Gen O. A. Howard

Burlington Vermont

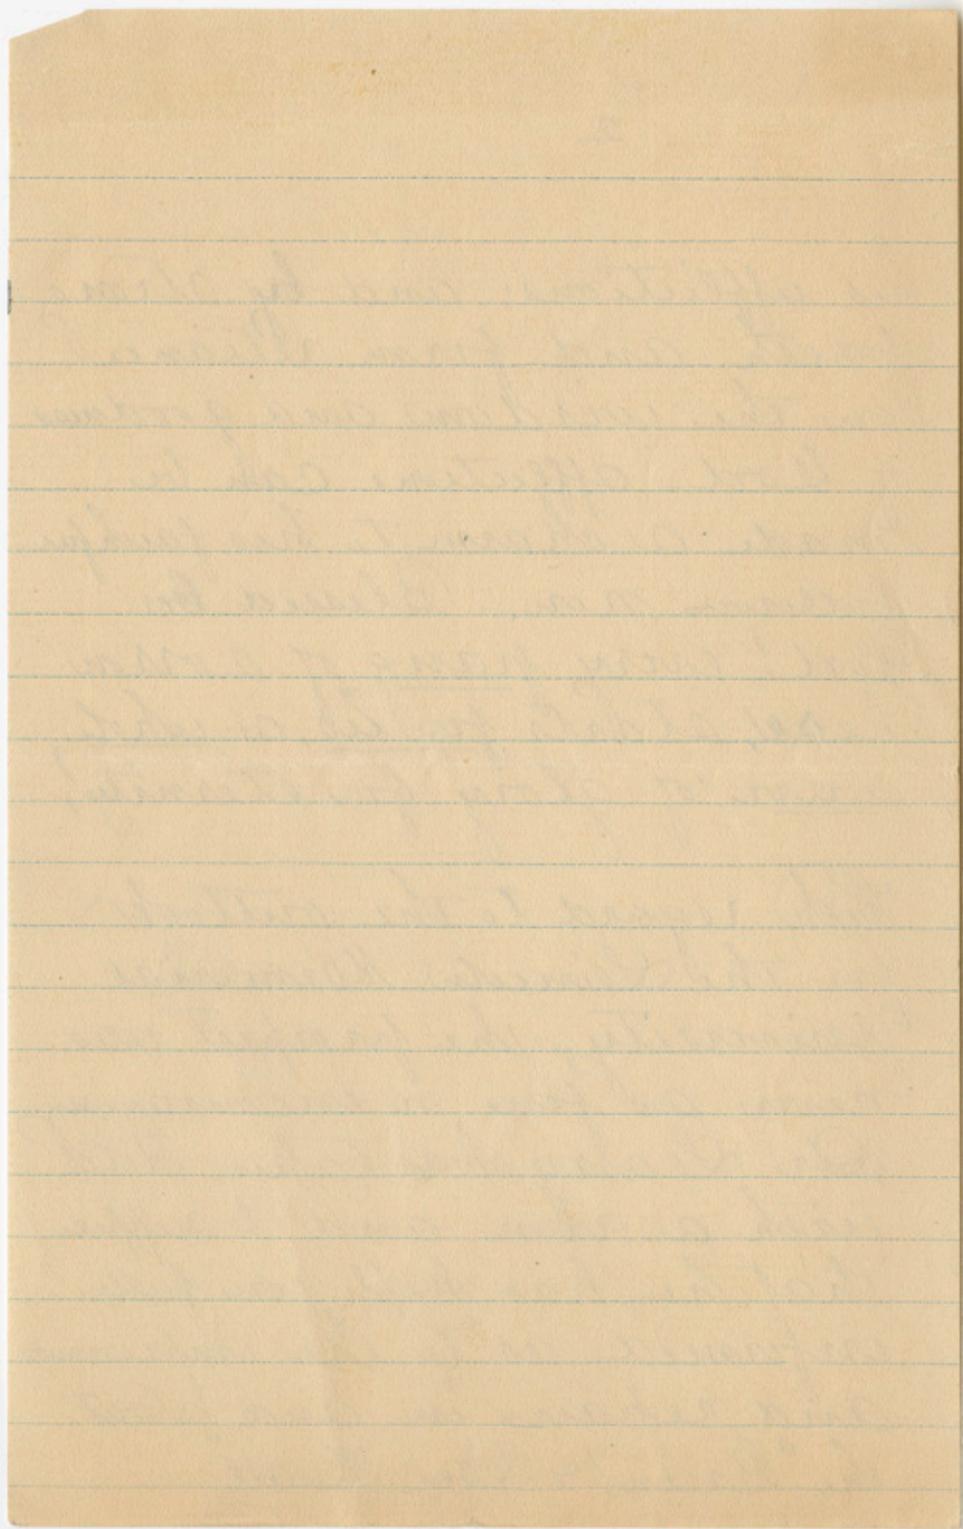

My dear General,

I intended writing you a letter of sympathy after the death of your son in the Philippines, but we thought it best to send the united sympathy of the Board. It certainly is a sad blow to you and to Mrs Howard and you have the deepest sympathy of all your friends in this Community. But God never afflicts a good man, but for a higher good. "A far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" - was a talisman to Paul in all his afflictions; and by strong faith and firm reliance on the wisdom and goodness of God - afflictions can be made a charm to his faithful followers now. Blessed be God! every pang of sorrow here, starts forth, as whole wave of glory for eternity!

With regard to the outlook for the Lincoln Memorial University, the prospect was never so fine or encouraging. Dr. Leary has taken hold with a vim, and I suppose that he has kept you fully informed as to the improvements and repairs in and about the "Grant & Lee Hall".

The work has been performed by the young men of the School except that necessarily done by experts on machinery &c. The more I see and know of Dr Leary - the firmer my conviction that you have wisely chosen the right man for the right place.

I believe that you - and through you the Board have been divinely directed in this selection. This brings me to a point about which I beg leave to say a few things. Mr Egan tells me that you are annoyed by letters from Dr Lansing, who has undertaken to right Mr Moyre's wrongs - and to plac

This whole University enterprise - at least nominally under the supervision of Mr Keyes, - and actually under the care of those whom Mr Keyes may select.

You and I both know Mr Keyes well enough, to know, that he would be a capital soldier leading a "pioneer Corps" - or a body of "appers and miners", but I would never do to place upon him the responsibilities of fighting a battle.

His failure in executive ability is want of method and his chieftains under him would never know where to find him, or be able to understand his plans.

Besides Mr Meyers heart is not in the enterprise that you are trying to develop. He thinks he would be doing far more good to build up a lot of orphanages for destitute children - than to waste his time on a great University which is to develop the talent and true manhood of these fine specimens of American boys in the Mountains.

I do not think I under^{mate}~~stand~~ the executive ability of Mr Meyers - and I know that I appreciate his great heartedness for the poor children of the Country But Mr. Moyers cannot, neither can any who follow his lead - build a great Memorial School Such as I am confident will be built under the present management I have my doubts whether either Mr. Moyers or Dr Leansing could give you an intelligent idea if what they wish to do if the whole enterprise were placed in their hands. - The Arthur premises - and the Hearogah Bun property - purchased by the Leansing people will be very important appendages to the L. Mc W-property if they choose to make it so. But it may be a very fine financial speculation if the University is a success - but I think the test of friendship for the University will be that they either make a gift of the two properties to the University - or to hold them for the University at their purchasing price whenever the University shall be able to take the property from off their hands -

If this is not their intention then I think that Mr Meyers is too light a man to place himself on the 6

Track in front of this great educational engine, He cannot stop it, and we do not care to have any other conductors or engineers in care of this engine now except you and Dr Leary - and the break men already in charge -

Again expressing my deep sympathy for you in your sorrow I am close. Please give my kindest regards to your son who was here with you, and to Col Adam when you write to him

Truly your friend

My dear General.

Upon enclosed sheet I give names and addresses of men in Phila. called upon by for subscriptions to the Lincoln Memorial University.

I should like to receive a letter addressed to each one, in which a short synopsis is given of the present situation. The same form would do for each name in this letter my calls upon them might ^{be} mentioned, also the editorial article and your article in the ^{I will see that they get a copy.} Tribune. They might be thanked for their kindness to Mr. Hall who called upon them before the debt was raised now that it is raised they surely will feel to join cooperate in so worthy a cause. These are merely suggestive points.

I should be pleased to receive these letters from you as soon as convenient, and trusting that your happiness and great joy this Christmas time will exceed that of all past years I am, as ever,

Very Sincerely,

Dear General,

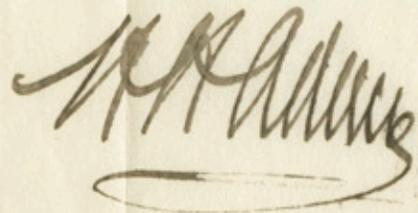

Your note of the 18th inst. at hand. Inadvertently I stated Feb'y. 14th. I intended to say Lincoln's Birthday, Feb'y. 12th, and your date was correct. I sincerely hope you will communicate with President McKinley and also with Hon. Benj. Harrison. Rev. Dr. Hillis of Plymouth Church has consented to speak on this occasion and is very enthusiastic over the project, at least so our friend Fairchild reports, he having had an interview with him.

I leave this afternoon for the furnaces, and shall not return to New York until the latter part of the week.

SOUVENIR SWORD

You remember, General, my speaking to you about some old souvenir upon which you do not place great value. I am very desirous of having some such souvenir as this, preferably a sword, for the reason that sometime ago Gen'l. Miles stated that he would send me one of his swords and Gen'l. Siegel also gave me one, and I have quite a collection of swords, which some day will be a remarkable aggregation. How will it be to your adding to this collection. You know I should greatly appreciate one.

You remark, General, in speaking to me about some old invention that I do not place great value. I am very desirous of having some such invention as this, particularly a sword, for the

My Dear General:

I hope this will find you enjoying the blessings of good health. My duties here have commenced to tell somewhat upon me and I am not as well as when I last saw you.

I send you enclosed copy of a bill introduced by Senator Pettigrew for my relief; I don't know as I need any relief but I do need what the U. S. owes me and what is justly due me. I have never applied for a pension, nor asked for anything but what is my honest due. If you can assist me by writing a letter to your senator and also to your congressman endorsing the facts stated in said bill and requesting them to help shove it along I shall consider it merely as an additional of the many kindnesses you have shown me.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas; all the compliments of the season, and above all good health, I am,

Dear Sir :

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of Nov. 25th. I trust it is needless for me to assure you that anything I can do to better the condition of the regular will be done most cheerfully.

It will give me great pleasure to support the bill retiring enlisted men after 25 years service, instead of after 30 years as at present. Such a law, if enacted, would not only be a simple act of justice, but I am inclined to think would greatly facilitate the enlistment of the best class of our young men.

I am, with kind regards,

Dear Papa -

I wish you could step in to greet us this Xmas and I know just how you would enjoy these young people, who are so fast growing up. They will soon begin to take care of us now, and then James & fears will scatter, (unless we can afford to keep them together) to earn their "livelihood" or otherwise - I hope they will keep well and fulfil the promise they have given so far of becoming useful members of this busy world.
Their life so far has been one tending to encourage them to activity and usefulness - What more need we wish for - It is better so for them, and all of us. May Grace and Jeanie are becoming good German students, and can soon give me instruction! Grace lost some two weeks, and finds algebra factoring a little difficult. All men up at six this morning making up for lost time yesterday. May plays accompaniments on the piano very acceptably, and has a sweet voice for singing, but probably not one strong enough to be worth much cultivation. Grace has a very correct ear and takes up the violin as well as ^{does} Howard with pleasure. Grace shows great talent in drawing. Howard does the best drawing in his room; and was selected to make the map of Europe for the Coming Exposition here. This makes up a little for his low standing in other studies sometimes. I see that he will stand better as he begins to try, and pay attention. He is bright enough to stand well, only makes his time by attending to other things going on about him. He can put in more time doing nothing than any one I know. He has no nerves yet and enjoys football about as well as anything - also dancing.

He is a graceful figure, and one that attracts attention always on the floor. His teacher is very proud of him, and "loves to watch him." Last Saturday evening he danced in his sister's class in the evening, (as they were short of one boy) and he led the march and some intricate evolutions in the "German" figures very well - and was a very happy little fellow - There were only two little girls small enough for him to dance with in the class.
Jeanie has an ambition to "write books" - and we shall help her prepare for that, to the best of our ability. She is growing very tall and fine looking. She is not to let any body in. To say that I am disappoint-

It was not my purpose that so many days should pass before sending you some word concerning our present genial men. For the most part they are intellectually strong, and evangelically earnest. It is worth much to have intercourse with such men. Various public, and ministerial gatherings have afforded much enjoyment - weekly meetings of the pastors of the city, and of one of the Congregational Club, at which Prof Walker read a paper on the old Theologian, Dr Hopkins. But I am feeling, as I expected to feel, somewhat hungry for work. To stand thus with the way apparently hedged up, may be a wholesome and a needed experience, but in order to bear it beautifully, we must have help from above. I am reminded of what you have done on my behalf, and thank you again for it, and I shall continue to be very grateful for any suggestion where you may see fit to make it, that I am ready to supply or second help it. We have both needed an eye when the value of old friends is better appreciated, but I am sure that you have not realized how much your friendship has been worth to me, and the help given in many ways. One of the most pleasant things to be remembered, of our

December 21st

Gen'l O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir

I enclose a coin of but little value ($5.00) in a work of such grand symmetrical proportions as that you wish to carry on in Eastern Tennessee. Perhaps, however, the hearty sympathy & many prayers which will follow the gift may enlarge its usefulness. There are many sacred associations connected with it & I have often looked at it & wondered to what I could appropriate it that was commensurate to its value in my eyes! Your appeal of Dec. 5th in the "Tribune" gave me the inspiration to use it in response, as I have nothing else to give & only wish that I had more to add to it.

I am interested in the reception Sister Hospital, Calhoun, & Mt. Olive & in Cumberland Gap for the future.

My response has been delayed by my effort to send it to you summarily but has failed so will ask you to record it as a "friend in our misery."

We meet at Dr. Rankin's, of whose church, ^{Orange} Valley Cong. I have been a member for thirty years.

I cannot close without expressing my deep sympathy for the loss of your noble son.

I remain yours truly

My Dear Gen. Howard:

I thank you for your prompt & appreciative response. But I am sorry to say that it looks now as though our plans for the class would all fall thro'. We had hoped to have such men as you and Carnegie and Dr Buckley and Dr Square Abbott and Carl Schurz and others but we were too late in getting out our invitations. All the men - except you and Mr S. B. Capen - whom we have thus far approached have had so many engagements as to render it unwise for them to make any more. We are therefore just now pondering the question 'What shall we do?' We shall reach a conclusion in a few weeks. In the meantime, I cannot ask you to hold the 14th of January open. If we could secure some one for the 7th we might begin & go on faith, but just now the man at the head of the class is off for the holidays & I must wait until he returns. Sincerely yours Charles E. Dear Dr. Howard,-

Send along another appeal and we will put it in The Christian Herald. The account is, as you know, overdrawn, at the same time I am willing to send you the total amount resulting from the appeal. Let it be brief. Let it be pointed. If possible let us have a new way of presenting it, for instance: "Who will undertake the education of one scholar for one year, at so much? Send me your name and I will put you in direct communication with the protege."

Something tangible, something practical like that I think might take where general appeals on indefinite lines fail. We are very busy. There is almost enough work to kill, and I am hard driven, but that your appeal may get here by Saturday in time to go into the issue for which we that day close the forms I lay aside other matters and reply to yours of the 19th.

Very cordially yours,

L. Klopsch

Dear General
I thank you for the Omaha paper & the Loyal Legion Memorial to the dear lamented Guy. I have read them with deep & sorrowful interest. The hearty tributes to his Character & service are well deserved. He gave his precious life to his Country & fell a loyal soldier at the post of duty.
And now his Commander Stanton has quickly followed him.
Such losses make us regret that our good President was not left to effect his earnest desires for peace.

Dear Sir:-

All of us at the Christian Endeavor headquarters are deeply grieved at the death of Mr. Moody. We wish to print in our next number some tributes to this most eminent Christian worker, and we hope that you will contribute a few sentences, confining the message to about one hundred words. We know that you will be glad to do this if you have time, and that you will understand the need of great promptness. All of our readers will appreciate your words, and we ourselves will be grateful for your kindness.

Sincerely yours,

Amos R. Wells

Dear Gen. Howard, —

Your note and the book came duly to hand; I am very much obliged to you.
I hope I may keep the book for about two weeks as I wish to study it carefully. I shall return it as soon as I have made the extracts I want.

With Christmas Greetings

Truly yours

My dear General
The N.Y. Tribune were sent to you by Express and through misunderstanding on the part of Mr Goodie were sent C.O.D. It was not intended to go this way. Will take you out to dinner when you come down and ever uh?
Hope you will have a merry Xmas and a prosperous New Year. I leave tomorrow morning for Felius Grove Pa where I join my family. Will return to New York

Jan 30' again,

I enclose you a card of a Mr Warner who called in here this AM, to see you.
Simply to pay his respects he informed me.
