My Dear General:- I was a member of your brigade at the first Bull Run. You probably do not recall a drive the Sunday following, from the Scott House where you were holding religious services, to your headquarters in the matter of a leave of absence for Captain Sherwood of the Fifth Maine who was severely wounded. It was your humble servant that drove you over. I have a son living in Maine who is a most enthusiastic "Son of Veteran." He is endeavoring for a very laudable purpose to secure autograph cards to fill an elegant autograph card album of soldiers of the Civil War. He has secured a very large number including nearly all the General officers now living, as well as a number of comrades such as McKinley, Dewey, Harrison and others who have attained high distinction in civil life. He is very anxious to secure your autograph card for this album and I write you in his interest. Will you oblige me and please him by writing your autograph on the enclosed card and return to me.

My Dear General:- I was a member of your brigade at the first Battle of Bull Run. You dropped off to assist a driver the Sunday following, from the Scott House where you were providing services to your party. This officer is the master of a large estate for Captain Sherman. The Little Mine who was severely wounded. It was your simple result that drove you over. I have a son living in Mine who is a man of great physique "Son of Veterans". He is endeavoring for a very large purpose of some negotiation with the rebels to fill an urgent supply case at your office of the Civil War. He has secured a very large number of officers still the general officers now living, as well as a number of countrymen such as McKinley, Dewey, Harrison and others who have attained high distinction in civil life. He is very anxious to secure your advice on this subject. Will you oblige me by letting him a writing your signature on the enclosed card and let him to you in his interest.

Major General O. O. Howard,

My dear General,-

You will of course remember speaking and writing to me at different times about the trouble in our Home Missionary Church at Tryon, N.C. I understood perfectly that you were considerably annoyed by the complaints made to you as President of the C. H. M. S., and set myself to work in earnest to learn the real condition of things. My first move was to stir up our Executive Committee.

After hearing all there was to be said, the Committee voted to send our good brother, Dr. J. D. Kingsbury, down there to make a thorough investigation. He attended to the duties assigned him, and finally reported as follows, viz:

"I visited Tryon and went from house to house making searching investigation. I found that Mr. Brown, who made the complaint, had been so long a thorn and source of trouble every way, that by an almost unanimous vote he had been excommunicated from the Church.

The vote was entirely unanimous with the exception of a few who wanted to give Brown a little more space for repentance, and possibly one man who voted for Brown with no reservation.

I found that Brown's allegations were not true.

The pastor has done a good work. He is an able man, has built up the strongest congregation in that section. He has some infelicities, owing probably to a physical weakness from partial paralysis. According to his own statement this occasions a certain irritability which he deeply laments.

Perhaps owing to this, there was a feeling in the Church that he should lay aside the pastoral work, which he has done.

He had tried to work among the native population, but his health was not equal to much more than his pulpit work.

The man who succeeds him will have a grand opportunity in a strong, united church, and in the field of work opening among the "Mountain Whites".

I consulted all the members, and the testimony I gained was all our way, with the exception of one man, who is a bosom friend of Brown."

Sincerely yours,

J. William Rice

In reply to yours of the

Major General O. O. Howard,
Bridgeton, A.C.

A dear General:- You will of course remember when writing to me at different times about the stamp to the Home Missionary Council at Troy, N.Y. I understand perfectly what you were considering and may be of service to you as President of the C. H. M. S. and see myself to work in earnest to learn the best combination of things.

A little more was so far up the Hexamite Committee before us than our Board Project, Dr. G. D. Hubbard, gave place to make a trial.

A visit to the office of the Hexamite Association. He addressed us to the office of the Hexamite Association. We visited the office of the Hexamite Association, Dr. G. D. Hubbard, who made the committee.

The vote was ultimately unanimous with the exception of a few who abstained from voting for the project, and those who voted for it.

I found Mr. Brown's address more to the point. The pastor has done a good work. He is an able man, has put up the strongest opposition to the project. He has some influence.

He also brought news from the Boston Association that he would be present at the meeting of the Boston Association a few days hence.

He had tried to work among the various bodies, but his position was not easily to find the right one.

The man who succeeds Mr. Will have a ready opportunity now to do the same business as Mr. Brown did.

I consider him the best man, who is a son of Brown. "Montgomery Wilkes".

My dear General Howard

We are now so far along with our church building project that we hope to break ground soon and build this summer.

The second Sunday evening of May, the 13th, there is to be a meeting held in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in the interest of our Building Fund. The pastor of that church Dr. Johnston, will speak and some other good men, perhaps Dr. Babcock pastor of the Brick church. But whosoever else we may have our Board of Trustees would very much like to have you speak. There would be many who would be glad to hear you, and I know that your commendation of the work would be helpful. We have never yet made any personal appeal for aid, but we think we ought to let the friends of the Kingdom know what we are trying to do, and thus give them a chance to share our burdens and blessings if they will.

I trust it may be possible for you to help us on that occasion. Hoping for a favorable reply, I am
