DEAR SIR:

As contemplated, the special meeting of the Stockholders, held January 29th, 1900, increased the Capital Stock of this Company from $1,000,000.00 to $2,500,000.00; the additional $1,500,000.00 of stock to be sold from time to time as needed for improvements.

The Board of Directors have authorized the following new work to be done as rapidly as funds are provided, namely:

A heavy copper metallic circuit connecting Ogden, Utah, and Cheyenne, Wyoming, (Cheyenne is now connected with Denver), thus giving us through wires from Utah, Idaho and Montana points to Cheyenne, Denver, and places in the Colorado Telephone Company's system, at an estimated cost of	$175,000.00

A line from Logan, Utah, to Montpelier, Idaho, to cost	8,000.00
A line from Livingston, Montana, to Big Timber, Montana, to cost	7,500.00
The completion of the Weiser Valley line, to cost	3,500.00
A line from Nampa, Idaho, to Pearl, Idaho, (completed), to cost	5,000.00
A line from Corinne, Utah, to Malad, Idaho, to cost	15,000.00
Several new small Exchanges throughout our territory, to cost	15,000.00
A line North from Cheyenne to Douglas, Wyoming, to cost	50,000.00

A total of $279,000.00

We have now available funds of $79,000.00, so we will need $200,000.00 additional to complete the above work.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors, it was agreed to sell $200,000.00 of additional stock, and to give the present stockholders the first right to purchase such proportion of the new issue as their present holdings bear to the whole issued stock, as nearly as possible, and not issue fractional shares, (approximately one-fifth). The stock to be sold for par, namely $100.00 per share.

The allotment made for you under the above is ~~2~~ shares, costing $200.00. The stock will be ready for delivery July 10th, 1900. Remittances may be made before that date either to the Company direct, at Salt Lake City, or to Messrs. McCornick & Co., Bankers, Salt Lake City, who will receive the money and send certificates as directed.

The company's affairs are in a very satisfactory condition. We have neither Exchanges nor lines that are not profitable, and our earnings thus far this year indicate our ability to pay present dividends and add some to our surplus. In the judgment of the Management, the proposed new work will earn enough to pay the same dividends on the additional stock issued.

I enclose subscription blank, and if a favorable answer to this is not received by May 30th, the Management will infer that it is not your pleasure to take the additional stock, and will sell to other parties. Hoping, however, for a favorable reply, I remain,

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:-

We have at last received a communication from Mr. W. E. Deacon, who has been figuring with various purchasers for months past, in which he states that he has finally sold 60 acres adjoining the 80 acres last sold. The proposition is to pay $1,000. cash, you to give a deed for the 60 acres. This does not fulfill the terms of the agreement with Mr. Deacon, but you would still hold 103 acres as security for the balance due you after the payment of the $1,000., which would be about $2100.

Mr. Deacon further states that as soon as the sale of the 60 acres above referred to is completed he has a party who will take the remainder of the land and will pay the balance that will then be due you under the contract with Mr. Deacon.

We have, on your behalf, accepted Mr. Deacon's proposition, believing that the best thing you can do is to get rid of the property as rapidly as possible; and as Mr. Deacon is certainly making some little money out of the transaction, he will undoubtedly dispose of and pay for the land probably early this Summer.

This is another dry season, being the third that we have had in the Southern part of the State, and we very much fear that it will affect the sales of land for one or two years to come.

We wish very much that you would wire us immediately on receipt of this letter your approval or disapproval of this proposition, so that we may feel satisfied in the premises.

Hoping to hear from you both by telegram and by letter at an early date, we are,

Yours truly,

Livery Connected

Gettysburg, Pa., May 7th 1900

O. O. Howard
Burlington Vt.

Dear General; in 1898
I sent you a poem entitled "Battle of Gettysburg". I was surprised at the tone of your letter in reply - "we are trying to get poems, declamations and speeches that are like water, hot & cold - that is - of medium temperature. Your poem would set the South on fire". I am, my General, a lover of the truth, and it's God's eternal truth that we were right - eternally right,
and that the South was just as eternally wrong. In this poem I show forth Lee's ambition, and that he was ambitious beyond all reason and all Godliness is also an eternal truth, but still I protest that there is no word or thought in that poem to set the South on fire." The thought was to keep alive the fire of patriotism as these thousands of monuments erected on this field were intended to do.

But General, I do not write this letter to scold you. I am visiting this field for the first time since the great battle 37 years ago, and since I have been here I have written another poem - of a different type to be sure, but not to appallize for sustaining the supremacy of Old Glory on this and other fields nor to abate one jot of the spirit and thought of the 1st poem. In "Reverential" dear General, I think that even you can find no expression, that even tends toward firing the hearts of any man or woman North or South, except with love of Country and sorrow for the necessity that brought about this great sacrifice. From the fact that I have printed the two poems together is why I refer to your letter in this instance.

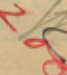

Hotel Washington,

P.S. You may recall meeting me at Madison Wis
at Lake Side 18 or 12 years ago when you lectured there Peter M. Bruner, Prop'r.
Livery Connected  on the battle of Gettysburg.

Carlisle Street,

Gettysburg, Pa.,..... 190

As I am now an old man - past 67 years -
I will probably never visit - this field again and I have taken great pains to get a correct idea of its many points
and to truthfully represent it as it appears to me now as compared with the battle as I saw it then.

General Howard's name is the only name of any Gen. or man now living that I mention. You will excuse the expression "hawk-eyed Howard"; it was not intended in flattery and certainly not as a comparison of ^{your} the physical appearance, for my recollection is that you have not the eyes of a hawk by any means, but the expression is a truthful description of the military sagacity - that secured us  the position for the final struggle. In the poem I criticize no one, but if I write this field up in prose I shall do so. Your 11th Corps line general was certainly well chosen, ^{I mean on Cemetery ridge} and as I look at it - today I wonder what was wrong - was it the fighting qualities of your men or were they caught napping that Early's Div. was enabled to make the bold push they did? But the inexcusable and awful blunder ^{of the battle} was Sickles' line.

I have always been inclined to think that Sickles was more than half right and Meade more than half wrong in the question that arose between them,
but this field is a book that demonstrates to a military eye that Sickles had no shadow of excuse for such a blunder.

Well Gen. I have made this letter tedious
I fear. Address me at Sun Prairie, Wis.
Respectfully in F. C. & L. R. K. Reecham of 1st Brig 1st Div. 1st Corp in the battle and later Capt. 23rd U. S. Col. Troops.

My dear General :-

I am tired from over anxiety and shall be glad to get away for a few days with you. My plan is to leave on Wednesday, midnight train, via New Haven R.R. due at Grand Central depot, 42nd St. from 6:30 to 7 a.m., when I hope to meet you. After breakfast, shall be ready to go along with you on any train South.

I should like to stop a few hours in Washington, if it does not interfere, and see Senator Hoar with you; then go directly to Cumberland Gap.

We can, I hope, reach there Sunday, and I would like to start back as soon as possible after the exercises are over.

Mr. Fairchild dined with me yesterday (Sunday).

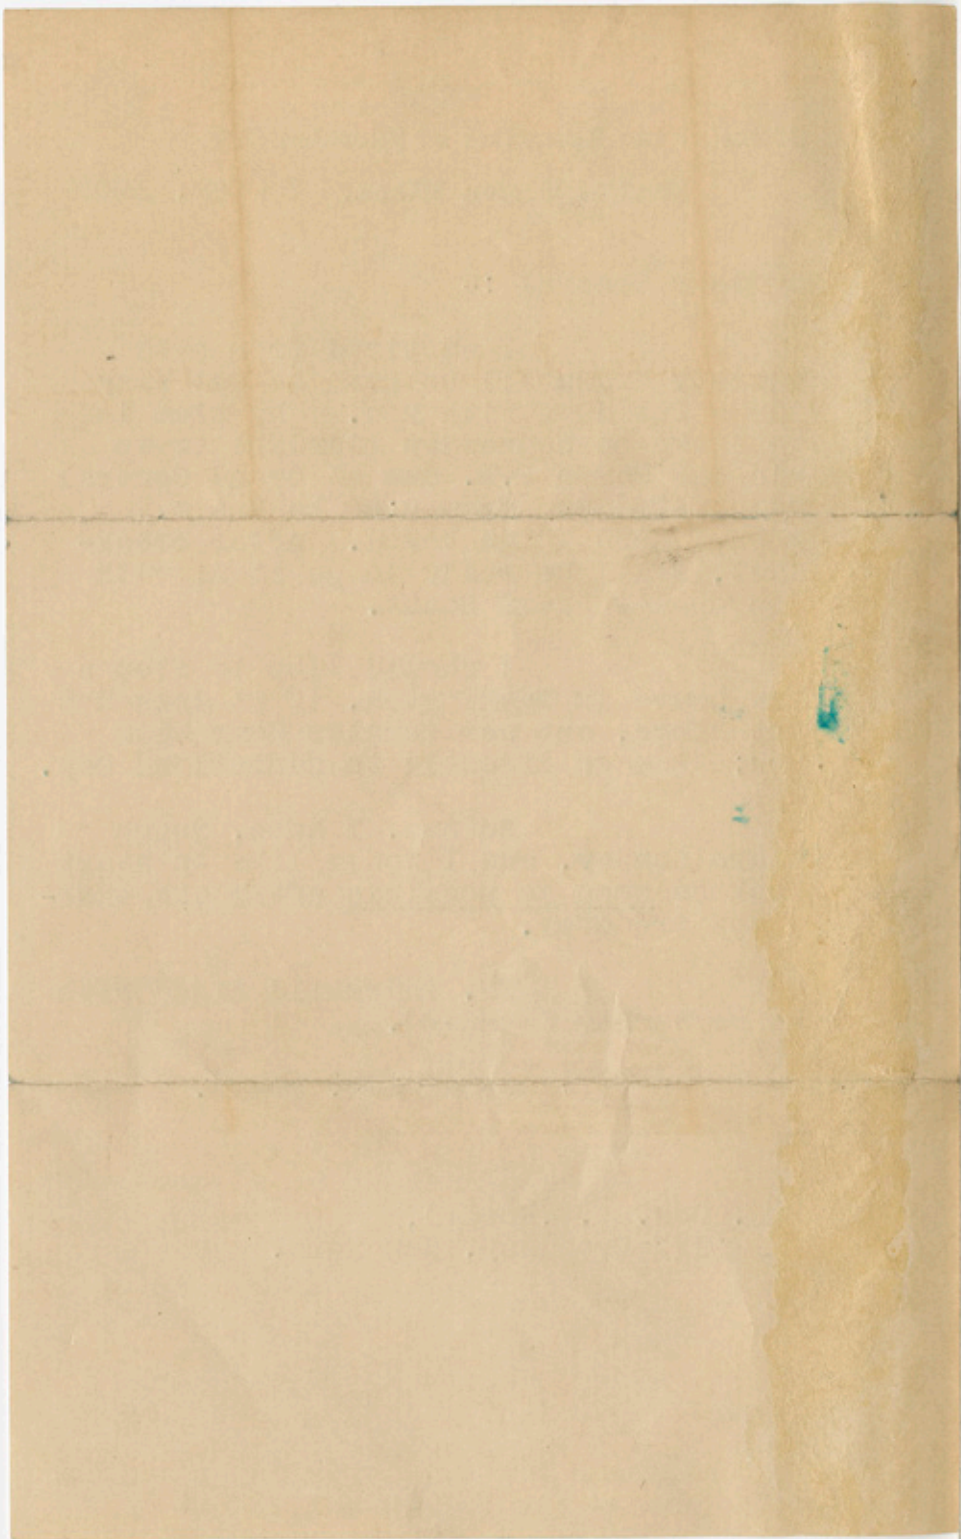

Cordially, yours,

all at home join in regards to you

Dear Gen. Howard: Your favor of 2nd inst. with check for $400⁰⁰ has been received, also your report for April.

Mr. Hughes did not succeed in getting the deed to Harrow School Property signed by Mr. Myers. He admitted our legal right to transfer the property, but thought that the Orthodox Cong. Educational Society had rights in the property to such an extent that we ought not to transfer it until they give their consent. Mr. Hughes at once wrote to the Society explaining the whole situation, thinking that would be the best way to do, as that is the only objection made by him, and we are confident that they will consent.

We hope to have the deed all signed before the annual meeting.

We are all very busy. Yours truly,
Chas. F. Eager Sec.
