sometime, but I have had very little time. I brought my much used last week and while he is recuperating by gaining in strength I look after his niece and matters to relieve him of all possible burdens. He is gaining...
every day & in a few weeks will be able to resume work, but he will have to be careful.

I was sorry not to be in N. Y. while you were there & I hope you accomplished what you desired and that So. M. O. matters are progressing well, I shall return to N. Y. next week sometime.

If you are in Burlington I shall plan to stop over a day if it is convenient. If it isn’t, say so & I will go straight down.

Are you coming to the city this fall? Let me hear from you. Think of me to your family. Very sincerely,
