Dear Guel Howard,

I have not heard from Henry Watterson yet. I plan to go to Louisville the last of this week or first of next. If you have passes that will take me from Louisville to Chicago and from Chicago to NY I would like it. I would like to see Dr. Gray or in Chicago. I don't remember me after I wrote you last that J.M. Williams expected to go to Cal in Nov. So it may be some time before you hear from him. Everything seems to be going well at the FA. They have now run with students. Most sincerely yours,

Dear [Recipient],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my thoughts and feelings about our recent meeting. As we discussed, I am deeply moved by your words and the way you articulated your perspective.

Your insights have opened up a new way of understanding the matter at hand. I believe it is essential to consider all viewpoints and not to be swayed by the majority. Your argument has convinced me, and I am committed to following through with your proposal.

Thank you for your wisdom and guidance. I look forward to our next meeting and discussing the next steps.

Sincerely,

Dear Uncle Otis,

A Happy New Year to you! — and many thanks for your kind introduction to Mr. Washburne — which I presented, and met with a pleasant reception. They will not build until they have sold the old church, which is not yet done.

I presented Mr. Rogers to Col. Adams, who was much interested but not in shape to do anything. —

Brother Otis and his wife are here in N.Y. and have luncheoned and dined with us. — He seems prosperous and in healthy.

Kind friends remembered us in various ways this Christmas and all things about us are serene.

Rush joins in love to you and all.

My dear General:

Dr. Martyn has spoken to me with reference to the matter which you brought to his attention on Wednesday last. Since I value very highly your friendship, and desire to retain your confidence, you will, I am sure, permit me to explain my relation with Mr. F. Tennyson Neely, Publisher.

For a time, before Dr. Martyn and myself formed our present partnership, I had charge of Mr. Neely's Literary Department, and received a salary from him. Later, Dr. Martyn and I created the business which we now own, and through which we examine, report upon and suggest terms of acceptance of such manuscripts as we think well of, for a number of prominent publishing houses. Mr. Neely was one of those for whom we did business of this kind on commission. He referred authors to me; I saw them, and if they wished to pay money through me to Mr. Neely, I received it as his agent and accounted for it to him. Sometimes, at his request, I drew up contracts on such lines as he had personally suggested to me, and forwarded them to the authors he designated, or whom I saw on his behalf. I never had any further connection with his business, and when he failed in October, he owed us sixteen hundred dollars for services of this kind.

I do not know what he may have said to authors and others with reference to our connection, but I do know that I have now told you the
Dear Mr. [Name],

I am writing to express my concern regarding the recent development in our company. I have noticed a significant drop in the productivity of our department, which has caused delays in our projects.

I believe that the reason behind this decline lies in the current workload. We have been assigned a large number of tasks without adequate resources, which has led to increased stress and burnout among the team.

I would like to suggest that we reassess our current workload and redistribute the tasks more fairly. Additionally, I think it would be beneficial to increase the resources available to our team, such as providing more support staff or additional training.

I would appreciate it if you could review the situation and take the necessary steps to address it. Your prompt attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
whole truth in regard to it.

Where manuscripts were written by comparatively unknown authors, and had a doubtful commercial value, he was in the habit of exacting from them a certain payment for his partial security. He did not exact such payments from all, as you very well know, since you yourself paid him nothing, nor did your friend, Miss Twitchell. Knowing his wishes in this respect, I sometimes suggested to him what amounts, if any, he might fairly ask, and where these were paid, they of course went to him, though occasionally they may have passed through my hands to him, as I have above stated.

I have been thus explicit, because, as I repeat, it is my earnest desire to retain your affection and confidence. When you come to know me better, I am sure that you will hold me as guiltless in all matters touching my reputation for fair dealing, as you do our mutual friend, Dr. Martyn.

If you could make it convenient at some time in the near future to give me fifteen minutes of your valuable time, I might make this clearer to you than I have in this bare recital of facts in the case.

Meantime, believe me, with renewed assurances of my regard,

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

Your favor regarding Gen. Howards dates to hand. You speak of the "two dates" Did you all close with Bement? I have had nothing regarding a date at Redfield, S.D. The Committeeman at Urbana mentioned it to me, and it seems the letter was forwarded to him by the General, instead of to me. It has been misplaced, but if you can give me the address of the inquirer I will take the matter up.

If you have another date booked in connection with the one at Urbana, let me know, so we will not collide. When the General comes west, hope to see him, and arrange more definitely our business relations. They have been badly mixed up of late.

Will do what I can to get more dates, tho' it is now late in the season to do much. Have you had any inquiry from Bloomington?

And a word as to prices. I want to get as much as possible, and at Urbana had priced the General at $150, when in a personal letter to Mr. Hoppin he only asked $100. You can see what effect this would have?

With good wishes to the General and yourself for the new year and the new century, believe me

My dear General,

I have your favor of the 29th ult., stating you wish to go to New York with Mrs. Howard. Will you return this way with Mrs. Howard and bring her with you to our home? Mrs. Howard joins me in this most cordial invitation. We will be ready for you by Sat. Jan. 13, or later. I gave your letter to Mr. John M. Clark, 47 Court St., Boston. As I have written you he wants to see you, and I would like to talk over matters with you. So I hope you can come to Boston. I am glad to hear such good accounts of Mr. Lamj's work at Cumberland Gap. I trust he is the right man in the right place. Capt. Bird will be glad to see you. I guess he didn't dare to invite you to the Boston Club again after the famous dinner Mr took there and what Mr. saw. Mr. Ford of the Youth's Companion has passed away before Mr. could call on him, and your friend T. L. Moody has gone to a rich reward. How fact they can no.

In my best wishes for a happy New Year to Mr. Howard. Accept same for yourself. Let me know if you accept and when you expect to be here.

I hope soon to hear that you have raised the endowment fund money $100,000.
Danforth & Co.,
29 Oliver St., Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Danforth:

I write to state that as the principal object for which you were employed in connection with the raising of funds for the Lincoln Memorial University debt, etc. has been accomplished by the joint efforts of yourself, Mr. Miller and myself and others, acting sometimes together and sometimes independently, I write to say that after a conversation with my Advisory Board and correspondence with the Executive Committee, it has been decided best that your firm and its members cease efforts to obtain donations or other funds for the University, and this is a notice that our business relations cease on Saturday, January 6th, 1900, except in so far as the following persons are concerned, a list of whom is attached to this letter, for I believe you or Mr. Miller have made preliminary arrangements to see or have seen them and there remains some prospect of obtaining subscriptions for the University from one or more of them.

Kindly do what is possible to obtain subscriptions from the persons named in the list on or before January 31st, 1900. This leaves you an opportunity to obtain subscriptions from them, if obtainable, and provides for an entire closing of our business relations by the end of the present month. This is best for you as well as myself and associates because in an undertaking of this kind, if prolonged, would distract from the real work of your firm and its success in the lines for which it was created and at the same time leaves the University with its debt paid and its future to be looked after by its own authorities.

I shall always bear in mind our pleasant personal relations and be ready to put in a good word for you and your firm.

Yours truly,

Mr. President,

I write to urge your consideration of our request for the temporary appointment of Professor Johnson to the position of Acting Chairman of the Department of History for the remainder of the academic year. Dr. Johnson has demonstrated his ability to lead the department during his tenure as Acting Chairman last year, and his contributions to the academic community have been invaluable.

Please consider his appointment as a means to stabilize the department during this period. I am confident that his leadership will ensure a smooth transition and continue to foster the growth and development of our students.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Dear Sir,

Yours of Nov 24th 1899 received, and noted; but I have been laid up with lagrippe now for the last two months, and unable therefore to reply; but you can say to Gen. Howard for me, that all taxes that are due on his property in Kern County I have paid, and forwarded the receipts to Mc. Afee Brothers, as his agents.

I will close up a deal for 40 acres of the land next Monday, and send on for the deed, and the remaining 120 acres I have sold, but the purchaser can not get his money to pay for it until April. By the first of May I want to be able to make final settlement with Gen. Howard. I send my very kindest regards to the General; and pray that he may live long to enjoy his worthy honors. You will hear from me again in a few days.

I remain,

Very truly yours,

We have no reply to our letter of the 29th ult. We do long to have our President who is so well accustomed to leading forces enter with us upon the campaign we are just about inaugurating for driving away the parties that so much disturb our peace and hinder our work. They have a right to come and ask us to satisfy their claims, and we as debtors are under bonds.

You have had a great deal to do in assisting people, and in sympathy and sacrifice for those that were bowed down you have a record excelled by few if any. Now please come. May the Lord bring you to us with all your old powers and the new ones that experience and age have given you.
