Cumberland Gap. Tenn. Sept 7th 1899.

Gen. O.O. Howard. Burlington, Vt.

Dear Brother

We are finally launched and the school is the largest opening yet enjoyed. We have many young men now at work and many more to enter the school. My home is of course still in confusion and the people come to make it their starting point. I have a number to feed and loge all the time. and this is all right. I so wish we could have Rev Larry on the ground. to see to the flock and the work.

Mr. Lawrence is so utterly unqualfified to manage this young life in the work and is needed in the school room. Could not Mr. Larry send someone who would take the $25. now paid to Mr. Overton and so push the w work all arround. We really have no use whatever for more then Mr Crousehorn on the farm or in the managment of affairs. Why spend the money whern we secure no benefit whatever. I am now where things tax me very heavily and I fear for my future usefulness.

We can easily find a good man for this place for $25 a month.

as there is nothing now going on on the farm. requiring the over present management. Please do not consider this more than wayside suggestions from a wayfaring man who only sees things faintly from the outside and at long range.

May God kindly lead you and give you abundant success.

Fraternally yours,

A.A. Myers.

Dear General:

(next week)

I want to go to Washington to see Mr. M.V. Richards of the Southern Railway regarding our work, and then go over his line to Cumberland Gap to arrange for a place to put my family. I hope to take my family there some time during October.

I shall appreciate the saving if you can send me your Pennsylvania passes to use in going to Washington. I can mail them back to you, registered, as soon as I reach Washington.

The way seems to be clear for me to go to Cumberland Gap and maintain myself and help some on the University work; but I must be very economical and work hard. I presume you will be ready to resume work with vigor as soon as the hot weather is over. Although this is the seventh day of September, it is extremely warm.

With kind regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

Lake would undoubtedly be willing to bequeath

if he could put in a clause or condition that would & then talked to Adams ~~for~~ about two hours about the university, the Mountain

Mr. Lake the next time he is in town or if I get transportation may run down to Ocean City to see him. I also told Harry B. Adams that he was the kind of a man you would like to take hold of the University. He said if he were allowed to draw a sufficient salary he would undertake the business management & would guarantee to turn in Lakes entire estate as an endowment. Mr. Lake thinks a great deal of Adams for Adams has assisted in the management of his estate for a great many years.

Please tell me the real name of John's wife. Is it Emily G. Howard?

Gen. O. O. Howard,
Burlington, Vt.

Dear General,

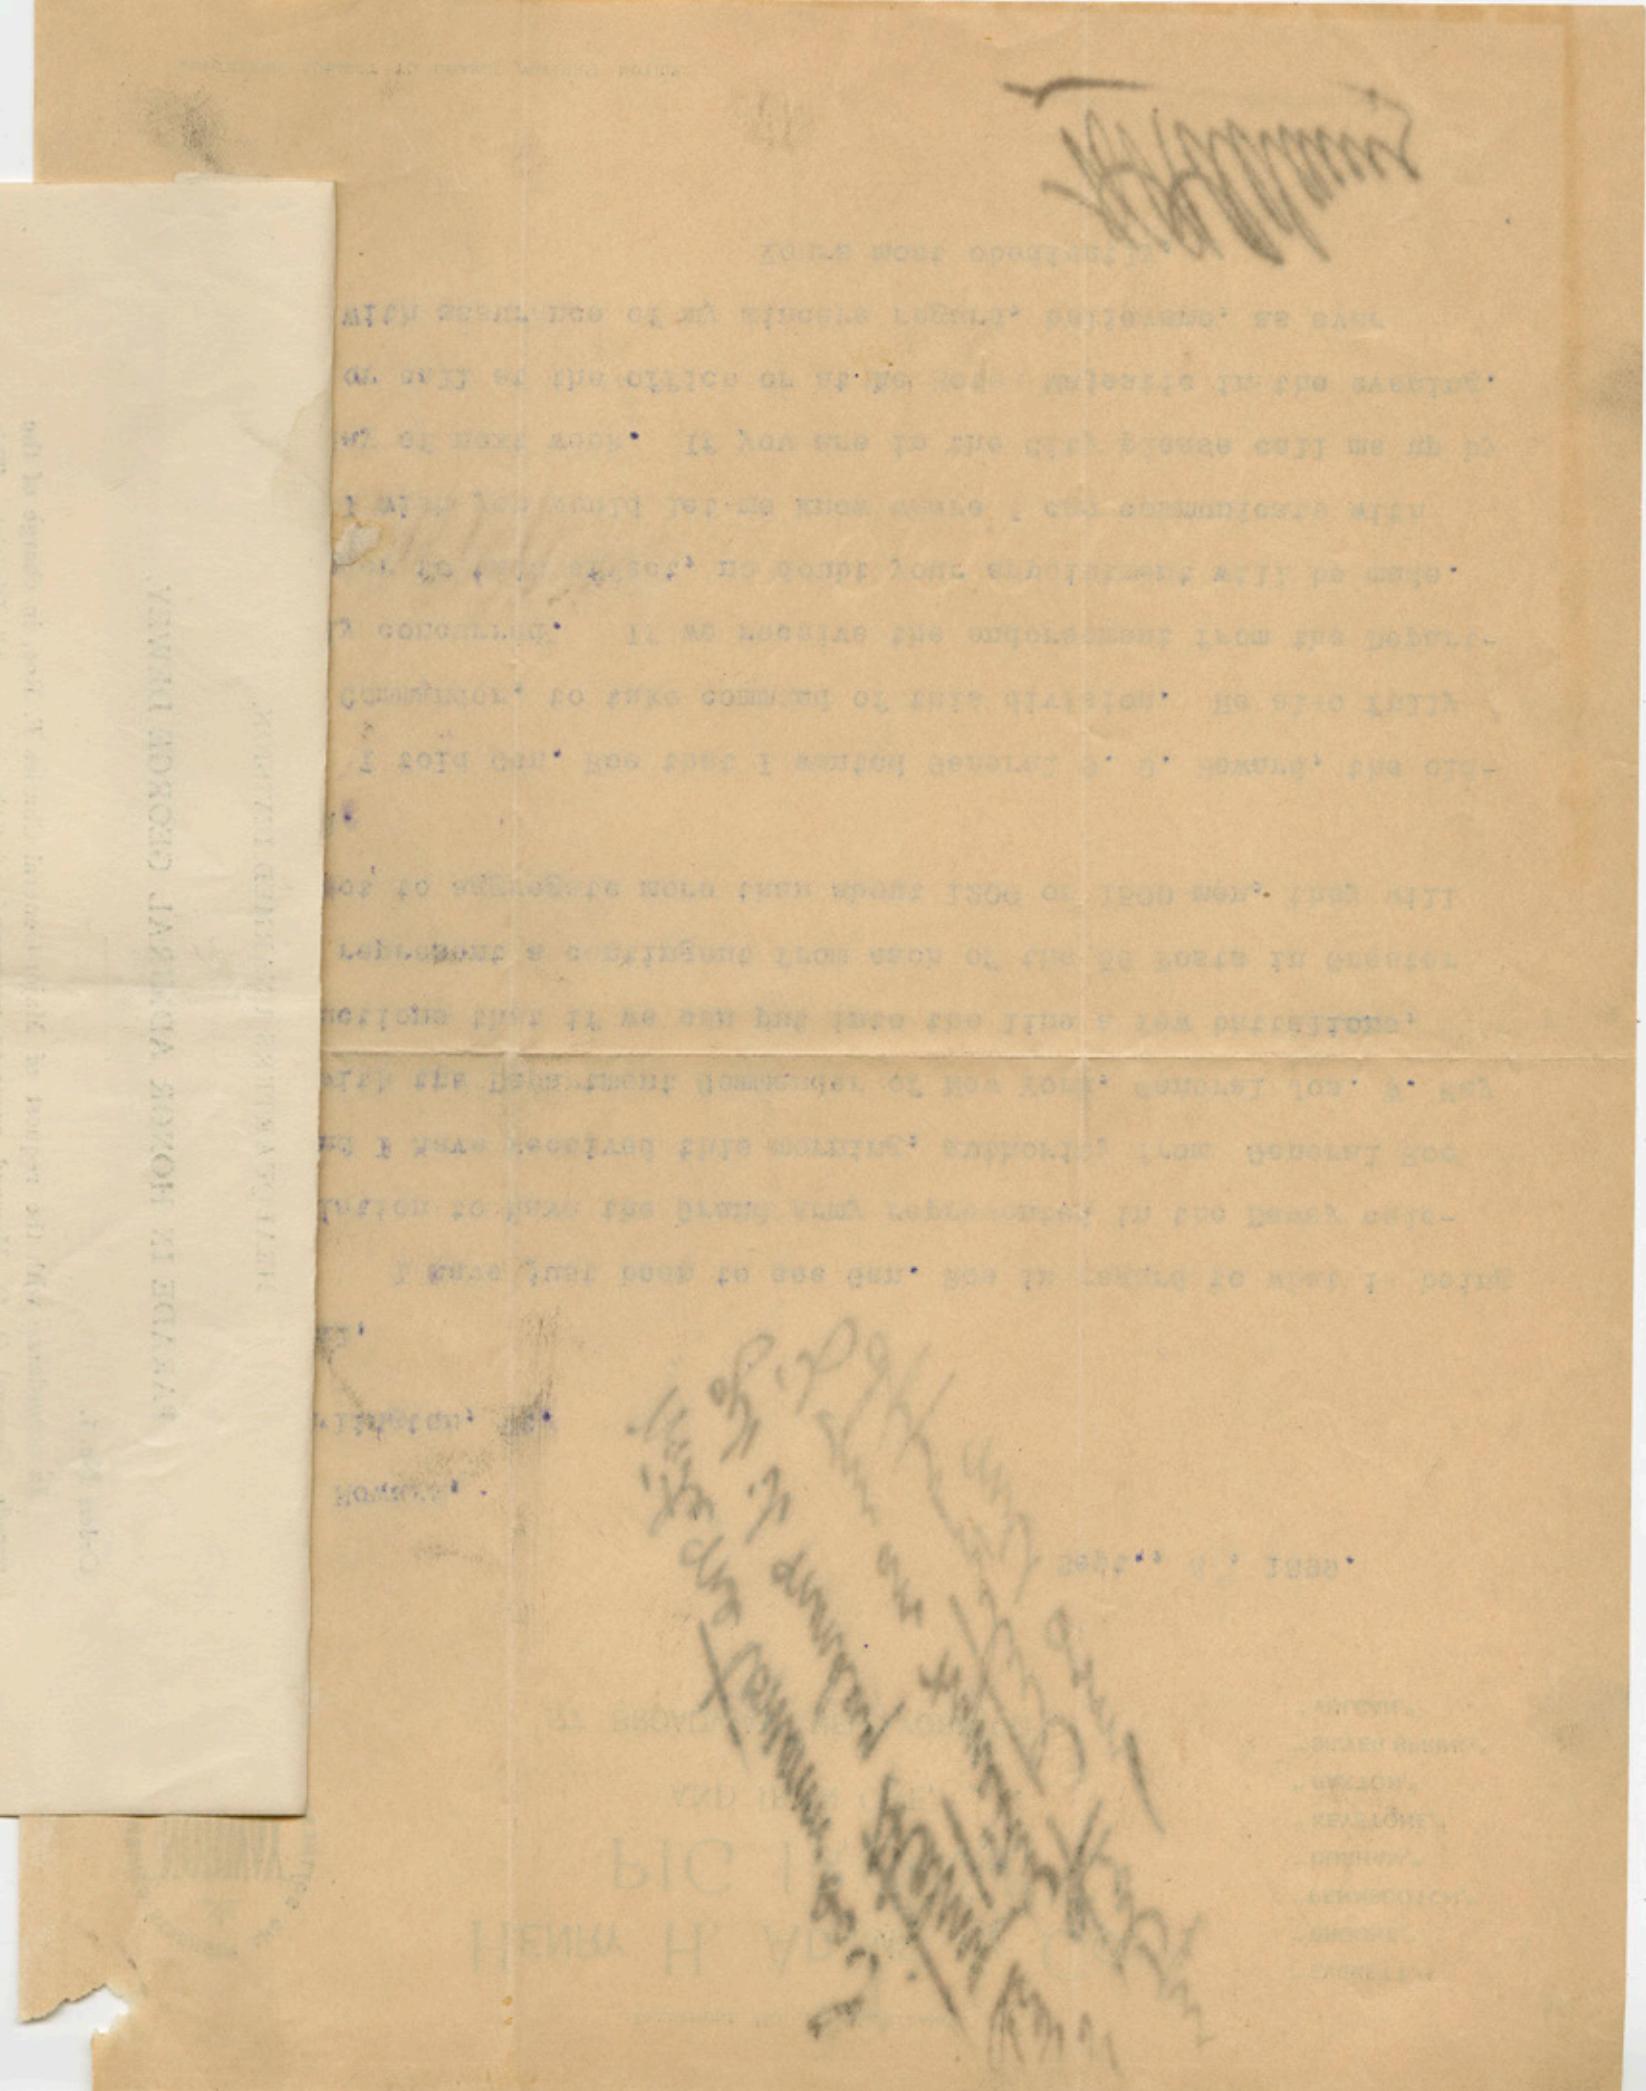

I have just been to see Gen. Roe in regard to what is being done in relation to have the Grand Army represented in the Dewey celebration, and I have received this morning, authority from General Roe to confer with the Department Commander of New York, General Jos. W. Kay with instructions that if we can put into the line a few battalions, which will represent a contingent from each of the 56 Posts in Greater New York, not to aggregate more than about 1200 or 1500 men, they will be admitted.

I told Gen. Roe that I wanted General O. O. Howard, the oldest living Commander, to take command of this division. He also fully and heartily concurred. If we receive the endorsement from the Department Commander to this effect, no doubt your appointment will be made.

I wish you would let me know where I can communicate with you on Monday of next week. If you are in the City please call me up by telephone, or call at the office or at the Hotel Majestic in the evening.

With assurance of my sincere regard, believe me, as ever

Yours most obediently,

HEADQUARTERS UNARMED DIVISION.

PARADE IN HONOR ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY.

Orders No. 1.

In accordance with the request of Major-General Charles F. Roe, in charge of the parade, General O. O. Howard assumes command of "the unarmed" Division. This division will consist of:

1st. Union and Confederate Veterans of the Civil War to be assembled and organized in accordance with the general formation at 72d Street and Riverside Drive, and kept under his immediate command. Veterans not attached to organizations will organize so as to conform to the column formation 16 file front.

2d. The Detachments of Veterans of the Spanish War to be located in 116th Street west of Amsterdam Avenue, head of column resting on Amsterdam Avenue. This detachment will consist of Colonel John Jacob Astor's demi-brigade, made up of his several battalions, and Colonel William H. Hubbell's regiment of Spanish War Veterans of Brooklyn. The Demi-Brigade and the regiment of Colonel Hubbell to be considered a full brigade under the command of Major-General J. Warren Keifer.

The different organizations of this Division will take up the march immediately following the armed troops as soon as they have passed, except at 72d Street where the Union Veterans of the Civil War, followed by the ex-Confederates, will take the head of General Howard's Division. The entire detachment of Spanish War Veterans will halt for that purpose at 72d Street and follow the Veterans of the Civil War.

With the view of helping to perfect the organizations of the Veterans for the march, and to make assignments to specific duty with other organizations, the General desires to meet his staff and give them instructions at 72d Street and Riverside Drive as early as 10.30 A.M., on the morning of the parade.

The General can only advise the Veterans of the Civil War with reference to uniform and equipment. He would be glad to have the Veterans in such uniform as they choose and with side-arms, but this cannot be insisted on where the men come simply as Veterans of the Civil War. They will be welcome with or without uniforms and organized as best possible for the honor of the parade. It will be well to wear some badge (any badges that are customarily worn on public occasions) to indicate the fact of being a veteran.

The officers of the staff are requested to approximate a full dress uniform as nearly as they can. Side-arms for officers of this command will be considered as badges of authority.

The time designated for assembly of the Civil War Veterans is 11.45 A.M. at 72d Street and Riverside Drive.

The time designated for assembly of the Manhattan and Brooklyn Regiments is 11 A.M. at 116th Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

By command of Major-General O. O. HOWARD,
HENRY H. ADAMS,

Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff.

Besides the $300⁰⁰ you gave me, to pay the bill due Sept 1st, I have paid out the $300⁰⁰ and put off some of the bills till now. Most of the unpaid bills are due the boys, and others for work done on the farm, and about the buildings in July & Aug, and now they want what is due them, I guess they need it, specially the boys who want to buy clothing &c. to get ready for school.

If you can, I would be glad to receive $200⁰⁰ from you in a few days, or Col. Adams, can place it to my credit in the N.Y. Bank, and I will check it out. Will not need any more until the ~~last~~ end of this month.

If any scholarships are available just now, a few of them can be used to good advantage, as there are some here who need the assistance. I hope you had a pleasant time at the encampment.

Sincerely yours

Dear Sir:

You may have forgotten me or not recognizing me in this place. I have been for eight years president of Miami University - and for the past four years president of the Ohio Sunday School Association. You may remember me in that capacity - a year ago last June in the Board of Trade Auditorium in Columbus when you came up to speak for us.

I am now president here succeeding Mr. J. H. Canfield.

Ianto you inquire if you know any retired army officer of good character and competent to take charge of our University Battalion. Under the Muster Act we need money and are required to teach military tactics.

We have usually had a detail from the army and a West Point graduate but the demand for army officers is now so great that the department

I would like to thank the D. M. C. for their support and encouragement. They have been a great help to me in my work.

The university is a fine place to work in and I am grateful for the opportunities it has given me. I hope to continue my studies at the university for many years to come.

Finally, I would like to thank all the students for their hard work and dedication to the university. You have all made a difference in my life and I am grateful for your efforts.

My Dear Genl. Howard

Will it be a pleasure for you, knowing as you do of the character of our work, here, to say a kind commending word in its behalf? I shall prize it highly and am sure it will be blessed to the advancement of the Home Missionary Training work which we have in hand. We all arrived home safely and shall remember, with gratitude, the kindness we received at your hands while in Burlington and at the Hartford meeting. The Quarette & to you. Should you visit the West we speak now for a lecture and will give you a welcome & reception of the western type, plus a good lecture fee. Awaiting your pleasure. I remain

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of a message to any point on the lines of this Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz, one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance. Dear Father:

Philadelphia Sept 11 1897

You letter rec'd with enclosure. Also one from Mother & the suit ~~box~~ of John's which I am wearing. "It is all right." I have written John my many thanks.

David

I also thank you very much for the proposition to ^{to die} insure Lawrence's life for the benefit of Brittie ^{[John also wrote me that he wants} ^[after hearing from you] & I will write John for further instructions. However I would like to confer with you in regard to writing him a better policy than the one selected by John & also ask you what your understanding of John's idea is. It perhaps did not occur to you that if John went to Manila & lost his life there the insurance would not be paid to Brittie, but on the contrary would still be a liability of $56⁶⁸ per year that you, Lawrence or Brittie would have to continue or all money paid would be lost, & furthermore John's income would ~~not~~ have ceased. It is against my interest to say this, but if I am going to be a life insurance agent I am going to be a conscientious one. I'm trying to persuade John to insure his life I firmly believe & still maintain that it is merely asking him to do one of the best things he can possibly do for himself & wife. In event of his living to the legal age of retirement (as I feel sure he will) he will thank me for the increase in income. In the event of his being unable to keep up the payments he can stop anytime & demand his money's worth a fair quid pro quo. Lastly in the event of premature death - this Company pays to Britton much more than it receives from John in premiums.

Of course I can understand that John is now having many thoughts & worries flashing through his mind & does not want to sit down & give this matter as much hard studious thought as the officers ~~have~~ of this Company have been doing for the past 21 years, but I am now a student of Life insurance under Mr. Wheaton & the others here whom I am sorry you did not meet & I think I ought to be ^{retained as} a sort ofatty. to look after his best interests in matter pertaining to this part of his estate.

I have not as yet written to John in regard to this matter & probably it will not be necessary if you will send me the following information: Lawrence's full name, age, & address & where born. Who is to pay the premium for the first few years & who is to pay the final payments in the event of the first party's inability.

Of course father I am very anxious to write this policy on the life of Lawrence or anybody else, for the filing of the application at this time will be a great help to me in my standing. I have a good many cases pending & want some closed & soon. Wish done to all
